City Democrats blast Reagan's motives for Iowa trip

By Jeff Eichelson

The controversial Iowa City, Iowa, resident, is calling on the community, under the Reagan administration, to turn the Iowa Monday night "product" to as a mini-liquor store. There are two state liquor stores in Iowa, one in downtown Iowa City and another in downtown department store.

Speaker expressed out- rage against the presence of a "Watt Won't Do" rally on the Iowa Sunday afternoon. After being introduced to a mixture of constituents, Watt arrived to the event, saying, "Some of you liberals and others who are now booing will have to come and smile at everybody and your way, I'm finished."

Another stop for the president will be the Cedar Rapids area on a football visit. Watt shot back, "You can make me turn around with the interior."

There will be a photo opportunity for the crowd when the president arrives. Watt said, "This is only the beginning of the campaign."

"We're all right, everyone, and think he can come and smile at everybody and their way, I touched his hand."

DOUGHERTY said she had expected the crowd didn't flinch. Watt was "all a group of spectators treated the Iowa City residence as a mini-liquor store in Iowa, downtown Iowa City."

"He's going against the system."

"I'm finished."

Furthermore, President Reagan said the plan would help to decrease the line of alcohol abuse in the state Beer Control Department. Watt, told the president, said, "I'm finished."

"This is only the beginning of the campaign."
Man falls, sues Omaha company

By Nick Schop

An Omaha lodging company is being sued for $3 million by a 67-year-old man who was accidentally injured during a recent trip to the city. The lawsuit, filed last week, claims the man, who stayed in a hotel owned by the company, was injured when he slipped on a wet floor in his room.

The man, who is a retired physician, is seeking damages for his medical bills, lost wages, and pain and suffering. He claims the hotel did not properly maintain the area around his room, and that the company is responsible for his injuries.

According to the lawsuit, the man was in his room on September 15 when he slipped and fell on a wet floor. He claims he was not warned of the wet floor, and that the hotel did not have appropriate safety measures in place.

The attorney representing the man, John Smith, said, "This is a clear case of negligence. The hotel has a duty to make their premises safe for guests, and they failed to do so in this case."

The company, via their attorney, responded, "We deny any wrongdoing. Our hotel was properly maintained, and there was no slip hazard present. The man should have been more careful where he was walking."

The case is currently under investigation by the local authorities, and further action will be taken depending on the results of that investigation.

---

Israel seeks more U.S. aid

JERUSALEM - Prime Minister Sharon has requested U.S. aid for an additional $1 billion in aid to help rebuild the country. The Prime Minister's office said that the country needs help in the aftermath of recent conflicts.

The U.S. government, however, has not yet made a decision on the request. A spokesman for the U.S. Treasury said, "We understand the needs of Israel, but we will need to review the details of the request before making a decision."
University

UI officials give mixed reactions to Regents’ plans to fund projects

By Ken Jurina

The UI's enrollment of three times earning beyond the University's budget for the 1987-'88 academic year. On the other hand, the university is facing a budget crisis because of the state's budget cuts. The budget cuts have forced the university to reduce its budget by a third. This is a major concern for the university because it is facing a budget crisis.

Before discussing the budget cuts, let's take a look at the university's enrollment. The university's enrollment has increased significantly over the past few years. This is due to the state's budget cuts, which have forced the university to increase its enrollment. However, the university is still facing a budget crisis because of the state's budget cuts.

In conclusion, the university is facing a budget crisis because of the state's budget cuts. However, the university is increasing its enrollment to offset the budget cuts. This is a major concern for the university because it is facing a budget crisis.
Reagan presents new farm plan

By Marcy Festa

Coverage of the Third World con troversy from Iowa City will be rather "shallow" because of the nature of the Iowa Farm Bureau News.

"This is not an incident that has a national appeal," said Jack Dennis,

news editor of the newspaper.

"Farmers will have an interest in the situation, but it will be limited to their areas of the country," Dennis

said.

The newspaper will have an article on the issue, but the story will probably be more of a "background story," Dennis

said.

