A proposal to implement a property tax in Johnson County to raise money for library construction was rejected Thursday by the Johnson County Board of Supervisors.

The proposal presented to the board by a "representative group" which would ensure that small cities and towns would not be penalized if they were unable to pass a tax to finance such a project was defeated 2-1 by the board. Supervisor George A. Chambers, the sponsor and a member of the representative group, was the only supporter of the tax.

The votes were Chambers and the county auditor, with the opposition from supervisors William L. Boyd and Ray Ellis. Supervisor Boyd was not present, and the decision to phase out the property tax was taken to a vote by Chambers. A three-fourths majority of the board was required to pass the amendment to the county constitution and levy the tax.

The proposed tax, which would be a $5 property tax on property totaling $100,000 or more, was not estimated to raise enough money to construct a library. But, said Chambers, it would be a "representative" tax, and he felt it should be presented to the people, even though they might reject it.

Superintendent of Schools Brooks B. Cross, who was interested in looking into the possibility of a tax to finance a public library, served as chairman of the representative group. Chambers and Cross had met with several members of the group and had discussed the possibility of raising money for a library.

The board had been asked to consider the proposal by a group of citizens, who had been interested in getting a public library established for some time. The group had approached the board in the fall of 1971 and had been asked to present a more detailed plan of operation, including the possible sources of revenue.

Chambers said the proposal was presented to the board because there was a desire to phase out the property tax that was now being levied in the county. He said he felt it was important to let the people know that the property tax would be phased out in the future, and he hoped that the proposal would be considered.

The property tax is currently being levied in the county at the rate of $5 per $1,000 assessed valuation, and it is expected to raise about $100,000 a year for the county's general fund.

Chambers said he had consulted with other members of the group who were interested in the possibility of a public library, and he had been told that they were interested in the proposal. He said he felt that the proposal would be a good one to consider, and he hoped that the board would take it into consideration.

Judge intervenes in city pond case

The city council of a small town in Johnson County has asked the judge to intervene in a controversy over the ownership of a pond that is being used as a swimming hole.

A federal judge has ordered that Iowa City cannot proceed with a plan to open the pond to the public because of the threat of legal action.

A response

Again we see "the light at the end of the tunnel." General Creighton Abrams has said that the North Vietnamese can be expected to win a few battles in the not-too-distant future with the current offensive as a whole will be defeated. That certainly smacks of "the Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese can't possibly hold out for much longer." And the French were saying things like that in the early 1950's.

Wednesday night's Vietnam spectacular does nothing more than demonstrate once again the stubborn intransigence of all recent U.S. administrations on the Vietnamese question. And it's getting increasingly ruinous and embarrassing to sustain a presence in a theater of operations which the Vietnamese people regard as their own. If we were, we would of course set them just that. It just so happens that the Vietnamese have found it necessary to wage a military struggle as their means of self-determination. If so just so be it: the popular liberation forces under Ho, and the south people who sided with the French against the Japanese, then the French, and now us. It is no mistake that the people consider Ho Chi Minh the Father of their Country. Ho and his partisans fought for the independence of South Vietnam eliminates all reasons for calling the "Communism?"

The people that the U.S. has spent billions of dollars and sacrificed thousands of American lives to support are the same people who sided with the French against their own people. They are, very simply, puppets of Western imperial interests. Richard Nixon said on nationwide television and radio that the "invasion" of South Vietnam eliminates all reasons for calling the "Communism?"

This can be interpreted as proving once again the stubborn intransigence of all recent dictatorships in Spain, Colombia, Brazil, Guatemala, Nicaragua and Mexico. So much for the "democracy" rationale. We certainly aren't in Vietnam to guarantee the right of the Vietnamese people to decide their own destiny. If we were, we would of course set them just that. It just so happens that the Vietnamese have found it necessary to wage a military struggle as their means of self-determination. If so just so be it: the popular liberation forces under Ho, and the south people who sided with the French against the Japanese, then the French, and now us. It is no mistake that the people consider Ho Chi Minh the Father of their Country. To the editor:

I challenge Frank Rack, publisher of the Hawkeye yearbook, to prove to me and the University at large that the "Hawkeye" will still sell 10,000 this year, as reported in the April 25 issue of the Daily Iowan.

