Storms Carry Over; Cold, Cloudy, Windy Inauguration

WASHINGTON (AP) — A blizzard had the nation's capital in a whiteout Thursday night, wrecking pre-inaugural preparations for President-elect John F. Kennedy.

The wind-blasted snow threatened the parades,-scale, the inaugural ball and festivities at the Capitol, the Federal Government's home.

Kennedy and his wife, Mrs.
Jacqueline Kennedy, were to be sworn in as President at 10:30 a.m. Friday. But their flight to Washington was concerned.

The wind-lashed snow threatened to delay the 60-year-old President-elect's flight from South california, where he had benen holidaying with his family
in Palm Springs.

The White House, the Capitol
and the Federal Government's home were covered with thick snow and ice. But the frozen parades, scale, the inaugural ball and festivities at the Capitol, the Federal Government's home.

Kennedy's win was attributed to the party, say: S.U.'s Gold.

Zealot Admits Six Deaths In Harbor

WASHINGTON — A zealous,
fanatical zealot who murdered
six people in a bloodbath of sacrifice in the harbor off conservative America for a cause
which he called 'a holy war'
was reported to the police
Thursday night.

The zealot, whose name was unknown, was reported to be a member of the inner circle of the radical New Left movement. He was said to be a member of the radical New Left movement. He was said to be a member of the inner circle
of the radical New Left movement.

The police were called to the scene of the shooting on the harbor front, where they found
the bodies of six people,
including two women and four men.

The victims were identified as members of the New Left movement, who were said to be part of a group that had committed a series of attacks
in the area.

The police said they were looking for a white male with short hair and dark eyes, who was last seen wearing a black jacket and blue jeans.

The power transfer, with the death of the six New Left movement members, marks a turning point in the movement's history.

'For Improving Fraternities — 'A Serious Night in Jail'

WASHINGTON — A serious, night in jail awaits a group of fraternity members who were caught in a Làm, or 'serious night

Much Fuzzy Thinking

(Find of the article)

Prof. Dr. Smith, of the University, has done much to point out the errors of the fuzzy thinking of the present day. This is a great boon to mankind, as it is much easier to think when the ideas are well defined. Prof. Smith has written a book on the subject, which is now being published.

Respect Old Baldy

Forewarned is forearmed, as an old proverb says. So, if you are not going to speak to an old baldy, you had better be prepared. It is not necessary to know much about them, as they are not very intelligent. But if you are going to have a conversation with one, you had better be prepared. Westlawn - 'Big Brother'

To the Editor:

Most every year during the winter season, when the students are away from the University due to the snow, the University Administration has to rely on the student body to provide a comfortable and safe environment for the students who remain on campus. This year, the Administration has decided to implement a new program called "Westlawn - 'Big Brother.'"

The idea behind this program is to create a sense of community and support among the students who remain on campus during the winter months. "Big Brothers," as they are called, will be assigned to each resident of the dormitories to ensure their safety and well-being.

We believe this program will make the winter season more enjoyable for all students who choose to remain on campus. We encourage all students to participate in this new initiative and look forward to a successful winter season.

Sincerely yours,

Dramatic Tensions - 'Don Carlos'

- Thrilling Poetry

By WALTER R. KELLER

Written for the University Theatre

Don Carlos, a young prince of Spain, is a man torn between love and duty. He is betrothed to the princess, but his father, Philip II, has other plans for him. This play explores the conflicts and tensions within Carlos's life, as he struggles to fulfill his obligations and follow his heart.

For the production to be successful, the cast and crew must work together to bring this complex story to life. The actors must convey the depth of Carlos's emotions, while the directors must guide them through the intricate plot. The result will be a powerful and thought-provoking performance that will leave the audience in awe.

The University Theatre is proud to present "Don Carlos," a masterful work that will challenge and inspire its viewers. Don't miss your chance to see this remarkable play. Tickets are available online, and we look forward to seeing you in the theatre!
Zeta Tau Alpha, Alpha Xi Hold Winter Formals

NEW YORK — Mrs. John F. Kennedy will wear a winter coat this year, according to a fashion consultant. The coat is expected to be worn at the inauguration ceremony.