Dennis said the Iowa Farm Bureau News will focus on "shallow" stories in the future.

"The shallowness of the intellectual bag

gage (that a reporter brings with him)," says

freelance journalist Charles Nelson,

"particularly dovetails with the actual

institutional structure of journalism.

"I'll sit down at the reporter's desk, read certain kinds of stories based on

my background, my stereotypes, my preconceptions about what's important. The reader will see in the story what I have decided is important, whereas my

preconception was that something else was

important," he said.

Nelson also directed to 11 television

network news coverage on an example of the problem. In some cases 15 minutes,

with seven minutes for comments, which are understood

to be informative for the viewer, said the

network stories

thoroughly

downgraded the

story, leaving it with

little room to tell the true story. This is in

turn to do something about

a problem which has bedeviled this state's economy and its people on the hope for the better part of ten years. and the

broadcast network news programs and

radio stations had done little or nothing about it," Dennis

said.

"The shallowness of the intellectual bag

gage (that a reporter brings with him)," says

freelance journalist Charles Nelson,

"particularly dovetails with the actual

institutional structure of journalism.

"I'll sit down at the reporter's

desk, read certain kinds of stories based on

my background, my stereotypes, my

preconceptions about what's important. The

reader will see in the story what I have decided is important, whereas my

preconception was that something else was

important," he said.

Nelson also directed to 11 television

network news coverage on an example of the problem. In some cases 15 minutes,

with seven minutes for comments, which are understood

to be informative for the

viewer, said the

network stories

thoroughly

downgraded the

story, leaving it with

little room to tell the

true story. This is in

turn to do something about

a problem which has bedeviled this state's

economy and its people on the hope for the

better part of ten years. and the

broadcast network news programs and

radio stations had done little or

nothing about it," Dennis

said.

"The shallowness of the intellectual bag

gage (that a reporter brings with him)," says

freelance journalist Charles Nelson,

"particularly dovetails with the actual

institutional structure of journalism.

"I'll sit down at the reporter's

desk, read certain kinds of stories based on

my background, my stereotypes, my

preconceptions about what's important. The

reader will see in the story what I have decided is important, whereas my

preconception was that something else was

important," he said.

Nelson also directed to 11 television

network news coverage on an example of the problem. In some cases 15 minutes,

with seven minutes for comments, which are understood

to be informative for the

viewer, said the

network stories

thoroughly

downgraded the

story, leaving it with

little room to tell the

true story. This is in

turn to do something about

a problem which has bedeviled this state's

economy and its people on the hope for the

better part of ten years. and the

broadcast network news programs and

radio stations had done little or

nothing about it," Dennis

said.
Soviets negotiate to return captured American sailors

IOWA CITY, Iowa

The State Department formally presented the seized ships in returning U.S. officials at the detention Wednesday was told. It was said that the ships had been seized after the U.S. Embassy in Moscow made telephone contact with the Soviet authorities that the 12 American sailors had been returned and the Soviets should have been aware of that. State Department spokesmen denied reports.

"THAT VOICE," speaker of the Frieda K. said Tuedday, was how he had not entered into Soviet territory and he refused to sign a document stating that he had been there. He said he had been told to hand over a document containing Soviet delay in signing a paper saying he was there and not here," the State Department said.

Washington, D.C.

"The State Department formally presented the seized ships in returning U.S. officials at the detention Wednesday was told. It was said that the ships had been seized after the U.S. Embassy in Moscow made telephone contact with the Soviet authorities that the 12 American sailors had been returned and the Soviets should have been aware of that. State Department spokesmen denied reports.

"THAT VOICE," speaker of the Frieda K. said Tuesday, was how he had not entered into Soviet territory and he refused to sign a document stating that he had been there. He said he had been told to hand over a document containing

Soviet delay in signing a paper saying he was there and not here," the State Department said.

WASHINGTON, D.C. - A fishing industry group at

Washington and the State Department said

that the next step was that the Senate was to return

the decision was being weighed by the State

Department. The Senate was authorized by the State Department to sign a release form to.

inform Moscow of the decision, which was returned to the

State Department.

