Nixon orders investigation

Watergate "developments"

WATERGATE (AP) — President Nixon Tuesday said there have been "major developments" pertaining toward the truth in the Watergate affair. He declined to detail.

The President dropped his longstanding contention that he was not aware of any wrongdoing before the Watergate break-in. He said he would not request any federal employee involved in the case. Nixon also capitulated to a Senate special investigation committee that has insisted, for one week, that Watergate aides were involved in the cover-up.

He added his sides would play a "fair and proper" question, while reserving the right to invoke executive privilege and remain "off in some serious location." In a three-minute statement at the White House, Nixon described the Senate’s special investigating committee as "imposing an increasing restriction on the President," and condemned it as "a very serious injustice to the country." Nixon also denied that there had been "major developments" before March.

In a meeting between CAMBUS committee members and administration officials Tuesday night, the administration said it was stepping up efforts to get more police officers on duty.

The Senate has been in recess since the end of March, and has been discussing the possibility of more police officers.

Nixon also denied that there had been "major developments" before March.

The Senate has been in recess since the end of March, and has been discussing the possibility of more police officers.

In a meeting between CAMBUS committee members and administration officials Tuesday night, the administration said it was stepping up efforts to get more police officers on duty.

The Senate has been in recess since the end of March, and has been discussing the possibility of more police officers.

In a meeting between CAMBUS committee members and administration officials Tuesday night, the administration said it was stepping up efforts to get more police officers on duty.
Faculty senate awaits 'justification'

UI ombudsman shelved

BY JALAYNE SMELTZER

The proposal for a university ombudsman, which was defeated by University of Iowa Faculty Senate Tuesday afternoon, "said its justification on the docket.

The retain or finally failed to pass the General Committee of the senate, which will now be sent to UI President Bruce McPhee for approval. After his rejection a second reading was attempted, and some passed, to change the constituency of ombudsman.

After Chairman Robert A. Carroccio called the order to order, he represented the senate to the president's request, and assigned for the "easy action" be to move towards regarding the problem.

The case for a university ombudsman was presented by Beatrice Fryer, associate professor of education, and Edgar Cummins, city commissioner.

They said the petition ordinance was proposed to ensure the establishment of ombudsmen to handle problems of those becoming "balkinization pruning," and to alleviate the problem of individuals being cycled through various administrative channels before they reach a final decision or resolution. They said it would be more effective to have one person handling the problems of the three constituencies, rather than three or more.

The proposal would end the "free-for-all" process, but it would be a facilitator and know who to contact when no charges.

Carroccio said. He added that at Cornell University, 70 per cent of the ombudsmen's work comes from students, 90 per cent from university employees, and 1 per cent from the faculty.

The proposal met with faculty opposition. The presentation of another hour of administrative problems would mean the presentation of another hour of administrative problems, said Harold R advertisement. "Things are complicated enough now," he continued. "I called the meeting to be shown by students. Maybe the counseling services should research the procedures before the problem arises."

Senate members also proposed that student problems could be handled through their advisors, because their problems are also very unique. Such problems are often assumed to be the problem, according to Carroccio.

The proposal would end the "free-for-all" process, but it would be a facilitator and know who to contact when no charges.

Carroccio said. He added that at Cornell University, 70 per cent of the ombudsmen's work comes from students, 90 per cent from university employees, and 1 per cent from the faculty.

The proposal met with faculty opposition. The presentation of another hour of administrative problems would mean the presentation of another hour of administrative problems, said Harold R advertisement. "Things are complicated enough now," he continued. "I called the meeting to be shown by students. Maybe the counseling services should research the procedures before the problem arises."

Senate members also proposed that student problems could be handled through their advisors, because their problems are also very unique. Such problems are often assumed to be the problem, according to Carroccio.

The proposal would end the "free-for-all" process, but it would be a facilitator and know who to contact when no charges.

Carroccio said. He added that at Cornell University, 70 per cent of the ombudsmen's work comes from students, 90 per cent from university employees, and 1 per cent from the faculty.

The proposal met with faculty opposition. The presentation of another hour of administrative problems would mean the presentation of another hour of administrative problems, said Harold R advertisement. "Things are complicated enough now," he continued. "I called the meeting to be shown by students. Maybe the counseling services should research the procedures before the problem arises."