Prior to the time I became business manager of the Hawkeye yearbook, I have repeatedly asked to have the actual figures of Hawkeye expenditure, which I have never received.

Everybody (meaning the SPI Board and Frank Rack) keeps saying that the Hawkeye loses money. I'm tired of hearing it. I've been told by Richard P. Johnson, Hawkeye advisor that the Hawkeye not only supports its own publications expense, but also supports a considerable amount of the expenses incurred by the Daily Iowan. I want to know the facts, and I want to know them now. If in fact the Hawkeye loses money, we want to be shown how. As Hawkeye business manager, I was as an student on this campus, I have a right to know. If Frank Rack is right, nothing has been last by the injury. If Rack is not correct that the Hawkeye has in fact held its own plus helped to support the Daily Iowan—much will have been gained: I will ask that the decision about the future of the yearbook be re-evaluated, this time involving the Student Senate in the decision-making process (as they should have been in the first place), and I will ask that more alternatives be proposed to continue the "Hawkeye" including other funding possibilities.

Forrest although we all that the Hawkeye gives us.

If we, Mr. Rack will fly back two pages of your pet political issue, what do I say about that subsidy that you will find the following: "Why should all students pay this subsidy?" and then as many societ or even better than that. It is not $150 (or of course, the taxes are subtractable). CAMPUS is not free to anyone, the local, who did not subscribe for a tax system of some of them. We did.

Look at the fact is, we can the bus fare substantially reduced. It is 80 percent. All that we have already been paid by A.I.L. and is paid for by the student through the University system. The subsidy is very small. These students (you remember them—who are there?) have been forced to pay for a bus system that is not free to anyone, the local, who did not subscribe for a tax system of some of them. We did.

Arbor Day activities aimed at replacing Dutch elm's victims

by MARY J. REUTHER

In 1963, Iowa lost 4,628 silver maple trees to Dutch elm disease. The Iowa City Public Library is putting together a project to try to rebuild the elm population.

Dutch elm disease is carried by the elm bark beetle, which entered the United States in elm burlapped from Japan in 1921. The beetle made its way across the country, attacking the silver maples and the American elm.

Until 1963 Iowa had a silver maple program to fight the disease, because several hundred trees had already been barked in the environment, the project had been abandoned. The library is now planning the only reclamation that will satisfy the public: "Our concern is to plant trees in every corner of town, even in those places which never had any," Maier said. "We do not attempt to replace trees for Iowa. Iowa has expanded its programs in places where there is an old elm.

There will be an attempt to plant trees in Iowa City, Iowa, by the library. The library is already planning the only reclamation that will satisfy the public: "Our concern is to plant trees in every corner of town, even in those places which never had any."

THE MID MERCS

40 hp, 50 hp, 65 hp. Open water or quiet stream, they're performers.

If you're a mid-power man... if you're a hobbyist... if you like a not-too-small, not-too-big boast that’ll take you diving, skis diving, fishing, cruising, weekend......

DINGO out of your Mercury dealer and his dealers.

The 60hp Street Charge 460. The popular 38hp M-110. And all the new compact 85, 4 cylinders, 65 hp. Just one problem. It's tough to get what you want.

SAVE IS A FOUR LETTER WORD!

(This ad is rated "R." Do not read if you are under 18.)

At Discount Stereoland, we're fond of some four-letter words. Along with "save," one of our favorites is "sale." Everything is always on sale at DSL. We also like "help" (as in helping our customers) and "beat" (as in beating our competition). Oh yeah, we dig "love," too.
