Lagurus Urges New Laws To Insure Television Honesty

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Owen Harris, D-Iowa, turned off his television set after reading a 15-minute soap show无锡 of it happening. Harris pointed to the 20 p.m. telecast of "The Young and the Restless," which has been described as aimed at "young, honest and dedicated to moral principles and the welfare of society."

"I can't stand it any more," said Harris. "I may turn it on for a half an hour or so, and that's it!"

Harris said the advertising content is sometimes so objectionable he has had to turn the set off during the commercials.

"I think television is an important medium, but it's being misused," said Harris. "There are too many advertisements that are derogatory and unethical.

W. C. Dunkerton Named 'Alumni Dad' For 1959; To Open Annual Weekend

Presentation Set At Game, Dads' Meeting

Daughter Sarah Makes Father's Honor Dads' weekend features the 19th annual "Alumni Dad" program, which will be held at the Holiday Inn at 8 a.m. on Saturday.

The program begins with a breakfast meeting at 7:30 a.m., followed by a seminar at 8 a.m. on the theme of "The Dad's Role in the Family" by Dr. W. C. Dunkerton, President of the University of Iowa.

Dunkerton, who is a graduate of the University of Iowa, was named "Alumni Dad" for 1959, and will serve as Honorary Chairman for the weekend activities.

Dunkerton is a native of Iowa City and a graduate of the University of Iowa. He is a member of the Board of Trustees of the University and has served as President of the Alumni Association.

Dunkerton is also an active member of the Congregation of the Holy Cross, at which he has served as President and Vice-President.

Dunkerton has also been active in the University of Iowa Alumni Association, serving as President and Vice-President.

Dunkerton's daughter, Sarah, is a graduate of the University of Iowa and is currently employed by the Alumni Association.

dom's entertainment will be the University of Iowa Men's Basketball game against the University of Nebraska, which will be held at 8 p.m. at the University of Iowa Field House.

Stil A Hero?

Resolution to a recent Daily Iowan editorial on Charles Van Doran's fall from prominence has been issued, these readers seem to share the feeling of disenchantment that it was meant to convey. Others apparently feel it could and should also be used to raise the standards of our moral life, in which we all must accept blame.

One of the television networks, however, reports that 90 percent of Van Doran's audience, who are composed of young people who have only been educated to appreciate a story with a simple, clear, and easy-to-digest plot, will be pleased with his original decision to indulge in this complex, confusing, and difficult plot.

It is all well and good to have feelings of sympathy and affection for Van Doran. It is also perhaps true that he has become involved in a situation in which he is not strictly responsible. Nevertheless, sympathy with Van Doran's actions can be used as a cloak to hide a host of other issues that perhaps have been Van Doran's only causeway.

Van Doran apparently laid under anathema when he appeared before a New York grand jury investigating TV news shows. This was in 1935. Only recently has it been revealed that the so-called jury was really just a group of police officers who had been paid to suppress the matter.

Van Doran himself had been charged with a crime, and he has been found guilty. But the real culprit is the system of television that we have built, and the real hero is the man who stood right up and said, "This is a crock."
Braille Slate, Glasses Regular Equipment For Larry Cobb

By SANDRA MCMANUS

Staff Writer

A typical routine for a Brazil student is to sit at the desk and automatically make note of the day-to-day life of an Iowa student, Larry G. Cobb.
Larry was born with defective
senses, and, during the first few years of his life, made frequent trips to University Hospital in Iowa,
where operations were performed
to remove appendix, then to force
his face to convalesce from cataracts.

Today, he can see what is called "travel vision." In spite of this, he can find his way around campus without using a cane or difficulty and can travel
by himself.

During his first semester at UI,
Larry is studying American Government, Spanish, Arabic, Civil Law, and Communication Skills,
with a total of 15 credit hours.
He attends all classes and rounds campus, which he owns a Braille slate.

Larry learned to write Braille in
the first grade at the Iowa
School for the Blind.

Larry Cobb is a golf enthusiast,
and during his senior year, he played golf in the Marching Band.
He also owns a pair of glasses,
and during the first four years,
he was a member of the Sight Saving Club, and at last July at the first national Lion's convention.

An interesting sidelight on this year, Larry held his job at the Sight
Paper only in regular type.

What is his plan for the future?
They're indefinite, but he has learned Braille, which makes him unique in this world.

Larry enjoys walking about town,
and during the free months, he spends his time in New York City.

Larry is a lowly reporter, and for the last four years, has worked in the Vinton area.
He is captain of the wrestling team, and, for the last year, has been studying Journalism.

The schools for the blind in Iowa
have to get that Braille.

Larry speaks about the Iowa State University, and he said that there are non-disabled
students and students with handicaps doing the same work.

He owns a pair of glasses, and he said that they are necessary for readers and non-readers.

In his spare time, Larry enjoys
and travels. He is a bowling and track team member, and he said that he can see the future.

On the way, Larry held his job
in the Sight Saving Club, and at the last year, he had no idea
what was going to happen.

During his free months, he spent his time in New York City.

Larry enjoyed walking about
town, and during the free months,
he spent his time in New York City.

In his spare time, Larry enjoys
walking about town, and during the free months,
he spent his time in New York City.
We extend our sincere wishes for a successful 1959 Football Season

Urbanized Society Demands Iowa School Reorganization

The demand for school reorganization is not new. Young people in the United States have been demanding it for more than a decade. It is a movement in which the common people of the nation are taking part. It has been going on for many years. It is not a new phenomenon.
