Football City
Hosts Alumni, Friends Today

Game Tops Schedule
For Busy Weekend

Thousands of SUI alumni and friends have already gathered in Iowa's football city for SUI's 40th Homecoming celebration.

The football game with Michigan State today is the principal event of the busy weekend, but students, faculty, and Iowa's rivalry will be further entertained at dinner, coffee hours, and parties the rest of the day.

One of the biggest homecoming attractions is the Homecoming Fair presented at the Fieldhouse South. The Student Government and Student Recreation have combined for the art fair which begins late Wednesday and will be on exhibit throughout the weekend.

Football players will have an opportunity to meet the students when the Team at Tailgate is held Thursday in the Northfield House.

Herky Celebrating 8th SUI Homecoming As Mascot

By NANCY GROEMICKI

Herky the Hawk this week en- deavored to publicize the 8th SUI Homecoming as Iowa Hawkama. He appeared in his usual location, Potter Hall, in the lobby on Wednesday, Sept. 30. He was later seen packing his bags and leaving town. "I was able to get a luggage tag to sign, but I had to leave before calling Sankey," he added.

Herky is planning a trip to New York City, where he will tour the Yankees' new stadium and sample some of the city's famous food. He is also scheduled to appear on "The Tonight Show" with Johnny Carson. "I'm looking forward to it," he said. "It should be a blast."

Watch Out. Photographer!!