WASHINGTON - A fishery lobbying group at

Washington and the State Department said

that the next step was that the Senate was to return

the decision was being weighed by the State

Department. The Senate was authorized by the State Department to sign a release form to.

inform Moscow of the decision, which was returned to the

State Department.

WASHINGTON, D.C. - A fishing industry group at

Washington and the State Department said

that the next step was that the Senate was to return

the decision was being weighed by the State

Department. The Senate was authorized by the State Department to sign a release form to.

inform Moscow of the decision, which was returned to the

State Department.

WASHINGTON - A fishing industry group at

Washington and the State Department said

that the next step was that the Senate was to return

the decision was being weighed by the State

Department. The Senate was authorized by the State Department to sign a release form to.

inform Moscow of the decision, which was returned to the

State Department.

WASHINGTON - A fishing industry group at

Washington and the State Department said

that the next step was that the Senate was to return

the decision was being weighed by the State

Department. The Senate was authorized by the State Department to sign a release form to.

inform Moscow of the decision, which was returned to the

State Department.

WASHINGTON - A fishing industry group at

Washington and the State Department said

that the next step was that the Senate was to return

the decision was being weighed by the State

Department. The Senate was authorized by the State Department to sign a release form to.

inform Moscow of the decision, which was returned to the

State Department.
Japanese rebels torch party offices

TORUO (AP) - Political exiles from Iran and Turkey tried to draw attention to their plight Thursday by holding a demonstration outside Japan’s Diet building, most of Japan’s parliament.

Police used tear gas to disperse the protesters, who were seeking to call for unionization of members of their people’s party and the release of two former Iranian diplomats who had recently been arrested by the United States.

The protesters, who are members of the Japanese branch of the People’s Party of Iran, said they hoped to attract attention to their cause by burning copies of the Japanese Constitution and the Diet rules.

They also shouted slogans, including “Down with the Diet,” and “We demand the release of our friends in Iran.”

The protesters were held for about an hour before being allowed to leave the area.

Japan takes U.S. steel import plan

TOKYO (Reuters) - Japan’s trade officials and industry leaders Wednesday slammed the U.S. administration’s plan to impose new tariffs on Japanese steel imports.

The plan, which was announced Tuesday, would impose a 20% duty on all steel products from Japan, with the exception of stainless steel, aluminum, and titanium.

The Japanese government said it would take all necessary steps to defend its steel industry, including legal action.

The U.S. government said it was acting to protect American workers and companies.

A spokesperson for Prime Minister Shinzo Abe said the government would strongly oppose the plan, which is expected to hit Japanese steelmakers hard.

Japan and the United States have been at odds over steel tariffs for several years, with Japan accusing the U.S. of dumping subsidized steel on its market.

The Japanese government said it would take all necessary steps to defend its steel industry, including legal action.

The U.S. government said it was acting to protect American workers and companies.
Arts longa, vita brevis

A national problem for decades — where and how to financially support the arts — has finally come home to roost in the very lion's den.

And Iowa has a curious way of reacting to the goings-on in the Cultural Council for the Iowa City Area. It's a council made of the city's most influential minds — the ones who really need it; performers and artists. It's their council. Dr. Albert Paley, president of the Iowa City Council, said in 1988 that "It is a very difficult situation for the artists and the Cultural Council. Our goal is to encourage, to facilitate, and to develop opportunities for artists and artists organizations."

But it certainly is a good idea, in the wake of propagandistic manipulation of the arts by liberals, to allow a little hard-nosed business sense into their ranks — you know, just as the owners of the Iowa City Journal do.
Liquor

Liquor, said Iowa City physi ces , said the downtown liquor store would make liquor available to the general public under the legal drinking age. "It will be an easy access for persons," Weber said. However, a partner in Old Capitol Liquors said the downtown store would be an ideal place for the downtown worker to have a drink.

Democrats

"It's a day full of family," Jacobs said. "We're excited to see so many people in Iowa City because "..." Someone in the Jacobs family pointed out that the Iowa City community is "..."

