Rebel Troops Ride Triumphantly Into Havana

The Daily Iowan

Seize Cuban Consular Records

Seize Cuban Consular Records

Last Diehard Opposition To Castro Falls

'Long, Hard Road, But We Made It'

'BOYATLA, Cuba—The Cuban rebels rode triumphantly into Havana Saturday, some 12,000 strong, at 9:20 a.m. Saturday, as one of the last holdouts of guerrilla resistance. The main body of rebel troops, which have been engaged in fighting the government forces for the past year, was welcomed by the city authorities and people and marched in an official ceremony.

Rebel troops rode triumphantly into Havana Saturday, some 12,000 strong, at 9:20 a.m. Saturday, as one of the last holdouts of guerrilla resistance. The main body of rebel troops, which have been engaged in fighting the government forces for the past year, was welcomed by the city authorities and people and marched in an official ceremony.

Rebel troops rode triumphantly into Havana Saturday, some 12,000 strong, at 9:20 a.m. Saturday, as one of the last holdouts of guerrilla resistance. The main body of rebel troops, which have been engaged in fighting the government forces for the past year, was welcomed by the city authorities and people and marched in an official ceremony.

Rebel troops rode triumphantly into Havana Saturday, some 12,000 strong, at 9:20 a.m. Saturday, as one of the last holdouts of guerrilla resistance. The main body of rebel troops, which have been engaged in fighting the government forces for the past year, was welcomed by the city authorities and people and marched in an official ceremony.

Rebel troops rode triumphantly into Havana Saturday, some 12,000 strong, at 9:20 a.m. Saturday, as one of the last holdouts of guerrilla resistance. The main body of rebel troops, which have been engaged in fighting the government forces for the past year, was welcomed by the city authorities and people and marched in an official ceremony.

Rebel troops rode triumphantly into Havana Saturday, some 12,000 strong, at 9:20 a.m. Saturday, as one of the last holdouts of guerrilla resistance. The main body of rebel troops, which have been engaged in fighting the government forces for the past year, was welcomed by the city authorities and people and marched in an official ceremony.

Rebel troops rode triumphantly into Havana Saturday, some 12,000 strong, at 9:20 a.m. Saturday, as one of the last holdouts of guerrilla resistance. The main body of rebel troops, which have been engaged in fighting the government forces for the past year, was welcomed by the city authorities and people and marched in an official ceremony.

Rebel troops rode triumphantly into Havana Saturday, some 12,000 strong, at 9:20 a.m. Saturday, as one of the last holdouts of guerrilla resistance. The main body of rebel troops, which have been engaged in fighting the government forces for the past year, was welcomed by the city authorities and people and marched in an official ceremony.

Rebel troops rode triumphantly into Havana Saturday, some 12,000 strong, at 9:20 a.m. Saturday, as one of the last holdouts of guerrilla resistance. The main body of rebel troops, which have been engaged in fighting the government forces for the past year, was welcomed by the city authorities and people and marched in an official ceremony.

Rebel troops rode triumphantly into Havana Saturday, some 12,000 strong, at 9:20 a.m. Saturday, as one of the last holdouts of guerrilla resistance. The main body of rebel troops, which have been engaged in fighting the government forces for the past year, was welcomed by the city authorities and people and marched in an official ceremony.
All-Ball American Features
Small vs. Large Schools

THURSDAY: A 52-21 win by the College Park High School football team over undefeated Los Angeles High School is the recent success story of a small school in Southern California. The Bearcats, who are coached by Coach Joseph Calvert, have been successful in the past, and this victory over the mighty Torres is another example of their ability to compete with larger schools.

Johnny Bulla Takes Lead in Golf Meet

LOUISVILLE—Johnny Bulla, a senior at Western Kentucky University, leads the field of 150 golfers in the Louisville Open. Bulla, who is a resident of San Diego, California, has been playing the game since he was 13 years old. He has won several local tournaments and is期待 a strong showing in the upcoming event.

