Bartel says Canadian government ‘doesn’t hold’
Walters contests loss of supervisor election

Associated News Editor

Washington — The Canadian government’s decision not to hold a military trial for its former platoon leader, William C.
Bartel, has joined Kissinger and Tho at a rare rendezvous. It is the latest of a series of meetings by Kissinger’s counterparts in Washington and Hanoi “that does not mention
the problems of Vietnamese prisoners of war in North Vietnam.”

According to Bartel’s legal representatives, he is not being held as a prisoner of war, but as a political prisoner. He was arrested in November 1972 on a charge of sedition. The charges were dropped by the Canadian government but Bartel was not released. He has not been allowed to contact his family since his arrest.

Bartel’s case is one of several that are pending in Canadian courts. The others include charges of sedition and sedition conspiracy. Bartel is accused of being a member of the Communist Party of Canada.

Bartel also was arrested in 1970 for sedition. He was released from prison in 1971.

The meeting between Bartel and Kissinger is being conducted in a spirit of cooperation. The two men are meeting for the first time in two years. Bartel was in Paré for a meeting with Kissinger in 1972.

A report released by the Canadian government last week said Bartel had been arrested for sedition. The report was widely criticized by Canadian politicians and newspapers.

Bartel’s case has been brought to the attention of the United Nations and the International Court of Justice. The court has given the Canadian government a deadline of December 17 to submit evidence in the case.

The court’s decision in Bartel’s case is expected to be announced in January.

WAR demands action to stop local rapes

By PAUL DAVIS

Army News Service

This is the eleventh of a series of stories on the local rape problem in Iowa City. Today's story concerns the Women Against Rape and the demands they have made.

Attorney General Attorney General Richard Sidle last week announced the arrest of nine men accused of raping women in seven states.

The report states that the weather in the seven states was cold and the women were asked to return to their homes to avoid the cold.

In an interview with the Army News Service, the Attorney General said, "I think it's important to remember that the women's rights movement has been going on for a long time, and it's not just about rape anymore. It's about the whole range of issues that impact women's lives."
SAKON (AP) — U.S. Bills and fighter-bombers armed with napalm and incendiary napalm dropped 500,000 gallons on Vietnam on Wednesday, the Pentagon's top spokesman said.

Spokesman William E. Pounds said the Pentagon plans to return to South Vietnam next week because of continued fighting.

The spokesman, however, said the U.S. Air Force and Navy are continuing the attacks on South Vietnam.

The spokesman said the U.S. Air Force and Navy are continuing to attack after the South Vietnamese government requested it.

An alternative United Fund?

Crisis Center needs money. Free Medical Clinic needs money. Women's Center needs money. And Black Student Union. And Gay Liberation Front. Cooperative daycare preschools, too. The Protection Association for Texans, Legal and AIDS. And dozens of other community-oriented groups representing alternative lifestyles and institutions.

All of these alternative organizations may have a wider range of goals and purposes and that our unfortunate common denominator—the dollars—is necessarily shared by all of them.

In the so-called "establishment" world, there is a device known as the United Fund, which often does good things for a variety of charity groups. Each year, these groups post resources and talents with other community people in a fund-raising drive. And it has been a successful formula across the land.

Why couldn't other organizations follow the same route?

Currently, many of these groups get part of their finances from the United Charities of West Houston, which is fine. But the constantly changing composition and politics of the Senate, ranging from realism to absurdity, constantly undercuts this sort of financial support from the student body.

And, too, the student activities fee controversy could result in some sort of check-off plan in which funds to Senate-poorly could disappear.

That may not appear in the offing right now, but it is a reality alternative groups ought to face up to, if they put too much dependence on Senate allocations. They could be in luck, but back on a marginal basis.

Why couldn't the membership of these diverse groups separate themselves from those that are pushed out of the major funding sphere? In many cases the membership is poor or headed financially. These can volunteer hours, but they often cannot volunteer adequate funds as well.

We have, for a while, this community service for both the campus and city areas and deserve treatment as such.

So one would think it would be in these alternative movements best interest to consider the formation of a campaign like the United Fund, where a large number of similar sectional groups have special information and financial resources to offer the many community members who will be willing to join a group and help, if they feel the cause is alive and well.

Userful of this could become a movement.

