Capture of whales approved

WASHINGTON—The world's last remaining whales will be captured for sale in the United States.

The report, written for the National Marine Fisheries Service, says it is necessary to capture and sell the whales to maintain the population at a healthy level.

Quoted:

This was the last important step in the battle of the battle. Before the production began, the judge had asked that we be given time to review the information gathered. The judge granted the request and allowed us to evaluate the information before making a decision.

Black moves to block UI appeal

By Patricia Thom

UI Assistant Attorney General Anne Connolly said today that the University of Iowa (UI) will file an appeal to the Iowa Supreme Court if the District Court of Burad County overruled the university's request that a suit filed by a former employee, Iwai, be dismissed.

Iwai claimed in an affidavit filed in the District Court that he was dismissed from his job as a chemistry research assistant because the university had violated the terms of his employment contract.

According to Iwai, the university's reason for his dismissal was overruled by the District Court. The university has now appealed the decision to the Iowa Supreme Court.

Connolly said that the university's appeal is based on the District Court's decision to grant Iwai's motion for a new trial.

Iwai's motion for a new trial was denied by the District Court, but the university has filed a motion for reconsideration of the motion, which is currently pending in the District Court.

Connolly said that the university's appeal is not seeking to overturn the District Court's decision, but rather to ensure that the university's legal rights are protected.

The university's appeal will be filed with the Iowa Supreme Court shortly, and the court will determine whether to hear the case.

In the meantime, the District Court's decision to grant Iwai's motion for a new trial will remain in effect.

Iwai's previous employment contract with the university was terminated in 2002, and he filed a lawsuit against the university in 2003, alleging breach of contract and invasion of privacy.

The university's appeal to the Iowa Supreme Court is expected to be heard sometime in the next few months.
DRINC funding raises questions on UI allocation

House approves MX missile funds

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House narrowly approved funds for hereditary production of the powerful MX nuclear weapon, an important step in realizing President Reagan's military buildup.

By 222-214 vote, the House endorsed a $10.2 billion appropriation for the first 16 of the intercontinental 19-warhead missiles. The bill is the House version of the Senate-passed $10.5 billion measure for fiscal 1984.

The vote was the House version needed before the Senate of the $24 billion weapon system, to be developed and operated in California and Colorado.

Democrats said the bill was needed to implement two 1980 amendments passed by the Senate demanding a review of the major academic affairs, student services and conduct of the University of California, and the vice presidents of the university.

In his introduction of the measure, Rep. Les Aspin, D-Wis., said that a critical decision was needed to continue with a plan to purchase the weapon.

Invertebrate U.S. categorizers need reality to approach crises

O N THE FACE of it, the political, economic and moral aspects of the U.S. are increasingly complex, the degenerate society of the past has been replaced by a civilization of all things. The fundamental pattern of both the towns and the soldiers is the same: The invertebrate categorizers, seeking always the immediate means to their ends, are not now looking at the American panorama as it is but at the American panorama as it was. In the search for the city, the categorizers are not looking to the American city as it is but to the American city as it was. They are seeking the city to find an immediate goal.

The American city is not in the past, but rather in the present. It is not the American city of the past, but rather the American city of the present. The American city is not a past city but a present city. It is not a past city but a present city. It is not a past city but a present city. It is not a past city but a present city. It is not a past city but a present city.

Iowa, Wildcats battle for divisional volleyball title

By Robert Ryden

The Hawkeyes easily pulled off the 1st of these 3 in Iowa City.

Iowa guard Congress and University Budd helped in 70-62.

The Hawkeyes and University Budd have emerged as the leaders of the Big Ten Western Division, thanks to the balanced scoring and effective teamwork of the Hawkeyes. The Hawkeyes ended their regular season on a high note, defeating the University Budd 70-62. This win solidified their position as the leaders of the Big Ten Western Division.

Badger tilt, bowl options concern Fry

By Steve Butterworth

Several teams are on the minds of Iowa Coach Stew Fry and University Budd. Several teams have requested conference games, but Fry has been cautious about committing to any specific teams. He has explained that he wants to keep his options open and see how the conference schedule develops.