Senate members also proposed that student problems could be handled through their advisors, because their problems are also very unique. Such problems are often assumed to be the problem, according to Carroccio.
Wheel Room bar losing money

"Students have to realize they should support their own interests".

By Michael Meloy
Special to the Daily Iowan

Remember five years ago when the Wheel Room in 184 South was a "hit? Well, Iowa's student council is trying to sell it. It is said to be the second largest bar on campus, and is said to support a majority of the students who go out and serve drinks, but it has been a big service.

The Wheel Room, which is officially run by Iowa Student Rapides (ISR), which is an independent nonprofit corporation, is a social center for students. It is a meeting place for students to relax and unwind. The Wheel Room also has live music and a DJ.

The Wheel Room bar has "the most varied and community-oriented entertainment of any place on campus", according to ISR. We've had music ranging from jazz to hip hop to rock to pop.

The average student is $10 per night, which is about $5 less than the average student

The Wheel Room has also been closed because of problems with alcohol, and the student council has been working hard to improve the situation.

The Wheel Room is a place where students can go to relax and enjoy each other's company. It is also a place where students can meet and socialize.

The Wheel Room is a place where students can go to relax and enjoy each other's company. It is also a place where students can meet and socialize.

The Wheel Room is a place where students can go to relax and enjoy each other's company. It is also a place where students can meet and socialize.
Madison's radical mayor

Editor's note: The following is an excerpt from the spring 1973 issue of the Madison Mirror, a local weekly newspaper. It discusses the background and influence of Mayor William Rosewall, who was known for his progressive and controversial policies.

> At be pictures campaign.
> Some people approve the innovative Bachelor of General Educational Requirements, though it has its innovators and reformers as well. Others undertake an undergraduate endorsement of such an option mechanism can only encourage the pluralist perspective. The one topic, 'What's in it for me?' presents five proposals to a general faculty vote.

> One topic:.....
> Supporters-mostly in natural sciences-evidently fear that the proposal, which was co-sponsored by, among others, Steve Todd of the math department, does not go far enough. Opponents, who include physics, chemistry, and biology, call for a stronger statement that the proposal does not mean anything.

> The decision:
> In the end, the faculty voted 10 to 5 in favor of the proposal, with 10 abstentions. The vote was the result of a long and heated debate, with opponents arguing that the proposal would undermine the traditional undergraduate curriculum, while supporters maintained that it would give students more flexibility and choice.

> The track record has not always been clean.
> Madison's radical mayor, William Rosewall, was known for his controversial policies. He was a strong advocate of open education and was often at odds with traditional Madisonians. His influence extended beyond the city, as he was known for his support of civil rights and his opposition to the Vietnam War.

> The current issue:
> In his own words, Mayor Rosewall said that the city was facing a crucial moment. "What all this amounts to is that the city is a battleground, and the mayor is a warrior."

> The conclusion:
> Mayor Rosewall's legacy is still felt in Madison today. His commitment to open education and his support for civil rights continue to inspire those who strive for social justice.

--

Hoppin' freight cars: **

Boxcar boogie...

> The train:
> The train that runs through the city is not just any ordinary train. It's a freight train, and it's known for its wild behavior. The train músac is known to play songs on the train's horn, and it's not uncommon to see people hanging out of windows to listen to the music. The train is a symbol of freedom and rebellion, and it's a beloved part of the city's culture.

> The train conductors:
> The train conductors are known for their flamboyant behavior. They wear colorful clothes and often carry signs that say things like "Boxcar Boogie." They lead the train through the streets, playing music and inspiring the crowd.

> The fans:
> The fans of the train are a dedicated group of people who follow the train wherever it goes. They wear "Boxcar Boogie" t-shirts and often carry signs and banners to show their support. They are a community of rebels who love the train's wild behavior and the spirit it represents.

> The train's route:
> The train runs through the city on a regular basis, and it's not uncommon to see it at the train station, the university, or other popular locations. The train is a symbol of freedom and rebellion, and it's a beloved part of the city's culture.

---

Editor's note: The following is an excerpt from the spring 1973 issue of the Madison Mirror, a local weekly newspaper. It discusses the background and influence of Mayor William Rosewall, who was known for his progressive and controversial policies.

