Coven's Fate in Legislature's Hands—

Covers for Student Cold Water Cave

By PENNY WARD

Two University students have resigned from the campus' largest cave system, Cold Water, a move that has placed the fate of the world-famous cave in the hands of the legislature.

The two students, who were elected to the cave's executive committee after the cave's recent closure, have announced their resignation in protest of the Legislature's decision to give the cave to the state park system.

“I am very disappointed in the decision to close the cave,” said one of the students. “We believed that the legislature had made a decision to keep the cave open and accessible to the public.”

The student group has vowed to continue their efforts to ensure that Cold Water remains open to the public.

While the two students' resignations have brought attention to the cave's closure, the issue remains contentious and will likely be debated in the coming legislative session.

The fate of Cold Water Cave continues to be a matter of debate among the public, university administration, and state officials. The cave's closure has sparked criticism from those who believe it deprives the public of a valuable natural resource, while others argue that it is necessary to protect the cave's fragile ecosystem.

The fate of Cold Water Cave remains uncertain, with both sides making a strong case for their position. The issue is expected to be a major topic of discussion in the upcoming legislative session.
LESSON 1

The Second Brilliant Thing We Did Was Hire a Lawyer Who Calls the Judge a "" and a Witness a ""

The Daily Journal

OPINIONS

PAGE 2
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1979

IDAHO CITY, IDAHO

Includes Bozeman, Butte, Billings, Great Falls, Helena, Missoula, and other Montana communities.

Adams' Rib

By Cindy Carr

People's Liberation, in the past week, has been misunderstand, misused, and misused, and generally misread over the pages of the Daily Journal, religious, radical, and otherwise. Adams' Rib, the bona fide free journal, sets out to rid the people of Idaho of the old-fashioned and far too few 19th Century prejudices in these Golden State's political, economic, and social life. Here is an apparent misread in this issue to City to City in Iowa. "How many of the old fashioned, and the old-fashioned are fighting around that Women's Liberation is adopted in the "saffron color," and the realizing the issues of oppression are three women's marches. The contents of this issue are designed to help men):

When the game was set up to allow students to the other in order to save a check or a clock, if it was for the sake of time. In the meantime, the University might have been the best-looking driver in California and perhaps in the entire West. The Feifer Plan is to incorporate all

The Feifer Plan is to incorporate all

They Had a Dream

George F. Moore by Bernard and Patricia

George F. Moore has been responsible in the direct role of the swing, preventing the other from showing the waves, and writing received national renown.

In one hand Moore gripped his gun, one to each hand, and in the other a hobo which he occasionally wielded over the heads of the bystanders. His hat sat on his head in the breeze. Moore had made his trip to rain California's Yosemite Valley many times before—but this time he was traveling as a tourist in Des Moines, not as a writer. Moore knew there had been a crook. With him holding the weapon, it was obviously his right.

In his day, Moore was made up for the highest road, which was naturally his right. He sent out his lettering for the form and was new working to get a car which really was a smoothly running machine. He was never satisfied with what did not make them go, and limit him to a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which did not roll. There was nothing worse in any case. Moore found that he never could take a car which di...
Prof Says College Spur Change

Robert A. Corinne, professor and the University's director of public relations, said it is a "flaw in the system of mentioning college that is a large insurance company that works. Insurance companies don't care about this because the risk is too high."

"The more the university and the college talk about liberal arts, the more the world is going to go downhill. The more the world is going to go downhill, the more consumers are going to say, 'miserable.'" he said.

"I don't think this is a crisis, but I do think it is an issue that needs to be addressed."

East Germany, West Germany Agree To Meet

Iowa City -- East Germany and West Germany agreed to meet next weekend for the first time since the Berlin Wall was erected.

"This is a significant step forward in the process of reunification in Europe," said a source in the East German government.

"We are hopeful that this will be the first of many meetings between the two countries, and we look forward to working together on a number of important issues."
It Serves Johnson, Cedar Counties—
Mental Care Center Opens

The Daily Iowa

University Calendar

- THE DAILY IOWA—Iowa City, Iowa—Sat., Feb. 22, 1976

It Serves Johnson, Cedar Counties—
Mental Care Center Opens

Dedication ceremonies for the new Iowa Mental Health Center were held under the supervision of Dr. Jean Haas, director of the new center. The center, which is located at the intersection of Sixth Street and 11th Avenue South, was opened Dec. 15.

The new center is the result of a study by a staff of five and an array of professionals headed by Professor John G. Tun. The center provides in-patient, out-patient, and partial hospitalization services to individuals of all ages who are facing a variety of psychiatric and emotional problems.

The center's mission is to provide comprehensive care to individuals in the Johnson and Cedar counties.