Iowa will face University Budd in the season opener, and Fry is looking forward to this match-up against a strong rival.

“University Budd is always a difficult team to prepare for. They have a strong tradition of success and are always competitive,” Fry said.

Fry is also keeping an eye on other potential opponents, such as the University of Michigan and Ohio State. He is evaluating their strengths and weaknesses and considering whether they would be good fit for Iowa's schedule.

Fry has said that he will make a decision about the conference schedule in the coming weeks, taking into account the team's performance and the overall conference landscape.

Swimmers dive into new season

By Greg Anderson

Iowa opened its 1988-89 men's swimming campaign Friday at 5:30 p.m., when the Hawkeyes hosted Bradley and Coach Greg Patton's team. This meet is an important match for the Hawkeyes, as they aim to continue their winning streak.

With the conference season ahead, the Hawkeyes are looking to build momentum and solidify their position as one of the top teams in the conference.

Coaches debating play for pay

By J.B. Glass

A controversial topic facing the NCAA and coaches is the issue of compensating student-athletes. The topic of play for pay has been a topic of discussion among coaches, administrators, and the NCAA. There is a growing consensus among coaches and administrators that student-athletes should be compensated for their athletic endeavors.

The issue of play for pay has been hotly debated in recent years, with proponents arguing that student-athletes should be compensated for their athletic contributions and opponents arguing that such compensation would undermine the educational mission of college sports.

It is clear that there is a need for a comprehensive solution to this issue, and the NCAA should work closely with coaches, administrators, and student-athletes to develop a fair and equitable system.
NBC behind in pro grid ratings

By Mike Condon

For its part, NBC's 'Soldiers of the Grid,' the non-combatant drama that launched a franchise of action shows, and the NFL Sports network's 'Sports' have struggled to get the ratings NBC was hoping for. Kevin Manderson, managing sports editor for TV Guide, said the networks are trying to boost their Ratings in an effort to compete with the NFL's big ratings. NBC execs were hoping to get a bigger audience for their new shows, but they've had the same problems as the NFL.

"We can't be as reality as NBC," he said. "It's not very easy to make the ratings as high as NBC is." The problem is that the networks are not getting the ratings NBC was hoping for. ANDY KNOBLOCH (155) — The Big Ten’s boys swimming champion — set a new Big Ten mark in the 200-yard individual medley, with a time of 1:57.27. Knobloch, a freshman from South Bend, Ind., also placed second in the 100-yard backstroke and fourth in the 200-yard freestyle.

The Hawkeye men placed fourth in the Big Ten meet, which was held in Bloomington, Ind., last weekend.

Illini taking final games seriously

Other teams won’t throw in the towel

UIUC head coach Mike White rewarded his team for the 1983 season and needs two victories to have a shot at going to the Rose Bowl.

"I don’t think anybody’s going to throw in the towel because they’re not going to the Rose Bowl," Burtnett said.

"That’s important in our team — our team is still feeling good. John Beehler, our starting quarterback, is still there and he’s got a lot of attitude of his young team staying positive."

"It’s still a joy to go to practice," he said. "We’re not going to Wisconsin, Minnesota, Nebraska and Northwestern without a battle."

But, even with Burtnett’s confidence, the Illini realize they don’t have the depth to compete at the top of the conference.

"We have to improve our shooting and be more consistent defensively," he said. "We can’t make mistakes and be open to the outside."

Moseley ‘proves’ point with kick

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — There is only one kick left for Dan Moseley of Iowa State and the final one Sunday night, which is to decide whether he is better than any of his Big Eight brethren.

Moseley, who is out for the season with a knee injury, is expected to return to the ISU lineup for the Big Eight game against Nebraska.

"I don’t know how many kicks I’ve made but I’m pretty sure the only reason I’m here is because of the kicking game," Moseley said.

"I’m going to go out and kick this one and make it count."

Iowa ‘to warm up’ for Wildcats

By 3i marine

With the Northwestern game looming in the distance, the Iowa Hawkeyes are looking forward to the challenge.

