House Increases
Allowance Money

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The House of Representatives voted in morning to increase the money it pays its employees, putting an end to a 15-year legal battle.

The measure, which had been negatively received in the Senate, was passed with a vote of 242-182.

Speaker Bud Keeler, D-Huntsville, was the only member to dissent.

New Computer

Coming Here

Having been written off for a space, the computer that will replace the one damaged by a flood in 1982 is scheduled to be delivered in the next few weeks.

John F. Doe, director of the Computer Center, said the new computer, which will be used for research and administrative functions, will be a significant upgrade.

NORTH CAME

in action when the old computer crashed, leaving a few members stuck in the dark.

Yocum asks

$140,000

In Damages

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Thelma Yocum, 75, asked for $140,000 in damages after she was injured in a fall at the House of Representatives.

Mr. Yocum was suing the House of Representatives for negligence.

A House contractor had been in the area when Yocum fell, and the contractor was not wearing safety shoes.

President Kennedy

Flies to Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — President Kennedy has been flying to Little Rock, Arkansas, for the past two weeks, according to a House of Representatives official.

Mr. Kennedy

has been treating the city to some sightseeing, but he also spends time in meetings with state officials.

Dr. O. L. Jones, commissioner of the education department for the state of Arkansas, said that Mr. Kennedy had been visiting the area for the past two weeks.

Jones said that Mr. Kennedy was spending much of his time in meetings with community leaders.