Joe Hagan Takes Lead in Texas Open

AUSTIN—Joe Hagan, a senior at Texas A&M University, leads the field of 120 golfers in the Texas Open. Hagan, who is a resident of Houston, Texas, has been playing the game since he was 15 years old. He has won several local tournaments and is期待 a strong showing in the upcoming event.

Round Table Tops Field Of 10 In San Carlos Race

ARCADIA—Round Table, driven by Bill A. Worsham, took the top spot in the San Carlos Stakes at Santa Anita Park.

Iowa-Northwestern For Opening Of Big 10 Cage Season

The Iowa-Hawkeyes and Northwestern Wildcats are set to open the Big Ten League season on Saturday. The game is expected to be a close one, with both teams having strong offensive and defensive lines.

Amateur Basketball Tournament Scheduled

A preview of the Annual Amateur Basketball Tournament is scheduled to begin on Saturday. The tournament, which is open to teams from throughout the United States, is expected to attract hundreds of participants.

Steve Billingsley Wins Golf Tournament

The Steve Billingsley Golf Tournament, which is open to players of all skill levels, is scheduled to begin on Saturday. The tournament, which is expected to attract hundreds of participants, is expected to be a challenging one.
U.S. Troops Find Jamming Equipment

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Americans have discovered a network of radio jamming equipment that could substantially reduce the effectiveness of Allied forces.

The network reportedly consists of radio stations that transmit signals to disrupt enemy communications.

Despite Snow And Sleet, Holiday Death Toll Down; Safety Officials Relieved

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Traffic

Traffic was light and accidents were few in spite of the snow and sleet that accompanied many of the Red and Green games.

New U.S. Flag As Alaska Becomes 49th State Today

GETTEBURY, Pa., Dec. 18 (UPI) - The U.S. flag will be changed to the 49th state, today, as Alaska becomes the 49th state.

Fans Home-Bound; Many Yarns Ahead

A continuous stream of Hawaii-bound fans and Iowa fans will arrive in Chicago, Ill., for the Rose Bowl game.

Hawks To Eat Holy Cow At Victory Dinner Jan. 14

DEERFIELD, Ill. - The banquet dinner for the Rose Bowl team will be held at the Rose Bowl Hotel on Jan. 14.

Highlander Memories

BATHON THURSTON, Ann Arbor, Mich., Dec. 18 (UPI) - The Michigan State University marching band, led by Charles W. Shubert, has been at the forefront of band and music education in the country.

Disneyland Shooter

IT MAY BE STRETCHING a point, but they call this "shooting range" because it's an actual playing field for Disneyland's "Downtown." Park staff

Sleep and Bridge

Five-place air liner returned to Florida Friday after a stopover in the Arizona territory.

SUI Musicians

SUI Twirlers

Students Travel: One group will return from San Francisco to Iowa State Monday night. The other group will return from San Francisco to Iowa State Monday night. The other group will return from San Francisco to Iowa State Monday night.

Expect American Airlines Contract Agreement Today

The representatives of American Airlines have reported that they have reached an agreement in principle on a new contract for an estimated 15,000 flight attendants.

Guard Nabs Grandmother Bank Bandit

NEW YORK (UPI) - A 25-year-old woman was arrested here today for allegedly robbing an elderly woman at gunpoint.

U.S. Banks Aid DeGaulle With $10 Million

Paris, Dec. 18 - The banks of France have agreed to lend $10 million to the Free French Government in a bid to strengthen its position in the current conflict.

So far, at least 800,000 acres of the state's land has been dedicated to the use of the House of Witness and the church.

You wouldn't want a 15-year-old girl to find your underwear in your underwear drawer, and she wouldn't want to keep it there.

A restaurant chain, Howard D. O'Neal, of West Des Moines, has been the target of a holdup.

Students Travel: One group will return from San Francisco to Iowa State Monday night. The other group will return from San Francisco to Iowa State Monday night. The other group will return from San Francisco to Iowa State Monday night.

Hawks To Eat Holy Cow At Victory Dinner Jan. 14

DEERFIELD, Ill. - The banquet dinner for the Rose Bowl team will be held at the Rose Bowl Hotel on Jan. 14.