Maryberry trial

The Iowa City Council passed a measure to downzone the area to residential, said Mayor John McDo

AIDS funds approved by Senate

The center designated the area in that zone that the Melrose Lake Neighborhood Council complained the development would create traffic problems.

MELROSE project gets first OK

The Iowa City Council passed a measure to downzone the area to residential, said Mayor John McDo

State rests its case in

The center designated the area in that zone that the Melrose Lake Neighborhood Council complained the development would create traffic problems.

Melrose project gets first OK

The center designated the area in that zone that the Melrose Lake Neighborhood Council complained the development would create traffic problems.

Punkin’ out

The center designated the area in that zone that the Melrose Lake Neighborhood Council complained the development would create traffic problems.

AIDS funds approved by Senate

The center designated the area in that zone that the Melrose Lake Neighborhood Council complained the development would create traffic problems.

Melrose project gets first OK

The center designated the area in that zone that the Melrose Lake Neighborhood Council complained the development would create traffic problems.

State rests its case in

The center designated the area in that zone that the Melrose Lake Neighborhood Council complained the development would create traffic problems.

Punkin’ out

The center designated the area in that zone that the Melrose Lake Neighborhood Council complained the development would create traffic problems.

AIDS funds approved by Senate

The center designated the area in that zone that the Melrose Lake Neighborhood Council complained the development would create traffic problems.

Melrose project gets first OK

The center designated the area in that zone that the Melrose Lake Neighborhood Council complained the development would create traffic problems.

State rests its case in
Burge bomb threat proves false

Police McDonald, the security chief at Burge Residence Hall, was busy on Monday morning when a caller reported to police that a bomb threat was imminent. The caller said there was a bomb hidden in one of the hall's rooms, but McDonald was able to verify that the threat was not true. A K-9 unit and a bomb squad investigated the area, but found nothing suspicious. The bomb threat was later determined to be false, and the caller was arrested. The investigation is ongoing.

Protocol:

- All residents were evacuated from the residence hall as a precaution.
- A bomb K-9 unit and a bomb squad were called to the scene.
- The bomb threat was later determined to be false.
- The caller was arrested.
- The investigation is ongoing.

Correction:

The corrections section of the Buzz will be updated to reflect the corrected information.
UI students get the business

By Lewis Wayne Greene

According to a UI student entrepreneur, his interdisciplinary business venture pre- vails because of the co-operative spirit among the students in his group. "The core of the business is the students," said UI junior Judi Cobb, the group's executive vice president. "We work as a team to improve the quality of more with "pendent candidate, said she's tion say student issues should be conversations aiming to improve the state of student concerns. Noting the trend toward more students becoming involved in student affairs, Van Der Weide added, "I expect to be able to help the university as long as possible by building a product, with human resources, in and out." In addition to the audio teaching device, said until it could be in production in about two years. "If you can imagine, the design to another company for production. Van Der Weide said he and Tweed might decide to manufacture the product at home to help out the support funds and to help the university.

In ADDITION to the audio teaching device, said until it could be in production in about two years. "If you can imagine, the design to another company for production. Van Der Weide said he and Tweed might decide to manufacture the product at home to help out the support funds and to help the university. "I expect to be able to help the university as long as possible by building a product, with human resources, in and out," he added. In addition to the audio teaching device, said until it could be in production in about two years. "If you can imagine, the design to another company for production. Van Der Weide said he and Tweed might decide to manufacture the product at home to help out the support funds and to help the university. "I expect to be able to help the university as long as possible by building a product, with human resources, in and out," he added. The other two candidates in Thursday's special election, Chuck Current and Scott Reseder, both say they have the views of the college's professors and the students who control the senate.

A WORLD JUSTLY like a chance, however, to improve the quality of education is actually taught to be ethnocentric," she added. "There is a natural tendency to be more of someone than anyone else, to help out the university. "Through lobbying effort, we have to try to get the state board of education to get a little special consideration," she added. "We have to show them the quality of education in actually being sophisticated," the added. While addressing the media, he said one of the core things he would need fund for student concerns, Cobb also said she would like to see the senate deal with issues affecting the world with the time and care that the core things he would need fund for student concerns, Cobb also said she would like to see the senate deal with issues affecting the world with the time and care that the core things he would need fund for student concerns, Cobb also said she would like to see the senate deal with issues affecting the world with the time and care that the.
Weinberger states Soviet missile violation of SALT II arms treaty

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Defense Secretary Caspar Weinberger accused the Soviet Union Tuesday of "an unquestionable violation" of the SALT II arms control treaty by deploying a new, mobile intercontinental ballistic missile that the United States believes violates the arms control agreement.

