Starts Income Tax Series

Every one, please mail your contributions to our Tax Series Fund, as an aid to cover current expenses. No one who can afford to do so should fail to contribute. A whole sale ton of money is already past, and more than $10,000 will be needed to meet the expenses of the season. Do not give too little, give as much as you can. The benefit will be given at 8:30 p.m., at the Roxy in aid of the Christmas charities, and will be followed by a supper in the Hotel.

Reform Income Tax Rates, Iowan Tells House Group

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Iowan Harold D. Evans, a District Judge in Des Moines, today testified in Congress in favor of the new individual income tax, which is designed to provide necessary funds for the support of education.

Judge Evans said that the District Court of Iowa, by two members of the commission, has been willing to receive the two sets of legal materials from the Manufacturers of Iowa, which are discussing the tax with the Governor and State legislators.

The manufacturers of Iowa are examining various possible tax structures for their small businesses. Commissioned with the Governor and State legislatures, the manufacturer is looking into the necessary funds to support the creation of the new tax structure.

Judge Evans said that the average income in Iowa is $2,400, with the average income tax paid by individuals being $150, or 6.3% of the average income. He said that the Governor's commission is examining the necessary funds that are required to support the creation of the new tax structure.

In an annual report listing the crimes committed in Iowa City during 1957, it was noted that the alcohol concentration of traffic tickets issued was 1.6%. The report lists the crime of alcohol concentration, which was made into the Riverside Inn, Des Moines, Iowa, at 12:50 a.m. on May 12th.

Judge Evans was arrested at 12:50 a.m. on May 12th, and charged with the crime of alcohol concentration. He was released without bond on May 13th.

In the 1.6% of traffic tickets issued by Iowa City Police Court during 1957, 72, 100 and 3,400 traffic violations were listed. Criminal complaints and intoxication, and intoxication, were the two offenses made into the Riverside Inn.

The greatest number of citations issued in all of Iowa during 1957 was 2,500. The report on the crimes committed in Iowa City during 1957 was compiled by Judge Evans, and published in Iowa City, Iowa.

SUI Prof Points Dangers Of Hasty Action in Crisis

An SUI sociologist Monday held a series of lectures on how to handle a series of crises which may arise from the need for higher education in America. He warned that the crisis is not likely to subside for some months, as it is likely to remain for some time to come.

For instance, certain economic problems are likely to be magnified by the need for higher education in America, and will create a serious situation which America must face. The speaker, J. L. H. Milani, professor of rural sociology, said:

"But the crisis is likely to continue for some months, and it is likely to remain for some time to come. The only way to handle the crisis is to face it, but America must face it."

High Court Voids Controversial Act

WASHINGTON, D.C. - The Supreme Court, deciding 5-4, ruled Monday that the 1957 act which authorized the police to investigate the national security of the United States had been voided by the act.

The court ruled in the case of a police officer, William J. Sullivan, who was fired from his job because he had been suspected of being a Communist. The court ruled that the act was unconstitutional and that the police officer had been unjustly fired.

Driver Injured

LAVENDER ALFREDSON, Grand Island, N.W., was injured in a motor-car accident on Saturday afternoon on the junction of Highways 114 and 115, said District Attorney, Frank Milani, who received the first report of the accident.

The accident occurred when the driver of a car turned into the path of a truck and was injured in the accident. The driver of the car, who was injured, was taken to the hospital.

Inspection Set In AFROTC

Two Air Force officers from the University of Nebraska at Lincoln, Nebraska, were commissioned in the AFROTC as a result of inspection of their performance.

The officers, Lt. Col. W. D. Thompson and Capt. C. E. Smith, both graduates of the University of Nebraska, were commissioned in the AFROTC as a result of inspection of their performance.

Deaths of various kinds will increase during the summer months, according to the latest report of the University of Nebraska.

Panel to Discuss Living Standards in Iowa on Sunday

The university of Iowa held a panel discussion on Sunday to discuss the living standards of the state.

The panelists were: George R. Milani, professor of sociology; Edward E. Smith, assistant professor of economics; and Charles E. Cline, assistant professor of political science.

The panelists discussed the living standards in Iowa, as well as the problems of the state.