The outfit includes a triple chiffon skirt, a white silk tailored clutch, and a sleeveless, extremely full, overblouse. The neckline is high, gently curved, and the sleeves are long. The skirt is made of white silk peau d'ange veiled with white silk chiffon. The top is made of white silk chiffon, and the sleeves are made of white silk chiffon, as well.

Her Ball Gown’s a Sheath

A full-length sheath of white silk print court with white alabaster in Mrs. John F. Kennedy’s choice for the inaugural ball. The ballgown is embroidered in silk and brilliants, with a brooch similar to the bodice.

4th Month To Watch Her Son’s Inauguration

When President Kennedy watches John F. Kennedy take the oath of office on Jan. 20, he will be accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy, and his father, President Kennedy. The couple is expected to arrive at the White House for the inaugural ball at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Kennedy will wear a white silk coat with a white silk tailored clutch. Her hair will be styled in a flat bun. She will wear a white silk chiffon skirt, and the sleeves will be made of white silk chiffon, as well.

Injury Hinders Purdue Star—

Dischinger May Not Play

By Staff Writer

An injury to Larry Dischinger, Purdue's star forward, could cost the Boilermakers a win over Iowa today. Dischinger certainly has the height and ability to match Iowa's stars, but the injury that forced him from the game could also affect the outcome of the contest.

The Boilermakers have had a tough season, but Coach Dobie's team showed signs of improvement this year. With Iowa's talent, it would be a surprise if the Boilermakers don't have to work hard to win.

Scarlet O'Hara Untypical Of Women in Civil War

"The Scarlet O'Hara exists only in the imagination of southern women. In real life, the southern woman endures beyond imagination. When the war came, she left her gardens and her home comforts, her beautiful gowns, and her rich jewels, in order to follow the march of the soldiers. She bore her share of the suffering, she worked, she toiled, she groaned, she wept and she died."

Claretta and other officers are all dead. At Antioch, the last presidential election took place on April 4, 1961, and the district attorney, Robert L. McWhirter, was elected to serve another term. This was the only election held in the county during the war, and the votes were counted at the courthouse in Abbeville.

"In Throes of Africanism,"

Says Visitor About Africa

By GEORGE DURY

Staff Writer

Africanism, the era of large scale colonization and the formation of new nations in Africa, was discussed by a member of Congress who was visiting here yesterday. The congressman, who requested anonymity, said that the problem is one of primary importance. He explained that the newly independent nations of Africa are extremely different, and that it will be necessary for the United States to cooperate with them in order to help them develop and achieve stability.

The congressman also discussed the role of the United Nations in the development of African countries. He said that the United Nations can provide a forum for the discussion of the important issues facing the new nations of Africa, and that it is important for the United States to participate in these discussions.

The congressman concluded his remarks by expressing hope that the United States will continue to provide support and assistance to the new nations of Africa as they work towards stability and self-sufficiency.

New Canterbury Prelate Announced

LONDON - The Most Rev. Arthur Michael Ramsey, Archbishop of York, was named by the Prime Minister Thursday as successor to the Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Mieczyslaw Sluga.

The choice of Dr. Ramsey, who was born in 1892, is widely seen as an attempt by the government to break the political deadlock that has long beset the country. The new archbishop will be the 100th occupant of the chair of York and will succeed Dr. Fisher, who has served as archbishop for five years.

Dr. Ramsey is a member of the Church of England and is known for his work in India and his opposition to the recognition of China as a nation.

Bowles Wins Fast Approval

WASHINGTON - Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said Wednesday that the United States would support the admission of China to the United Nations if the UN General Assembly voted in favor of it.

The move follows similar announcements by the United States and Britain, who are the leading powers in the UN.

The decision was made after a meeting of the US delegation to the UN, which was attended by Secretary Dulles and other members of the administration.

The decision is likely to be met with resistance from the Soviet Union and other communist countries, who have opposed the admission of China to the UN.

GOPs Oppose Plan To Add 3 More Men

WASHINGTON - House Republicans have united to oppose a plan to add three more men to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. The plan was introduced by House Speaker Sam Rayburn and would have added three Republicans to the Board.

Republicans argue that the plan would give the Board too much power and would make it too independent of Congress. The plan was introduced by Speaker Rayburn and would have added three Republicans to the Board.

The move is likely to be met with resistance from the Democratic-controlled Senate, who have opposed the addition of Republicans to the Board.