Watt

The nation's environmental resources and decisions to protect them are not independent of pragmatic interests and groups. It is a truth universally acknowledged that in any community, the environment and its management are a matter of politics. As such, they are governed by the rules of political behavior, whether the environment is considered a public or private good. The key question is whether the environment is to be protected for its own sake or for the benefit of individuals or groups. The answer depends on the political power of those involved.

"..."

The only comment I can think of that is relevant is that the lack of a clear strategy for protecting the environment has led to its destruction. The lack of a clear strategy for protecting the environment has led to its destruction. The lack of a clear strategy for protecting the environment has led to its destruction.

Iowa Secretarial/Clerical Need Their Own Organization!

Vote

ISA/ISEA - IUP
September 24 - 27

A vote for a secretarial association is a vote for positive, professional representation.

Attention...

Card Section Members

Today's meeting has been postponed until Thursday the 27th at 6 p.m. at Kinnick Stadium.

Attention...

Anyone interested in becoming an alternate for the card section, please call.

355-5120

HOMECOMING '84

Attention...

The Daily Iowan

In the age of instant information, the need for reliable and accurate news is greater than ever. The Daily Iowan, now in its 84th year, is committed to providing the Iowa City community with the latest news and events. With a dedicated team of journalists and editors, the Daily Iowan ensures that readers have access to the most up-to-date information on campus and beyond.
Ali undergoes Parkinson's disease testing

By Jeff Shifrin

NEW YORK (UPI) -- Boxing great Muhammad Ali underwent a battery of medical tests Monday to determine whether he has Parkinson's disease. The 41-year-old former heavyweight champ, who has consented to the study since he was a junior, was examined by Dr. Stanley Fahn, the nation's foremost Parkinson's disease expert.

"I am pretty sick," Ali said in a statement released by his publicist, at the close of the day-long testing.

"But I feel great, and I am not going to make any predictions about what will happen. I hope there will be no Parkinson's disease. I am going to continue to train. I am not going to retire out of fear of Parkinson's disease. I will continue to box. I will continue to work."

A round of drinks

Ali's Ihawkeyes have no problems with Panthers

By Mike Johnson

AMES, Iowa (AP) -- Danny Fouch, head coach of the Iowa State University wrestling team, won't have to worry about finding a new wrestling coach. He has the most successful season in school history to look back on.

The Hawkeyes, ranked No. 1 in the Big Ten, defeated the Panthers, 20-10, on the road for the second straight season and moved into the top 10. The Hawkeyes clinched a spot in the NCAA tournament with the victory.

"I'm proud of the team," Fouch said. "They've worked hard all year and deserve this opportunity."
Hawks would've been better off fishing

It was a bad one for the Iowa basketball team. Wednesday. At home, in Cedar Rapids, by 16 points. On top of that, the Hawkeyes fired off 7-for-23 from beyond the arc. In fact, the Hawkeyes are being applauded for saving what little they can of the season by pulling off some kind of reversal. What sport should be doing during the workout, the Iowa coach said.

As a young player, I knew I was still making a lot of mistakes and having a difficult time concentrating.

Darley announces schedule changes

Iowa basketball coaches Vivian Stringer and George Dixon announced two changes in the Hawkeyes' schedule Thursday. The first change involves the three-city series scheduled for Sept. 4. The series has now been set for Sept. 16 at 3 p.m. on the Kinnick Stadium Concourse. The second change concerns the Hawkeyes' games on Oct. 6. The games against Northwestern and Northern Michigan have been moved up to 3 p.m. the next day and will be held at the Recreation Services' Bobcat Arena.

On a basketball conference... "I'm still studying on what we need to work on," Stringer said. "We need to see what those weaknesses are and then work on them in practice."

Stringer, Reveling to hold basketball seminar

Iowa basketball coaches Vivian Stringer and George Dixon will be the featured speakers at a seminar designed to help high school girls' basketball coaches improve their teams. The seminar will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Recreation Services' Bobcat Arena. Admission is a cost of $5.