Nixon in the Pepsi generation

Well, our President—Richard Nixon—has always tried to pass himself off as a leader with young ideas. And he made a big deal of reaching an agreement on the Senate-Fund. Our President can truly say yes to the Pepsi generation.

Pepsi, with its all-American red, white, and blue trademark, has become the first American consumer product ever bought by the Russians. According to the London Times (1973:11:20), who did a follow-up on the original visit, Pepsi is going into a bitter counter-attack stretching from Bernstoff to Vladivostok.

Naturally, the Red Hogs people were a miffed and last tolerant and the way of the Pepsi coup. Coca could have had the contract if they would have had the foresight to become Russian with our President. years ago.

Donald Kendall, Pepsi's chairman, has been around when our President has needed him. When Nixon lost to JFK in 1960, Kendall threw the presidency of Pepsi to International to him. However, Nixon instead of taking the Pepsi job ran an ill-conceived campaign for California governor.

After Nixon lost again in that election in 1963, Kendall gave all of the Pepsi legal staff to Nixon's law firm. In trade, Pepsi was granted the franchise in the Foundation: a government of Nixon's alma mater. Whii college, and during the recent campaign was the chairman of the Business and Industry Committee for the then-to-elector Nixon.

Way back in 1960 Kendall and Pepsi were working to get Pepsi on the Soviet market. During the "kitchen debate" trade war with the U.S.S.R. Pepsi, like many other American companies, watched Moscow. Kendall was photographed sitting as he called another bottle after another.

Kendall was worried that the Premier would buy the Pepsi. Kendall talked with Nixon, then also in the Senate. Yes, said Nixon: we have the formula. Kendall agreed. And in August of that year, Kendall went to Moscow and said, according to the Times. "Don't worry. I'll see to it."

By taking advantage of the Premier's thirst for a drink, Pepsi and Nixon got from page coverage throughout the country.

When the U.S. sent a trade delegation to Russia, last December, Kendall was there. Kendall talked with Premier Kosygin throughout the conference and to Kendall's great glee offered to trade a Pepsi to the Soviets. Kendall said this to Pepsi. The Russians, after all. Kendall told the Premier that Pepsi was the formula and said, according to the Times. "Don't worry. I'll see to it."

Also, Pepsi has introduced such new products as the "tint-sensitized" Pepsi. Here is a few ways from the past that the real Pepsi-ration should have been put to use. In this Pepsi Kendall also had a large part of the trade in Moscow. He is stronger than ever.

"We are, in an attempt to project our image on the world," Kendall said, "we will not let the Pepsi deal pass us by."

In fact, Kendall has been saying all along that Pepsi should be run as an international company. Kendall's on the International Pepsi board.

To the Editor:

I was not surprised that the senate adopted the proposed new constitution. but never-doubt I was disappointed. The arguements of the proposed constitution are that the student body is not being represented due to a different group of young-youngsters happened to be running up and down the stairs. causing noise and doing

the normal things that only

Again, who is it that does not understand this. The public must still deal with such disgusting situations that only adolescents could perform. If our public does not behave in be handled by the police. Since the public is behaving in an unsightly manner, who will

Joe Balsis rose from his seat. "It must have been a lot of work, but you wouldn’t want me to come in here like this,” Murphy said. "I’m not trying to run balls every time, but sometimes it just doesn’t happen."

Balsis, who owned a chain of retail meat markets in Los Angeles in the early 1960’s, later admitted that he ’s been shooting at a slower pace in recent years. He tripled the score to 5-8, before settling for a safe at 6-8.

Get your head in the game, for a good time is on the agenda tonight. The intramural softball season, with six weeks remaining, continues through Sunday, when the long ball from the Wolverines will be directed directly toward the Pirate territory. Each team has that one pitcher in each line-up who has yet to make a single error. Since the Wolverines have more errors than the Pirates, the Wolverines have all the pressure tonight. The Pirates, ever the consistent team, will be looking to get to the Wolverines before they get to them. Start limbering up and we can expect a good game.

Rumsfeld: at home almost anywhere

WASHINGTON (AP) — Donald H. Rumsfeld, the President's third Secretary of Defense and the closest thing in a job of all time to Uncle Sam, has decided to take a very active and political, and many of those around him believe that he has his eye on a future slot or two as a political, perhaps even the White House, post.

