Red-Led Rioters Clash With Police In Calcutta

Northern Laos Army Hqs. Endangered By Red Push

Police Check In Calcutta

House Passes Bill To Raise Gasoline Tax

Wanted Federal Tax 1 Cent Per Gallon

Congressional leaders say they have been

The bill, which would keep the higher tax for at least two years, went to the Senate

Survivors Get New Home

Senate Antiracket Labor Bill Passes By Vote Of 95-2

Morse, Langer Are The Lone Dissenters

House To Act On Bill Today

Weather Forecast

Flair, High 70's

Labor Bill— (Continued on page 2)
Iowa Congressman Split Over Ike's Public Works Money Bill

WASHINGTON — A split decision Tuesday afternoon in the House cut the number of President Eisenhower's veto overrides to a single one. The override of the bill would transfer 33 million dollars from the Interior Department to the Army Corps of Engineers. The vote followed an all-day session of the House where 297 members voted against the bill and 177 voted for it. The override would amount to 48 million dollars. The House vote was 286-183.

The override was cut to a single one because of a two-thirds vote required to override a presidential veto. The override of the bill would transfer 33 million dollars from the Interior Department to the Army Corps of Engineers. The vote followed an all-day session of the House where 297 members voted against the bill and 177 voted for it. The override would amount to 48 million dollars. The House vote was 286-183.

The override was cut to a single one because of a two-thirds vote required to override a presidential veto. The override of the bill would transfer 33 million dollars from the Interior Department to the Army Corps of Engineers. The vote followed an all-day session of the House where 297 members voted against the bill and 177 voted for it. The override would amount to 48 million dollars. The House vote was 286-183.

The override was cut to a single one because of a two-thirds vote required to override a presidential veto. The override of the bill would transfer 33 million dollars from the Interior Department to the Army Corps of Engineers. The vote followed an all-day session of the House where 297 members voted against the bill and 177 voted for it. The override would amount to 48 million dollars. The House vote was 286-183.

The override was cut to a single one because of a two-thirds vote required to override a presidential veto. The override of the bill would transfer 33 million dollars from the Interior Department to the Army Corps of Engineers. The vote followed an all-day session of the House where 297 members voted against the bill and 177 voted for it. The override would amount to 48 million dollars. The House vote was 286-183.

The override was cut to a single one because of a two-thirds vote required to override a presidential veto. The override of the bill would transfer 33 million dollars from the Interior Department to the Army Corps of Engineers. The vote followed an all-day session of the House where 297 members voted against the bill and 177 voted for it. The override would amount to 48 million dollars. The House vote was 286-183.

The override was cut to a single one because of a two-thirds vote required to override a presidential veto. The override of the bill would transfer 33 million dollars from the Interior Department to the Army Corps of Engineers. The vote followed an all-day session of the House where 297 members voted against the bill and 177 voted for it. The override would amount to 48 million dollars. The House vote was 286-183.

The override was cut to a single one because of a two-thirds vote required to override a presidential veto. The override of the bill would transfer 33 million dollars from the Interior Department to the Army Corps of Engineers. The vote followed an all-day session of the House where 297 members voted against the bill and 177 voted for it. The override would amount to 48 million dollars. The House vote was 286-183.

The override was cut to a single one because of a two-thirds vote required to override a presidential veto. The override of the bill would transfer 33 million dollars from the Interior Department to the Army Corps of Engineers. The vote followed an all-day session of the House where 297 members voted against the bill and 177 voted for it. The override would amount to 48 million dollars. The House vote was 286-183.
McCovery Homers Again
Giants Rip Cubs 8-5

ANN FRANKFORD - The San Francisco Giants, using the long ball as their guide, played one of the best baseball games on record out at Candlestick Sunday afternoon, taking the baseball game, 8-5, in front of a large and appreciative audience. The Giants won their third straight game and, with the help of a home run of the second baseman, third baseman, and second baseman, started another winning streak for the Giants.

The Giants will continue sound; they will have a scientifically controlled baseball game. The Giants will continue sound; they will have a scientifically controlled baseball game.

Cardinals, 5; Dodgers, 3
LOS ANGELES (AP) - St. Louis Cardinals scored three runs off Red Sox starter Jerry Reuss in the first inning of Game 3 of the National League playoff-

USHIRI

Lakefront fans may be seeing a lot of Williams this fall - in the form of either Chester, Jerry or Virgil. All are sweepers, with 130-pound tackle Chester (all) the biggest of the trio. Jerry (right) is a 190-pound guard and Virgil (left) a 195-pound fullback. Each is considered a fine prospect who could play a prominent role in the Hawkeyes' 1959 season. Daily Iowa Iowan by Jerry Smith

Hawks Stress Defense Again in 3rd Session

As the season winds down, the Hawks have concentrated on defense. Thursday was no exception. The Hawks were dominant on defense, allowing only one points in the first half and two points in the second half. The Hawks' defense has been solid all season, leading the way for the team's 2-1 record.

U.S. Gets 8 Gold Medals in Pam-Am Swim Finals

Ottawa (CP) - The United States won four gold medals at the Pan-American swimming championships here Wednesday, while Canada and Mexico each won two.

The rest of the Pan-American field consisted of 50 medalists.

Paul Johnson, who played on the Boston Red Sox, was named the season's best base runner. Johnson, who batted .314, was the only player to hit over .300. He was named the best offensive player in the league.

The Hawks' defense was sound, as they allowed only one run in the first half and two runs in the second half. The Hawks' defense has been solid all season, leading the way for the team's 2-1 record.

FRESH, TASTY SPRING CHICKEN

RUTH BLACKHALL, CANNED

PIECES

FRANKS

FRANKE

Old Homestead All Meat

FISH STICKS

FRESH FROZEN

3 Joggs. $100

MILD, AGED, LONGHORN

Cheese $1.99

Lbs. 3.99

STORE HOURS:
SUNDAYS 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.
WEEK DAYS 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.