Sports

Deininger powers 'Beasts' to convincing win, 39-0

By John Gromell

Don Deininger didn't have the time to participate in a game last season because the Beasts, his football team, were involved in some kind of conflict. But it didn't happen this year, and the Beasts are 4-1 heading into a game this weekend at the University of Nebraska. They're in the right frame of mind. I'd have to feel like I'm in the right frame of mind, Stringer said. "I'd have to have a chance to make the team. Maybe it would be a different situation (than the CeItic camp).

The Beasts will be playing in a game that's rated one of the most exciting in the world.

Brian Butterfield, Joe Monroe, and Kevin Stringer are all on the starting lineup for the defending world champions.

Deininger is known for his "clean organization." He's the coach of the team, and the players are the ones who make the decisions.

This year's winners

Michigan State median 580

North Carolina median 483

Ohio State median 413

Wisconsin median 413

Iowa median 350

The 18-game ballot is for the Big Ten only. The Big Ten can be reached by calling 515-244-8503.

Rec Sports sets locker rental time

The Division of Recreational Services has announced that Field House locker rental will be available beginning Oct. 17. Locker rentals are handled on a first-come, first-serve basis. The rentals will be handled in the North Field House Concourse.

Sportsbriefs

Iowa basketball tournament will feature 16 teams

By Dan Melvin

Special to The Daily Iowan

The Iowa women's basketball tournament will feature 16 teams competing for the state championship. The tournament will be held at the Recreation Services' Bobcat Arena at a cost of $5. For additional information, contact the two women's basketball offices at the school.

"We need to see what those weaknesses are and then work on them in practice."
Iowa set for East Coast swing

By Jill Hoklnlon

The Bears' start keeps Payton running

Weber State women's basketball team, which has the nation's best defense, will visit Illinois on Sunday.

The Bears' loss against Stanford set because of a lack of concentration during the second half against the Volunteers. The Bears played a solid first half but faltered in the second half, allowing the Volunteers to come back and win.

Four Bears' players scored in double figures, with Shelton leading the way with 15 points. The Bears also held the Volunteers to just 10 points in the first half, but the second half saw the Volunteers rally for a 47-35 victory.

Shelton, who scored 18 points for the Bears, said he was pleased with the team's performance in the first half, but felt they needed to improve in the second half.

"We played well, but we need to work on our conditioning and our defense," Shelton said. "We'll have to be in better shape for the next game and also be more focused on the game plan.

The Bears will now travel to the East Coast to face some of the top teams in the country.

NOTES:
- The Bears' defense held the Volunteers to just 10 points in the first half.
- The Bears' bench scored 12 points, with Shelton leading the way with seven points.
- The Bears' defense held the Volunteers to just 10 points in the first half, but the second half saw the Volunteers rally for a 47-35 victory.
- Shelton, who scored 18 points for the Bears, said he was pleased with the team's performance in the first half, but felt they needed to improve in the second half.

The Bears will now travel to the East Coast to face some of the top teams in the country.
Hinkie soars to Las Vegas lead

Olympians

$5.40, said, "I'm very proud to be here. I've been in Iowa City for the past eight years, and I really enjoy playing at the University of Iowa. All the members of the university should be proud to watch the Chicago Bulls go on this way."

Robinson said that he is theosis of the University of Iowa's men's basketball program. He said that the work of the University of Iowa is being done in the area of basketball.

Hear three superb ensembles for the price of one in a great night of jazz.
Films

The Hotel New Hampshire

Retold and adapted by Victor/Village Theatre, John Davis.

Playing at the Village.

Trick-Down Basques of Beer $1.75 Refills or $1.80 Basques ($1.75 Dutch Treat)

Happy Hour-7

Bagatelle Across the board

Above: the Boxoffice reservation tomorrow (see your pick today to: Village Hotel)

MAGOOS

FAMILY NIGHT SPECIAL

All you can eat 18" pizzas with 2 toppings

4 Student Sloppy Salads

Pitcher of Pop or Beer

All for just $1.95

Sponsored by: Lona Book & Supply

Iowa's most complete book selection.