> At be pictures campaign.
> Some people approve the innovative Bachelor of General Educational Requirements, though it has its innovators and reformers as well. Others undertake an undergraduate endorsement of such an option mechanism can only encourage the pluralist perspective. The one topic, 'What's in it for me?' presents five proposals to a general faculty vote.

> One topic:.....
> Supporters-mostly in natural sciences-evidently fear that the proposal, which was co-sponsored by, among others, Steve Todd of the math department, does not go far enough. Opponents, who include physics, chemistry, and biology, call for a stronger statement that the proposal does not mean anything.

> The decision:
> In the end, the faculty voted 10 to 5 in favor of the proposal, with 10 abstentions. The vote was the result of a long and heated debate, with opponents arguing that the proposal would undermine the traditional undergraduate curriculum, while supporters maintained that it would give students more flexibility and choice.

> The track record has not always been clean.
> Madison's radical mayor, William Rosewall, was known for his controversial policies. He was a strong advocate of open education and was often at odds with traditional Madisonians. His influence extended beyond the city, as he was known for his support of civil rights and his opposition to the Vietnam War.

> The current issue:
> In his own words, Mayor Rosewall said that the city was facing a crucial moment. "What all this amounts to is that the city is a battleground, and the mayor is a warrior."

> The conclusion:
> Mayor Rosewall's legacy is still felt in Madison today. His commitment to open education and his support for civil rights continue to inspire those who strive for social justice.

--

Hoppin' freight cars: **

Boxcar boogie...

> The train:
> The train that runs through the city is not just any ordinary train. It's a freight train, and it's known for its wild behavior. The train músac is known to play songs on the train's horn, and it's not uncommon to see people hanging out of windows to listen to the music. The train is a symbol of freedom and rebellion, and it's a beloved part of the city's culture.

> The train conductors:
> The train conductors are known for their flamboyant behavior. They wear colorful clothes and often carry signs that say things like "Boxcar Boogie." They lead the train through the streets, playing music and inspiring the crowd.

> The fans:
> The fans of the train are a dedicated group of people who follow the train wherever it goes. They wear "Boxcar Boogie" t-shirts and often carry signs and banners to show their support. They are a community of rebels who love the train's wild behavior and the spirit it represents.

> The train's route:
> The train runs through the city on a regular basis, and it's not uncommon to see it at the train station, the university, or other popular locations. The train is a symbol of freedom and rebellion, and it's a beloved part of the city's culture.
Sihanouk returns to Cambodia

The circle tightens in Cambodia

Editor's note: The following story is from the independent weekly weekly newspaper in the United States.

The recent third anniversary of the U.S.-backed invasion of Cambodia under the leadership of the late King Norodom Sihanouk, was more marked by gloom than by the celebration implied by the event.

Sihanouk, the architect of the National United Front of the Left, and the former administrator of the liberated zones of Cambodia, has been in hiding in China since the beginning of the year because of the U.S.-backed COMMUNIST forces' exercise over much of Cambodia. For the past two months, Sihanouk has been unable to keep his government's position: the U.S. hold and keep on their support of such an enemy regime.

The recent third anniversary of the U.S.-backed invasion of Cambodia under the leadership of the late King Norodom Sihanouk, was more marked by gloom than by the celebration implied by the event.

The recent third anniversary of the U.S.-backed invasion of Cambodia under the leadership of the late King Norodom Sihanouk, was more marked by gloom than by the celebration implied by the event.

The recent third anniversary of the U.S.-backed invasion of Cambodia under the leadership of the late King Norodom Sihanouk, was more marked by gloom than by the celebration implied by the event.

The recent third anniversary of the U.S.-backed invasion of Cambodia under the leadership of the late King Norodom Sihanouk, was more marked by gloom than by the celebration implied by the event.

The recent third anniversary of the U.S.-backed invasion of Cambodia under the leadership of the late King Norodom Sihanouk, was more marked by gloom than by the celebration implied by the event.
Survival Guide
Iowa River fish: safe to eat?

My husband was anxious to come fishing in the Iowa River this spring and had said it was safe to eat. Would fish be safe to eat if there is any danger at all that Iowa River fish would contain the hepatitis B virus particles, which my husband fears I would prefer to stay out of my diet?