Rally Round the Flagpole

About 35 persons, most of them students, marched to the Iowa City Police Office, 611 S. Linn St., Friday and attempted to lower the flag there to half staff in honor of Paul Cruchow, the former state secretary, and other employees who ran from the building and grabbed the ropes to stop the demonstrator. The officers, who said nothing more than the man unchained, told the group to return at 2 p.m. if they wished to see the flag lowered.

---

The Daily Iowa

University Calendar

---
Paper due: Student Faces Frustration When Books Are Stolen from Library

By CHRYL NIGH
I refer to the situation in which
You go to the library and look for the good book. Only it has been lost.
You go upstairs to find your book. It's gone. Someone else has checked it out, but maybe he will let you use it because someone says the book is stolen. The librarian hopes you see it and it will be there. Your only book has been stolen.

Here is your book. Who stole it? The answer is in an essay you can read on this page,
as well as in the book.

Paper due: Student Faces Frustration When Books Are Stolen from Library

By CHRYL NIGH
I refer to the situation in which
You go to the library and look for the good book. Only it has been lost.
You go upstairs to find your book. It's gone. Someone else has checked it out, but maybe he will let you use it because someone says the book is stolen. The librarian hopes you see it and it will be there. Your
only book has been stolen.

Here is your book. Who stole it? The answer is in an essay you can read on this page,
as well as in the book.
Les Biches’ Depicts Air of Tragic Beauty

Claude Chabrol’s “Les Biches” is a sensitive treatment of a complex marriage in a group of four middle-aged women and the atmosphere of beauty that exists in the town they call home.

The story unfolds in a Parisian suburb, apparently an innocent scene of daily life, but Chabrol skillfully weaves the threads of the characters’ lives into a complex web of hidden tensions and desires. The four women, who are all friends, begin to notice that their lives are becoming intertwined in ways they cannot control.

As the story progresses, the relationships between the women are shown to be fragile and unstable, with each woman having her own secrets and hidden agendas. The tension between them is palpable, and the atmosphere of the film is one of unease and dread.

The film’s opening scene is a striking moment of beauty, with a shot of a snowy landscape that sets the tone for the rest of the film. As the story unfolds, we see how the women’s lives are beginning to spiral out of control, with each woman eventually finding herself in a situation she cannot escape.

The film’s climax is a powerful moment of revelation, as the women’s secrets are revealed and the truth of their relationships is laid bare. The atmosphere of the film is one of total collapse, with the women and their lives falling apart.

Chabrol’s direction is masterful, with each scene perfectly timed and beautifully shot. The performances of the cast are excellent, with each woman bringing a unique energy to her role.

“Les Biches” is a film that is both beautiful and unsettling, with a sense of foreboding that is impossible to shake. It is a testament to Chabrol’s mastery as a filmmaker, and a must-see for anyone who appreciates the art of cinema.
Ohio State Field Accuracy Is Deadly—Hawks to Battle Buckeyes Tonight

By Mike Sloviter

What do you do for an encore after scoring the highest single-game total in NCAA basketball history? Ohio State's Ted Richards did it again, scoring 53 points against Purdue tonight. The Buckeyes' in-state rival, Michigan, had just added another weapon to its already potent offense.

Columbus—Ohio State's Ted Richards led the Buckeyes to a dominating 17-point victory over Purdue. With his 53-point performance, Richards became the second player in NCAA history to score 50 or more points in back-to-back games. The Buckeyes dominated the Boilermakers, outscoring them by 63-46 in the second half.

The Buckeyes' defense held Purdue to a season-low 46 points, as Richards' scoring helped to set the tone for the game. The Buckeyes outrebounded the Boilermakers 45-30, and Richards' 17 rebounds were a career-high.

In the first half, Richards scored 21 points, including five 3-pointers, as the Buckeyes built a 31-21 lead at halftime. Richards continued his dominance in the second half, scoring 32 points, including four 3-pointers.

Michigan State's Nat Holman, who scored 54 points against the Buckeyes in the first game, scored just 23 points tonight. The Buckeyes' defense held Holman to just 56% shooting, compared to his 83% performance in the first game.

Ohio State's victory was a complete team effort, with five players scoring in double figures. In addition to Richards, Ben Hammonds scored 17 points, including four 3-pointers. The Buckeyes' defense held the Boilermakers to just 23% shooting in the second half, and the Buckeyes outscored Purdue 73-46 in the second half.

The Buckeyes' defense held Purdue to just 12 assists, as the Buckeyes' aggressive defense forced the Boilermakers into 13 turnovers. The Buckeyes' defense held Purdue to just 12 points in the last five minutes of the game.
Charles E. Donnelly, Jr., Publisher
The Guide
Rapid City, S. D.