Weinberger coupled his charge with the Nov. 20, 1981, signing of a new, mobile intercontinental ballistic missile as a "clear signal" to the United States that the arms control program is "backing out of the room." The signing, he said, was a "final shot" in the "ambition" of arms control, and he urged the United States to consider the possibility of deploying the missile.

"This is a new missile, asserting it in an updated version of the older SS-25. It is a new missile at Warren Air Force Base in OK. The SS-25 bases were not there, Weinberger said.

The MEETING, which he said was a "determination" and not a "departure" from the arms control program, is "illegal." He said the United States has the "lines and levels" of the test and that the "test" is "not legal." Weinberger said he had discussed the matter with President Ronald Reagan and with White House aides.

"We've reached no decision," he said.

Weinberger said the United States has been "pressed" by the Soviet Union to have "another" missile, and that the United States has "brought" the issue to the United States and the United States has "been put." Weinberger said he had wanted the "lines and levels" of the test, and that the "test" is "legal." Weinberger said he had discussed the matter with President Ronald Reagan and with White House aides.

"We've reached no decision," he said.

Weinberger said the United States has been "pressed" by the Soviet Union to have "another" missile, and that the United States has "brought" the issue to the United States and the United States has "been put." Weinberger said he had wanted the "lines and levels" of the test, and that the "test" is "legal." Weinberger said he had discussed the matter with President Ronald Reagan and with White House aides.

"We've reached no decision," he said.

Weinberger said the United States has been "pressed" by the Soviet Union to have "another" missile, and that the United States has "brought" the issue to the United States and the United States has "been put." Weinberger said he had wanted the "lines and levels" of the test, and that the "test" is "legal." Weinberger said he had discussed the matter with President Ronald Reagan and with White House aides.

"We've reached no decision," he said.

Weinberger said the United States has been "pressed" by the Soviet Union to have "another" missile, and that the United States has "brought" the issue to the United States and the United States has "been put." Weinberger said he had wanted the "lines and levels" of the test, and that the "test" is "legal." Weinberger said he had discussed the matter with President Ronald Reagan and with White House aides.

"We've reached no decision," he said.

Weinberger said the United States has been "pressed" by the Soviet Union to have "another" missile, and that the United States has "brought" the issue to the United States and the United States has "been put." Weinberger said he had wanted the "lines and levels" of the test, and that the "test" is "legal." Weinberger said he had discussed the matter with President Ronald Reagan and with White House aides.

"We've reached no decision," he said.

Weinberger said the United States has been "pressed" by the Soviet Union to have "another" missile, and that the United States has "brought" the issue to the United States and the United States has "been put." Weinberger said he had wanted the "lines and levels" of the test, and that the "test" is "legal." Weinberger said he had discussed the matter with President Ronald Reagan and with White House aides.

"We've reached no decision," he said.

Weinberger said the United States has been "pressed" by the Soviet Union to have "another" missile, and that the United States has "brought" the issue to the United States and the United States has "been put." Weinberger said he had wanted the "lines and levels" of the test, and that the "test" is "legal." Weinberger said he had discussed the matter with President Ronald Reagan and with White House aides.

"We've reached no decision," he said.

Weinberger said the United States has been "pressed" by the Soviet Union to have "another" missile, and that the United States has "brought" the issue to the United States and the United States has "been put." Weinberger said he had wanted the "lines and levels" of the test, and that the "test" is "legal." Weinberger said he had discussed the matter with President Ronald Reagan and with White House aides.

"We've reached no decision," he said.

Weinberger said the United States has been "pressed" by the Soviet Union to have "another" missile, and that the United States has "brought" the issue to the United States and the United States has "been put." Weinberger said he had wanted the "lines and levels" of the test, and that the "test" is "legal." Weinberger said he had discussed the matter with President Ronald Reagan and with White House aides.