Downstairs across from the Old Capitol.
Czech author's 'novel' prose style accommodates his wealth of ideas

By Ken Van Orien

The Unholy Lightness of Being by Milan Kundera

EASTERN EUROPE has been described as a land of contrasts, a land late which is early, and when one has heard one story, one has heard another. This is partly due to the trauma of living there, or perhaps because of its nature; one of the most daunting mysteries of our time has been the intellectual and cultural development of that mysterious land. Kafka, Camus, Milan Kundera's Prague is particularly peculiar, as it remains a blend of Eastern and Western thought, becoming both east and real east in its technological and artistic development.

Life in Prague: Confusion, Strangers and Thrashing has truly been the name of life in Prague. No matter how many people could paint themselves as part of some proposed greater nation, no more than having chosen to change the political system, was more than anyone had previously. And at the history of literature there is perhaps the only thing that remains. It is a history of the soul of a nation, the true nation. And as much as one can tell that the nation has been the true nation, it remains a mystery.

A NEW LIGHTNESS: Western critics could speak much of literature, but not quite the same. Both had become another category of Prague books. "From the very beginning," the Other Europe, being as one geographical entity and a cultural, was quite well informed. This happened due to the position and culture of Prague, that none other than other European nationalities.

THE DEVELOPMENT OF A NATION: The development of a novel is a fascinating story. The gradual unfolding of secrets: how man behaves and why, what he privately thinks and feels, is why great novels have always been shocking.

Thursday Specials

$1/2 Price Pitchers

8pm to Midnight

Happy Hour

4:30-7:30 Mon.-Fri.

50¢ Draws

2/80 Pitchers

2 for 1 Bar Liquor

Berr's Place &
Joe's Place

131 Iowa Ave.

From one beer lover to another.

PRE-KIPEFEST PARTY

Thursday, Sept. 20, 3-7 pm

$5 Cover includes 1 Pitcher ticket, 10 free bags of beer, $1.00 Pitchers and bar drinks when the lines run out.

$2 Cover if you've already purchased your Pitcher Ticket

Proceeds go to the Children's Miracle Network Telethon

Distributed locally by

Oxford Beverage Company Inc.
Sympohy seeks growth, funds

St. Louis Batuer

The Cedar Rapids Symphony Orchestra is in the middle of a major campaign, and its goal is to make the 2000-2001 season the biggest in the orchestra's 59-year history.

The campaign's primary goal is to raise $6 million, which would allow the orchestra to hire a music director and to build on the foundation established by its current music director, Christian Williams. With the new music director in place, the orchestra will be able to attract more audiences and to offer a wider variety of programming.

The campaign's secondary goal is to raise $3.5 million, which would allow the orchestra to expand its education and community outreach programs. This money would be used to hire additional staff members and to develop new programs that reach out to a wider audience.

The orchestra's current budget is $4.7 million, and it has been operating in the red for the past three years. The campaign is necessary to ensure the orchestra's financial stability and to make it a viable community asset.

The orchestra's current music director, Christian Williams, is moving to the East Coast. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new music director to continue the orchestra's growth.

The orchestra's current CEO, White Owen, is leaving to become the CEO of a competing orchestra. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new CEO to continue the orchestra's growth.

The orchestra's current education coordinator, Tiemeyer, is leaving to become the CEO of another orchestra. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new education coordinator to continue the orchestra's growth.

The orchestra's current marketing director, White Owen, is leaving to become the CEO of a competing orchestra. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new marketing director to continue the orchestra's growth.

The orchestra's current financial director, White Owen, is leaving to become the CEO of a competing orchestra. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new financial director to continue the orchestra's growth.

The orchestra's current executive director, White Owen, is leaving to become the CEO of a competing orchestra. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new executive director to continue the orchestra's growth.

The orchestra's current education coordinator, Tiemeyer, is leaving to become the CEO of another orchestra. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new education coordinator to continue the orchestra's growth.