"We’re going to get warmed up for the Northwestern game," said senior nose tackle John Rolf Benirschke.

"Iowa will be the second game of the season," he added. "We’ll play on the road and we’ll play against a team that’s not a very good team."

Nebraska, Longhorns still on top; Hawkeyes jump to 14th; Illini 6th

NEW YORK (UPI) - Three hours from the end of the season, Georgia is still alone at No. 1, but only after easily dispatching then-No. 11 Alabama. Nebraska moved up to the No. 1 slot Monday and filled the spot vacated by the Bulldogs. The Illini, who were ranked No. 9 last week, moved up to 14th and filled the No. 10 spot vacated by 13th-place Notre Dame.

The Iowa Hawkeyes, after a 4-6-1 posting behind the defense of their defense,下滑至第五位, trailing the Big Eight romp, a win over Michigan last weekend, meant that the Hawkeyes were the only team ranked in the college football poll after last weekend.

AUBURN ROSE after posting a 14-0 victory over Florida, Georgia advanced to Sugar Bowl and Miami moved to No. 3 in the polls.

The two teams continued their struggle for the top two spots, with their Coaches ranking 21 in a possible 32 spots.

Both teams starting first place positions. The two teams finished with one of the two and second place vote cast by the Board of Coaches on December 1.

Nebraska held the lead of the Big Eight South with a 13-0 victory over Iowa, Monday, but the Hawkeyes were still ranked second. The Illini moved up to 14th and filled the No. 10 spot vacated by 13th-place Notre Dame.

IOWA STATE faces uneasiness of task of trying to stop Rozier, Huskers

ABRUZZI (UPI) - Iowa State football coach Ahron Gomm, going into this week's road battle against Nebraska, Tuesday, says his team will have some strategies for stopping battle against the No. 1 team in the Big Eight.

Some of his suggestions include:

- Prevent the Hawkeyes from running back Mike Rozier.
- Keep your own offense on the field as long as you can.
- Prevent the Coaches from getting Rozier's name up in the first position.

CRAPPY weather and a low patient to take for Gomm this week, but as far as preventing Nebraska from getting to 30 consecutive victories, that's a different story.

IN ALL LIKELIHOOD, Iowa State will have its hands full trying to hold the line against the No. 1 team in the Big Eight. Rozier has been known to do his best when the line is porous, and the line is porous against the Hawkeyes.

Another in the first two games would give Iowa a 4-2 Big Eight record — just what the doctor ordered. Rozier's line play could be the deciding factor in this game.

With Rozier it's not the type of running game that's set up, but with Rozier it's the approach that has more unknowns.

"You have to play defend defense and you have to give them, name those things that their line will do. Other than that I don't think you can all three and say, 'Here is a player back there,' or "They'll knock you down one or two times a game.""

Circle Jerks play hard and fast

By John Wald

Wednesday

"We've just put a fun-loving garage band... We're anarchistic and aggressive, but that's not all. We're fun-loving and aggressive, but that's not all..." —Keith Morris, Circle Jerks singer

At the MAXXWELL'S

Nightlife

In fact, there was a whole truckload of Wyllie-Mike passed around Monday, in an appropriately "adolescent" punch-equations-kitsch fashion.

But this wasn't your local high school band. Either that, or the Wyllie-Mike passed around too. Their sound was a mix of punk and post-punk, with a hint of New Wave. Some of the songs were fast and aggressive, while others were slower and more melodic. The band's energy was contagious, and the audience responded with enthusiasm.

And they're... probably. None of that "I'm going to make music that doesn't fit into our categories" stuff here. The Circle Jerks are about having fun and making music. They don't want to fit into any box, and that's what makes them so special.

This goes for the dancing, too. As was explained in the context of our experience at the Glass Ballroom last month, the best way to see a band is to let go and enjoy it. You don't have to worry about being "normal" or "cool". You just have to have fun and let yourself be carried away.

The Circle Jerks may not be as popular as some of the other bands playing today, but they're definitely worth checking out. So grab your friends, head down to the Glass Ballroom, and get ready to have a great time!
