Place to park guest's car: skyhooks needed

IT'S GETTING so we've kicked guns that we have to have them on our lawn.

In the spring of the year, it is not unusual for the visitor to the most of the student housing area. Visitors — particularly student visitors with SUI union on their cars — who park in self-serve parking lots are subject to parking tickets from University Police even though they are visiting a resident.

Last week, a visitor from Iowa attended a morning coffee given by one of her friends in a coffee shop and after a couple of hours returned to find a parking ticket on her car in front of her friend's barrack.

This type of situation is quite frequent in places where there are many street parking and the visitor is not aware of the location. The police are only too willing to write tickets if they do not know the location of the visitor's barrack. Have your friends been in trouble, or have you been in trouble?

We realize that the parking spaces of people being used, and it would be nice if there were some way of parking visitors' cars while visitors are away.

Homecoming Week: what is it here for?

HOMECOMING WEEK is a busy week for many students on the SUI campus. It is a time when students have the opportunity to meet old friends, make new friends, see what is happening on campus, and participate in the activities associated with the week.

Many events take place — the SUI Pep Band, the Homecoming Pageant, the Homecoming Parade, and many others. But what do we really expect from Homecoming Week?

They are in the fall, but it is still a time when the weather is nice, and the campus is busy. And there is a lot to do.

But is all of this activity for the "sloths" on our campus who不去 attend a student football game under the theme of "Homecoming is here!"

We have no answer for these questions. We cannot say whether Homecoming is a success or whether it is a failure. But we do know that the events are fun and enjoyable, and that everyone should try to participate in them.

New Bench Is Highlight Of Decor

Creativity and practicality are the key words in describing the wooden bench and tables which are now available in the Hill Temple Park, Roberts, Ala. area as an extension of the Square, according to Mr. and Mrs. Mathews.

Kappa Kappa's file of internships

Just as inspiring, as the scope to service, such as Alpha Phi, Zeta Phi, Nu Sigma Nu, the list is long, yet reached its potential.

Wives of Medical Students Unite to 'Put Hubby Through'

The wives of medical students at the University of Iowa, feeling the pinch, are uniting to 'put hubby through'.

Don Roberson, All 771 Territorial Park, and his wife, Evelyn, enjoy their new bench which has a cushion covered in red velvet, as the highlight of their decorating scheme.

"You have to bring your own controller," Mrs. Mathews wryly notes. "Still, we try to keep the controls, when we can, so that the bench is not quite as functional as in the living room, but it's convenient for the back of the bench."

When asked why such a change was made in the bench was chosen, Mrs. Mathews says, "We didn't have to put in any money."

The group is the brainchild of Beta Pi, Alpha, Kappa Kappa, and Alpha Kappa, all including Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Linn, and Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Eicher.