The 71-year-old Rumsfeld, who made his name in Procter & Gamble with an idea that was once considered a total failure, will not run for any office but, rather, will do what another former Secretary of Defense did, namely, to become a lobbyist and offer his expertise to the Army of Many Countries.

The man who once was a champion in the Navy, was ground himself and move into a role in the Atlantic Treaty Organization. Rumsfeld, who was in New York for a few days last week, said he was meeting with several people at the White House to discuss his future plans.

Rumsfeld was named secretary of defense in January 1974, which has been before Congress.

In fiscal 1974 will go 12 percent more than anticipated, which will eat up the Cost of Living Council. The first of all, they should be considerably after the first part of 1974 jump.

That has been the Treasury Department in the field.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Cost of Living Council. The first check will total $399. This is particularly important in the history of the mutual balanced force reduction talk. It's looking very good with the Union and its allies.

Such negotiations, which are at a critical stage now, will probably also be able to make some progress on the maintenance of a strong defense posture.

It's essential to go forward with defense programs if the alliance is to avoid the appearance of weakness. The alliance could also be expected to press for an increase in the defense posture.

Give her a Lady Seiko Sports Watch this Christmas.

Our Lady-Seiko Sports Watches not only look great, they work hard at sports and travel and every aspect of today's busy non-stop life. That's why any one you choose is a perfect Christmas gift for her. In addition to the great fashion looks, they have the convenience of self-wind with auxiliary hand wind. They're 98.2 ft. water tested, have solar-day-date change bilingual English/Spanish calendars, and many other features. Magnificent gifts—but the price is modest. YOUNKERS SATISFACTION ALWAYS
Now you can buy cost-no-object sound for a price within reach and reason.

The Advent, Sony, Dual, Shure luxury stereo system

$639, about half the expected cost of an unstintingly luxurious stereo system, will now buy a stereo system that:

- Reproduces the entire range of musical frequencies at as high or Iowa sound level as you wish, in as big or small a living room as you wish.
- Has all the controls and facilities needed for full musical enjoyment, and all the provisions you might want for adding such niceties as headphones, a good cassette tape deck, or extra speakers for other rooms.
- Is both so excellent sounding and so durable that you won't be tempted to change any of the components for many years to come.
- Will probably make you happier overall than anything you've bought for a long, long time.

The cost-no-object sound this system provides at a moderate price is the result of engineering that puts performance ahead of frills. The renowned Advent Loudspeakers put out a maximum of sound with a minimum of fuss; countless owners and usual·ly·blasé equipment reviewers have all commented that they sound like twice the price. The 6055 AM-FM stereo receiver provides the clean amplifier power (over 40 RMS watts of it) necessary to satisfy you and the Advents on the most demanding musical passages. Its sensitive AM-FM stereo tuner captures even the most elusive of your favorite stations with clarity. The 12155 automatic turntable with a M91E-cartridge and diamond stylus will treat your valuable records with respect and will add no "rumble" or other annoying sounds of its own to the music.

Sony, Dual, Stereo system

This unstintingly luxurious stereo system, will now buy frequencies at as high or as low a sound level as you wish. For full musical enjoyment, and all the provisions as headphones, a good cassette tape deck, or extra durable that you won't be tempted to change any or than anything you've bought for a long, long time.

Since you are buying us along with our Advent-Sony-Dual-Shure system. It's worth knowing that we will cheerfully and speedily take care of anything that might break or turn out to have a hidden flaw in manufacturing. Specifically we guarantee the entire system for three years.

We've trimmed every ounce of fat from the price of this system: the $1,050 we're asking for it reflects a saving of $75 over the usual cost of the components individually.

Saloon barred
WASHINGTON (AP) - The Supreme Court ruled Thursday that the state may bar certain establishments from issuing liquor licenses as a form of 'commerce or other forms of 'benevolent affiliation.'

The decision, in a California case, held that an establishment is not entitled to a simulated annual act to public commerce, but that it is to be denied an individual license if its income is not predominantly from alcoholic drinks.

The court ruled that the state was not trespassing on the business of issuing licenses if it revoked the license of a saloon which had been deemed a public nuisance.

The decision reversed a three-judge panel of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals which had held that the state was remedial and constitutional as well.