Born in 1927, Charles E. Donnelly, Jr., started in journalism at age 15. A picture of the paper he would eventually own and build is one of the items listed in the wedding in the rural, with $13,000 conclusion. His first published piece was in his high school newspaper, The Student, when he was 18 years old. Donnelly spent his childhood in Washington, D.C., and then was 18 years old when he sold the paper for $13,000.

Donnelly's first step was to buy the Rapid City, S. D., and then was 18 years old when he sold the paper for $13,000.

In 1938, the year when he left his job as a newspaper editor, he joined the staff of The Rapid City Times. He was a reporter and assistant editor. After leaving the Times, he went on to be the editor of the Rapid City Times.

Donnelly is one of the last publishers of the Rapid City Times to have managed the paper without the help of a computer. He said, "It's a great tradition for me to have published the Rapid City Times."

Donnelly is a native of Rapid City, S. D., and has been a resident of the city for 45 years. He was married in 1950, and has two children.

Donnelly has been active in local and state politics. He served as a member of the South Dakota State Board of Education, and was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party. He was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party, and was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party. In 1980, he was elected to the South Dakota State Senate, where he served for two terms.

Donnelly has been active in local and state politics. He served as a member of the South Dakota State Board of Education, and was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party. He was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party, and was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party. In 1980, he was elected to the South Dakota State Senate, where he served for two terms.

Donnelly has been active in local and state politics. He served as a member of the South Dakota State Board of Education, and was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party. He was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party, and was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party. In 1980, he was elected to the South Dakota State Senate, where he served for two terms.

Donnelly has been active in local and state politics. He served as a member of the South Dakota State Board of Education, and was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party. He was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party, and was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party. In 1980, he was elected to the South Dakota State Senate, where he served for two terms.

Donnelly has been active in local and state politics. He served as a member of the South Dakota State Board of Education, and was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party. He was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party, and was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party. In 1980, he was elected to the South Dakota State Senate, where he served for two terms.

Donnelly has been active in local and state politics. He served as a member of the South Dakota State Board of Education, and was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party. He was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party, and was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party. In 1980, he was elected to the South Dakota State Senate, where he served for two terms.

Donnelly has been active in local and state politics. He served as a member of the South Dakota State Board of Education, and was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party. He was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party, and was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party. In 1980, he was elected to the South Dakota State Senate, where he served for two terms.

Donnelly has been active in local and state politics. He served as a member of the South Dakota State Board of Education, and was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party. He was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party, and was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party. In 1980, he was elected to the South Dakota State Senate, where he served for two terms.

Donnelly has been active in local and state politics. He served as a member of the South Dakota State Board of Education, and was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party. He was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party, and was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party. In 1980, he was elected to the South Dakota State Senate, where he served for two terms.

Donnelly has been active in local and state politics. He served as a member of the South Dakota State Board of Education, and was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party. He was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party, and was a member of the South Dakota Republican Party. In 1980, he was elected to the South Dakota State Senate, where he served for two terms.
Nixon Uses Civil Rights for Courting Dixie

By GARY ORFIELD

Washington columnist Philip B. Klutznick, a former administrator of the Civil Rights Commission, is assistant professor of Poli day's editorial column. He is currently the editor of the Nation, the oldest American weekly.

By DEREK FOWLER

students, the only professor to have helped almost a million new day's editorial column. He is currently the editor of the Nation, the oldest American weekly.

students, the only professor to have helped almost a million new

The Administration's civil rights policies and its enforcement procedures we re in the process of the Court

In the mid-1960s, a

The primary reliance

Procation in Texas to

...the Supreme Court

President's political advisors

in the previous Administration's decision under Nixon's hand

nearly a million new university students, the only professor to have helped almost a million new university students.

The Administration's civil rights policies and its enforcement procedures were in the process of the Court's decision on the Mississippi election law.

The primary reliance on the Supreme Court's decision was the basis of the Administration's civil rights policies and enforcement procedures.

...the Supreme Court

President's political advisors

in the previous Administration's decision under Nixon's hand

nearly a million new university students, the only professor to have helped almost a million new university students.

The Administration's civil rights policies and its enforcement procedures were in the process of the Court's decision on the Mississippi election law.

The primary reliance on the Supreme Court's decision was the basis of the Administration's civil rights policies and enforcement procedures.

...the Supreme Court

President's political advisors

in the previous Administration's decision under Nixon's hand

nearly a million new university students, the only professor to have helped almost a million new university students.

The Administration's civil rights policies and its enforcement procedures were in the process of the Court's decision on the Mississippi election law.

The primary reliance on the Supreme Court's decision was the basis of the Administration's civil rights policies and enforcement procedures.