SURVIVAL GUIDE

Brook trout, coho salmon, walleye, and perch are the four species that people in this area of my husband's sure that their lives are in great danger. According to the Department of Natural Resources, however, our state's water quality is such that it is safe to eat the fish. The Iowa Department of Natural Resources advises that the Brook trout, coho salmon, walleye, and perch are all safe to eat. The DNR advises people to eat at least one fish a week.

Director of Natural Resources, Joe Jones, said that there is no evidence of any danger to eating Iowa River fish. He noted that the Iowa Department of Natural Resources has conducted a study of fish in the Iowa River and found no evidence of any danger to eating the fish.

Iowa River fish: safe to eat?

My husband was anxious to come fishing in the Iowa River this spring and had said it was safe to eat. Would fish be safe to eat if there is any danger at all that Iowa River fish would contain the hepatitis B virus particles, which my husband fears I would prefer to stay out of my diet?

SURVIVAL GUIDE

Brook trout, coho salmon, walleye, and perch are the four species that people in this area of my husband's sure that their lives are in great danger. According to the Department of Natural Resources, however, our state's water quality is such that it is safe to eat the fish. The Iowa Department of Natural Resources advises that the Brook trout, coho salmon, walleye, and perch are all safe to eat. The DNR advises people to eat at least one fish a week.

Director of Natural Resources, Joe Jones, said that there is no evidence of any danger to eating Iowa River fish. He noted that the Iowa Department of Natural Resources has conducted a study of fish in the Iowa River and found no evidence of any danger to eating the fish.

Iowa River fish: safe to eat?

My husband was anxious to come fishing in the Iowa River this spring and had said it was safe to eat. Would fish be safe to eat if there is any danger at all that Iowa River fish would contain the hepatitis B virus particles, which my husband fears I would prefer to stay out of my diet?

SURVIVAL GUIDE

Brook trout, coho salmon, walleye, and perch are the four species that people in this area of my husband's sure that their lives are in great danger. According to the Department of Natural Resources, however, our state's water quality is such that it is safe to eat the fish. The Iowa Department of Natural Resources advises that the Brook trout, coho salmon, walleye, and perch are all safe to eat. The DNR advises people to eat at least one fish a week.

Director of Natural Resources, Joe Jones, said that there is no evidence of any danger to eating Iowa River fish. He noted that the Iowa Department of Natural Resources has conducted a study of fish in the Iowa River and found no evidence of any danger to eating the fish.

Iowa River fish: safe to eat?

My husband was anxious to come fishing in the Iowa River this spring and had said it was safe to eat. Would fish be safe to eat if there is any danger at all that Iowa River fish would contain the hepatitis B virus particles, which my husband fears I would prefer to stay out of my diet?

SURVIVAL GUIDE

Brook trout, coho salmon, walleye, and perch are the four species that people in this area of my husband's sure that their lives are in great danger. According to the Department of Natural Resources, however, our state's water quality is such that it is safe to eat the fish. The Iowa Department of Natural Resources advises that the Brook trout, coho salmon, walleye, and perch are all safe to eat. The DNR advises people to eat at least one fish a week.

Director of Natural Resources, Joe Jones, said that there is no evidence of any danger to eating Iowa River fish. He noted that the Iowa Department of Natural Resources has conducted a study of fish in the Iowa River and found no evidence of any danger to eating the fish.
The brothers Epstein begin a new season
No mirrors, no harpies

BY BART FIPP
Open File
One of the top events of the year returns to Thursday when Writers’ Building producer Paul Epstein marks his poetry on the Sara and Isaac Tourock’s book of short plays.

Although the International Fringe Society is now more than a year old, the festival continues to bring in a variety of shows. Kevin McCarthy and Don Wallach, two of Davenport’s most recent residents, are among the festival’s many performers.

Mayor Bob Dumas and, of course, the coordination of the literary society at the bookstore, Davenport’s.

Secretaries to deans and top officials be moved into positions with equal work is administrative (this is that the original location, as no to be assured of urban opportunities.

as in its refrigerator. Although the bread of Epstein is so small a space that secretarial classes, administrative assistants and secretaries to deans and top officials be moved into positions with equal work is administrative (this is that the original location, as no to be assured of urban opportunities.

