Moore Finally Feels Needed By Profession
NEW YORK — Archie Moore, who for years
fought the world, finally told off his best.
The 42-year-old heavyweight champ got all the credit
decking a backing, but now secretes
a comeback victory over Art Briles, Sunday, and for giving him the spotlight of a new arena.
"Most of my career, when things were going bad, I was getting my nose in the news," says Moore.
"I gained nine years. But I'm studying a comeback. I'm going along fine. I'm going to work with my old friends again.
"I'm going to be a big rally point.
"I'm going to take care of my old age."
The champ says: by a Briles fight. Last Wednesday
the South American was being lined up by Roberto D'Auban,
"best American man ever.
"Archie said the dates haven't been settled yet but he expects to have other jobs. But the man in the front office is not in a hurry.
"Archie said Moore would appear at Seattle, Denver, and Argentina and Berry.

Iowa Gridders Drill;
Leave Wednesday

The Iowa gridders hold their last fall practice in Iowa City Monday when coach Purple Donovan puts his charges through extensive offensive and defensive drills in preparation for the Rose Bowl game, Dec. 1.

The same halfback that started, orummer fractionback, Harold Earnest started in a fall Monday—

Says Donovan: "We saw every possible play Wednesday in a practice session here in Cedar Falls."

The game is to be played at the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif., New Year's Eve, Dec. 1st.

"We'll have to be able to handle ourselves on the field," says Donovan.
