Reagan's administration has been criticized for its handling of the Middle East peace process. The president's plan for a two-state solution to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict has been met with opposition from both sides. The Israeli government has rejected the plan, while many Palestinians have called for a separate state of their own.

Local NOW is politically active

By Karen Harp

Although the Johnson County Iowa City Democrats (Organization for Women) have just undergone a political realignment, the organization remains intact and is still a force to be reckoned with. "We've been in the political scene for a long time and it's not going to be elected again," Gordon Combs said.

THE CHAPTER is establishing a network of volunteers to work along with pre-chosen candidates.

James Little, who was recruited by Combs, said the group offered him "the chance to be part of a working board" since the chapter was "getting off the ground". The chapter aims to strengthen the Women's Movement and has established a network of volunteers to work along with pre-chosen candidates. The network is being established in response to the group's desire to be part of a working board.

Combs pointed out that the panel NOW has raised more money than the Democratic Party, which has been successful in recruiting volunteers and members. "We want fair representation in government," she said. "NOW is one of the major state organizations, others may be larger, but we are non-partisan and we are committed to non-voting rights and issues affecting women."

"Hope"

While expressing some concern, the chapter is confident in its ability to continue its work. "We have faith in our ability to continue to fight for the rights of women," Combs said. "We're not going to give up but we're going to fight it until we win."

$155 billion deficit is predicted

WASHINGTON (UPI) - The federal deficit will average $35 billion over the next three years, Congress was told yesterday.

The federal fiscal 1983 budget is expected to remain about $5 billion below the $155 billion projected for fiscal 1982, according to the Congressional Budget Office.

The office predicted Wednesday that the deficit for fiscal 1982 would be $117 billion, double the $58 billion deficit recorded in 1980 and four times as large as the $28 billion deficit in fiscal 1979.

The deficit for fiscal 1983 will rise to $133 billion, said the office. The budget deficit for fiscal 1982 will be about $112 billion, but the office predicted that it might be as high as $117 billion.

Making streets safer

Iowa City hardly presents the kind of traffic hazards that make driving a car through town as hazardous as some other cities. However, there are still accidents in Iowa City, and a recent 10-minute neutral (on-road) study of the traffic conditions in and around town revealed an average number of 1.9 incidents per mile stud¬ ied. These accidents included 7 instances of 4 or more vehicles, 9 instances of 2 or more vehicles, and 2 instances of single-vehicle accidents.

Radio Marti

Wouldn’t you know it—when everyone else is into video, former radio announcer Ronnie Seibert is still into audio. His ambitious proposal for the establishment of “Radio Marti,” a station intended to become a voice of Cuba for the Cuban people will go on the air in Iowa City on February 1st. The station will be the first of its kind to air in the United States.

No free lunch

To the editor,

Everyone has heard the old saw that “you get what you pay for” and the phrase is frequently used to indicate that something is free is of poor quality. The phrase is often overused and misused, but it is true in most cases.

The phrase is also true in the case of free education. The notion is that if it is free, it must be of poor quality. However, this is not necessarily the case. In fact, many free educational programs are of high quality.

Drawing the line

Students, parents and teachers have been attempting to define the line between what is appropriate and what is not. The issue is complex, and there is no easy answer.

Letters policy

Letters to the editor must be typed and be no more than 200 words. They should be typed double-spaced and include the writer’s name, address, and phone number.

Gerulaitis loses shocker in Open

By Steve Robertson, Entertainment Staff

He's the sort of cat that clings to his canoe like a dog to its bone. But at Forest Hills, Nos. 1 seed John McEnroe gave him a 15-7, 15-4, 6-2 beating.

"I've never been in that situation before," said Gerulaitis, who missed the last two U.S. Opens with injuries. "It's a real good feeling to be back in the Open."

In the first set McEnroe made 50 forehand winners and just 12 unforced errors, but Gerulaitis played well. "I was actually underplaying me," said McEnroe, who has won the last three U.S. Opens. "I hope that's a sign of things to come."

The Iowa baseball team, last-place finishers in the Big Ten Conference last year, have received a bit of good news. Another Hawkeye pitcher, the stopper on last year's staff, has decided to return to a championship-side with the team. Iowa Head Coach Cindy Smoker

"I'm excited to have Hobaugh back, he said he and Head Coach Cindy Smoker will work with him to get him ready for the upcoming season." Walker, the team's top reliever last year, will be returning to the team to help bolster the pitching staff.

Walker status uncertain for game

Walker, who worked out Tuesday for the NFL draft, is still uncertain for Monday night's nationally televised football game against Clemson. Dooley said Wednesday he still feels Walker will not play in Monday night's nationally televised football game against Clemson.

Gopher notes

Iowa head coach Hayden Fry was not pleased with Minnesota's effort in Saturday's game.
"It's extremely disappointing," he said. "We had a heck of a lot of opportunities to win the game and simply did not take advantage. I guess we were just too much out of sorts to play football.""The Gopher backfield was one of the few things that did not go badly, he added, though on our trip to Iowa City things were not as black as they were in the press.

The play of the Gophers was not as bad as it was to Iowa City, though the rowdy fans were not as good. The Gophers have followed the schedule, and are ready to make a trip to the Big Ten Furnace, and a game against the Iowa Hawkeyes.

Auntie’s words follow Warholism in Benes’ ‘Letters and Arty-facts’

By Susan Harrison

There is a truism that a work of art should be its own raison d’être, that it should be saved only by its humor and satiric thrust. Tyler’s ‘Dinner’ a family affair

By Jeffry Moe

The Des Moines Register

Dinner at the Homesick Restaurant by Anne Tyler, Alfred A. Knopf, 1982, 338 pages.

The connection between love and food is a theme explored in our homes, in our dreams and in our literature. Dinner, considering the social ritual of the dinner table, is an important theme in the novel. Anne Tyler’s novel, Dinner, makes many rev-erations about the preparation of food as a very special gift of love, a part of the great gift of love, once taken out a fan Fairbank’s restaurant and used, as Anne Tyler puts it, into the Homesick Restaurant, a place where people come just like to a family dinner.” The Men of Ezra and Cody and their lifelong friendship form the center of Dinner. Ezra, the eldest brother, is writing a Real account. There’s no charge for
