Board, Teachers Agree to Omit No-Strike Rule

The Iowa City Board of Education and the Iowa City Education Association (IUEA) decided to omit the no-strike rule from the upcoming contract negotiations.

The IUEA presented its proposal to the board, which included a rollback of the no-strike clause.

The board agreed to include a rollback of the no-strike clause in the upcoming contract negotiations.

Students Quiz Hubbard, Boyd During Informal Talk

Students from the University of Iowa interviewed Senator John H. Stennis and Representative Henry M. Gonzalez during their visit to the university.

The students asked questions about their views on current issues and their experiences in Congress.

Stennis emphasized the importance of bipartisanship and the need for cooperation in the Senate.

Gonzalez discussed the importance of representation and the need for legislation that benefits all Americans.

Defendant And Counsel

Raymond Calley, Jr., was found guilty of first-degree murder in the My Lai massacre.

Calley's attorney, Ralph Delozier, argued that the soldier acted in self-defense.

The jury deliberated for four days before reaching a verdict.

VOTE FOR STUDENT SERVICES. The Board of Regents approved a resolution to increase student fees.

The increase, which was approved by the Board of Regents, will support the university's financial needs.

The fee increase will affect all students and will be used to fund scholarships and other financial aid programs.

The Board of Regents has been under pressure to increase student fees to support the university's financial needs.

Grand Jury Probes NFL 'Monopoly'

CLEVELAND — Jim Skorich, Cleveland Browns' defensive coach, admitted that payoffs were offered him Tuesday by the federal grand jury probing the National Football League's pension-fund scheme.

In a prepared statement, Skorich said that he was offered $10,000 in cash and $100 a week to help fix the 1972 Super Bowl.

Skorich denied that he had accepted any money from a feared Cleveland mobster, James "Whitey" Blacker.

TAYLOR, Ala. — Bobbo Bean won the 1969 Sugar Bowl National Championship Trophy in a storybook performance for his high school, the Bankhead College.

The Bowden, South Carolina, school beat the Chalk College, 7-1. Bean, a three-year varsity player, was the only one in the picture.

Bean's throwing ability and running ability gave his team the lead for the game. He ran two goals of the three goals scored by the Bankhead College.

With one pass remaining against Sugar Bowls, Va. Nov. 29, the Bowden team had a 10-1 lead over the Bankhead College.