You don’t have any income, so you should relieve your executive duties, since you can become acquainted with the public, among others.

The reading, which begins at 8 p.m., is open to anyone. Although the bread of Epstein is so small a space that secretarial classes, administrative assistants and secretaries to deans and top officials be moved into positions with equal work is administrative (this is that the original location, as no to be assured of urban opportunities.

We’re familiar with the plight of the writer,” adds Glen, who like his brother, is a staff writer for the bookstore. "At one time, I had a financial one of the few times he reads his poems, but I tend to agree that everyone is welcome to read aloud.

"Besides, the brothers Epstein are not the only one with a talent for reading. Glen, who like his brother, is a staff writer for the bookstore, says that he’s become acquainted with the public, among others.

Our store is free and open, and you don’t have any income, so you should relieve your executive duties, since you can become acquainted with the public, among others.

Women’s Watch

more enjoyable work with less drudgery for the male worker, as well as some need for the woman in the home to get out of the house and into the world. Women in the home and out of the house who like their present work as secretaries to deans and top officials be moved into positions with equal work is administrative (this is that the original location, as no to be assured of urban opportunities.

There can be no question of the importance of the man and woman who support the mass of the people. As the office becomes more a business trip or an office of the family, so does the job of the secretary in the home.

There is nothing more important in a society than the people who support the mass of the people. As the office becomes more a business trip or an office of the family, so does the job of the secretary in the home.

There is nothing more important in a society than the people who support the mass of the people. As the office becomes more a business trip or an office of the family, so does the job of the secretary in the home.

There is nothing more important in a society than the people who support the mass of the people. As the office becomes more a business trip or an office of the family, so does the job of the secretary in the home.

There is nothing more important in a society than the people who support the mass of the people. As the office becomes more a business trip or an office of the family, so does the job of the secretary in the home.

There is nothing more important in a society than the people who support the mass of the people. As the office becomes more a business trip or an office of the family, so does the job of the secretary in the home.

There is nothing more important in a society than the people who support the mass of the people. As the office becomes more a business trip or an office of the family, so does the job of the secretary in the home.

There is nothing more important in a society than the people who support the mass of the people. As the office becomes more a business trip or an office of the family, so does the job of the secretary in the home.

There is nothing more important in a society than the people who support the mass of the people. As the office becomes more a business trip or an office of the family, so does the job of the secretary in the home.

These women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.

Women are not just doing a dull and tiresome job. They are supporting the family, and they are doing it well.
IM Coroner
By Bob Denney

WEATHERING: Intramural softball teams that were lucky to have placed last weekend in the 1st round have a hard time placing in the 2nd round. Some of the good teams have a hard time placing. In fact, it's the first foul smoothest here at Flunkline.

The ball team was slugging it out single-elimination Pandora's soltballers st Minnesota, and Dan Gable's dinator Warren S1ebos . Weather the Billion Dollar Babies, and nabis. The new professional fraternity and be copy .

WHERE'S BERNIE? It's 8:30 p.m.

The To­ ding 8:30p.m.

We'll see how things go at 4:30 with

Kappa Kappa Gamma and

Sigma Chi. The old favorite's going at 7 p.m.

Kites
FREE!

with purchase

THE Airliner
6 PANS
of non-returnable bottles
BUDWEISER

$1.25 warm
$1.35 cold

22 S. Clinton - Across from Pennsacrat

Applications now being accepted for vacancies on:

ACTIVITIES BOARD-ELECTIONS BOARDS-
LECTURE SERIES

Commissions of the U.S.A.

Fill out application forms available in the Activities Board Office in the IMU Activities Center before Thursday, May 4.

For further information contact Don Rachter 355-5043.

We need a new name, for a new room,
Join our contest and help name the old Gold Feather Room.
Drop your suggestion in the box located by the south lobby elevator, 1st floor.

GRAND PRIZE $15.00 Food Ticket Meal-Mart
9 Other Prizes $5.00 each Food Ticket Meal-Mart

Judging to be done by a student committee

Iowa Memorial Union
Indianapolis (AP) — Bob Butler entered Iowa line and struck out 11 to lead Purdue to a 6-4 victory over Butler Tuesday and a split of weekend doubleheader. Butler took the first game, 11-0, as Dick Englehart, Jim Carey, and Al Niedmer double teamed to bag the victory. Butler is now 4-0 on the season. Purdue is now 8-4.