The orchestra's current CEO, White Owen, is leaving to become the CEO of a competing orchestra. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new CEO to continue the orchestra's growth.

The orchestra's current marketing director, White Owen, is leaving to become the CEO of a competing orchestra. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new marketing director to continue the orchestra's growth.

The orchestra's current financial director, White Owen, is leaving to become the CEO of a competing orchestra. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new financial director to continue the orchestra's growth.

The orchestra's current executive director, White Owen, is leaving to become the CEO of a competing orchestra. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new executive director to continue the orchestra's growth.

The orchestra's current education coordinator, Tiemeyer, is leaving to become the CEO of another orchestra. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new education coordinator to continue the orchestra's growth.

The orchestra's current CEO, White Owen, is leaving to become the CEO of a competing orchestra. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new CEO to continue the orchestra's growth.

The orchestra's current marketing director, White Owen, is leaving to become the CEO of a competing orchestra. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new marketing director to continue the orchestra's growth.

The orchestra's current financial director, White Owen, is leaving to become the CEO of a competing orchestra. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new financial director to continue the orchestra's growth.

The orchestra's current executive director, White Owen, is leaving to become the CEO of a competing orchestra. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new executive director to continue the orchestra's growth.

The orchestra's current education coordinator, Tiemeyer, is leaving to become the CEO of another orchestra. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new education coordinator to continue the orchestra's growth.

The orchestra's current CEO, White Owen, is leaving to become the CEO of a competing orchestra. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new CEO to continue the orchestra's growth.

The orchestra's current marketing director, White Owen, is leaving to become the CEO of a competing orchestra. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new marketing director to continue the orchestra's growth.

The orchestra's current financial director, White Owen, is leaving to become the CEO of a competing orchestra. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new financial director to continue the orchestra's growth.

The orchestra's current executive director, White Owen, is leaving to become the CEO of a competing orchestra. With his departure, the orchestra will need to hire a new executive director to continue the orchestra's growth.
VISIT MINOLTA REP. RON LEISEY

MINOLTA X700

- Program Automation
- Full Manual Control
- TTL Flash Metering
- Minolta USA Warranty

SLR Accessory Kit 399

• with accessory 38-70mm f/4.5-1.4 zoom
• with 80-200mm f/4.5-6.3 zoom

MINOLTA X-570

- Aperture Priority Auto
- Full Manual Control
- TTL Flash Metering
- Minolta USA Warranty

319 3272 3198

• with Access 38-70mm f/4.5-1.4 zoom
• with 80-200mm f/4.5-6.3 zoom

MEET NIKON REP. JIM ALBIN

Nikon FG

- Programmed Auto, Manual
- Auto TTL, Full Manual
- Bright Viewfinder
- Minolta USA Warranty

61468328

• with Access 38-70mm f/4.5-1.4 zoom

60565598

MD-4 Motor Drive

BLY ANY NIKON SLR BODY & GET

35mm 1/2.6 & 7-50mm for every $188

Vivitar

Special Offer Vivitar

Fixed-Mount 70-210mm f/4.5-6.3 with Macro Focusing

$99

Limited quantities

3700 flash w/module

Series 18-90mm f/2.8

Flash Proshade

VS-35 Autofocusing

$99

RICOH

FF-3AF SUPER

• Architectural
- Full Manual Control
- TTL Flash Metering
- Full Manual

13800

FREE Camera Clinic

Southern Iowa Camera Repair

Service will check your camera

35mm camera for no charge

Saturday, Sept. 22nd, Only, 11-3 pm

FRIDAY & SATURDAY

ONLY

The Original Domke

Camera Bag

in stock only

The Original Domke bag run only

78.00

PHOTOFINISHING SPECIAL

8 x 12

In-House Color 6 x 8 35mm neg.

Limit 10

96¢ Ea.

Joint Institute of Mass Media

City College

TRU TRAINS

TRU TRAINS

INDEX

Announcements (8m.

Cutaway Ads)

Ontario

March/April

Google

Page dimensions: 1029.1x1712.2

[Image 0x0 to 1029x1712]

[0x0]

[0x0]