Uni-Dome

Cedar Falls, Iowa — Proposals plans for Iowa's first stadium-dedicated athletes were unveiled by the University of Northern Iowa. The facility would be the first multi-purpose indoor stadium in the Midwest and will be called "The Cyclone." Construction of the stadium in the first three phases of development, all by UNI's construction committee to construct the school's 1983 anniversary in 1893.

Mazeika

CLINTON, Iowa — Mess All-Star basketball center and Butler's Mike Mazeika has signed a national letter of intent to attend Iowa State University of Iowa. Mazeika scored 42 points last night as St. Mary's defeated Princeton, 68-55. Mazeika averaged 14 points per game this season.

Liquori

DES MOINES, Iowa — Marty Liquori, the only man to run in a mile for four consecutive seasons at Drake University, will headline a special mile run at the Drake Relays, announced Wednesday.

Liquori, who clocked a 3:58.8 to beat Dave Wottle of Oklahoma in 1976, who will reach the New York State Relays winner Leonard Hilton, former Houston star, and Bob Mixten of Southeastern Washington State, defeated top-echelon competitors.

Cubs, 1-0

NEW YORK (AP) — Rich Mabini hit a fourth-inning home run and Ferguson Jenkins pitched a five-hitter Thursday, sandwiching the Chicago Cubs over the New York Mets in the 1st game of the National League season and ending any talk of the Montreal Expos.

Chisox, 10-5

CHICAGO (AP) — Bob Lillis hit a 10-run home run, an eighth-inning grand-slam homer, and ran out another bases-loaded header, keeping an eight-run cushion and sending the Chicago White Sox to a 10-5 victory over the Baltimore Orioles in the last game of the 1972 season.

Twins, 10-1

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (AP) — Danny Walton, a pinch hitter, got a leadoff single and scored, and the Minnesota Twins beat the Cleveland Indians, 10-1, for their first victory in the series.

Tigers, 6-3

BOSTON (AP) — Norm Cash and Al Kaline hit a two-run single in the eighth inning Tuesday, carrying the Detroit Tigers to their third straight victory.

Philis, 9-6

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Tommy Bolin's heroic single doubled home two runs in the ninth inning Tuesday, carrying the St. Louis Cardinals to their third straight victory.

Indians, 7-3

CLEVELAND (AP) — Oscar Gamble hit a triple and two singles, driving in two runs and scoring one as the Cleveland Indians beat the Minnesota Twins, 7-3, in a game that will be remembered as one of the highlights of the season.

Hanken-panky

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — The University of Oklahoma's internal investigation for an alleged serious football recruiting violation has come to light.

University officials reportedly have planned a press conference for this week to discuss the findings of the internal investigation. An assistant coach's resignation is expected. One source said that a high school football coach would lose one year in eligibility.

More Six Cyclones

AMES, Iowa (AP) — Six high school football players have signed national letters of intent to attend Iowa State University. Officials have not yet announced the names of the six players.

In his high white, Royce Mix gathers in a pass against Illinois and gets ready to move out.

Not wanted by Woody, Mix welcomed by Frank

By VIRGINIA YORK

Stale White

Stale White

Stale White

Hawks dumped twice at Northern Iowa

By JUDY THOMAS

Northern Iowa's Burger Gillis hit a two-run single in the ninth inning Tuesday, leading the Hawkeyes to a 6-3 victory over the Northern Iowa Panthers.

Cedar Falls, Iowa — Oscar Gamble hit a triple and two singles two runs and scoring one as the Cleveland Indians beat the Minnesota Twins, 7-3, in a game that will be remembered as one of the highlights of the season.

Hanken-panky

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — The University of Oklahoma's internal investigation for an alleged serious football recruiting violation has come to light.

University officials reportedly have planned a press conference for this week to discuss the findings of the internal investigation. An assistant coach's resignation is expected. One source said that a high school football coach would lose one year in eligibility.

Six More Cyclones

AMES, Iowa (AP) — Six high school football players have signed national letters of intent to attend Iowa State University. Officials have not yet announced the names of the six players.

In his high white, Royce Mix gathers in a pass against Illinois and gets ready to move out.