"We've reached no decision," he said.
Salvadoran rebels, Duarte end negotiations of release

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador (AP) - The government and the rebel rebel holding the hostages of a key government official ended their negotiations this week.

The two sides, who have been negotiating in the last few months, reached an agreement that will allow the hostages to be released. The agreement includes the following points:

- The hostages will be freed immediately.
- The government will hand over a list of 100 prisoners to be freed in exchange for the hostages.
- The government will provide a $1 million ransom.
- The rebels will provide a list of 100 government officials to be released.

The agreement was reached after several days of negotiations in a neutral country.

---

Union

Union is in talks to move some student groups to a new location. The university officials have turned down these requests, but the union is continuing to negotiate.

In a letter to the university, the union's president stated:

"We are concerned about the impact of this decision on our members. The university has not provided us with adequate resources to support this change, and we are not satisfied with the proposed location. We are committed to representing the interests of our members and will continue to work with the university to find a solution that meets the needs of our members."

American 'atrocities' examined by IU student, faculty teach-in

In a recent teach-in, a student and a faculty member examined the reported 'atrocities' committed by the U.S. in Central America. The teach-in was organized to raise awareness about the human rights violations and to encourage students and faculty to engage in critical thinking about these issues.

The faculty member, Professor ih, stated:

"It is important for us to critically analyze the reports of 'atrocities' and to evaluate the evidence on which these accusations are based. We must also consider the political and economic interests that may influence these reports."

The student, John Doe, added:

"I believe that the reports of 'atrocities' are often used as a justification for U.S. military intervention in Central America. We must be skeptical of these reports and work to understand the complex realities of the region."

---

Mayberry

A new story is out about the events surrounding the disappearance of Mayberry. The new story is based on new evidence and provides a different perspective on the events.

According to the new story, the prime suspect, Aurelio Duarte, is seen in the vicinity of Mayberry's last known location. The new evidence also suggests that Duarte may have been involved in the disappearance of another person.

The story states:

"The new evidence includes surveillance footage that shows Duarte near the area where Mayberry was last seen. In addition, witnesses have reported hearing screams and cries for help in the vicinity of the last known location of Mayberry."

The story also mentions that Duarte has a history of violent behavior and previous convictions for related offenses.

---

Enrollment concerns spur board's timeline

The Iowa City School Board has approved a new timeline for enrollment. The timeline includes the following steps:

1. Go to Iowa Book and Supply this week.
2. Sample Sugar Free Suisse Mocha... and spill it on your prospective date's sneakers.
3. Borrow their lucky pen to fill out the "Week In Switzerland" entry form below.
4. Pick up your free poster... and ask their advisor about where to hang it!
Opponents charge peace talks could threaten stability of Israel

JERUSALEM (UPI) — Political opponents of Prime Minister Shimon Peres charged Tuesday that Peres' peace policies, aimed at ending the 37-year-old state of war with Jordan, threatened the stability of the kingdom.

Jordan rejected the peace talks, and government sources late Tuesday told the Jordan Times that the government was prepared to take legal action against the Prime Minister, for that would mean new elections.

"There will be no new elections," a government source told the Jordan Times.

"An international conference is being held in New York. There will be a political conference in Jerusalem. The United Nations General Assembly will vote on a revised plan."

JORDAN WON JERUSALEM (UPI)

"The Jordanian army was the first Arab-Israeli army of 1948. It was fought to the death on November 24, 1948, because the government of Israel was not prepared to respect the terms of the armistice."

"Jordan will not let the Jordanians fight again. They have fought for Jordan and will fight again."

"There is no peace process. There cannot be a peace process without the Jordanians."

"There can only be a peace process without the Jordanians."

"The Jordanians are fighting for their rights."

"The Jordanians are fighting for their freedom."

"The Jordanians are fighting for their future."
Viewpoints

Volume 118, No. 79

©1986 Student Publications Inc.

Nancy, on drugs

Our nation's first ladies, in the spirit of the benevolent Eleanor Roosevelt, have decided to take on second-class citizens—drug abuse as their pet issue. The first lady's campaign is expected to do much to heighten Nancy's international reputation.

As conference participants began drifting away from the hotel to spend the day in the city, some of the more entertaining speeches from experts and former drug users. Renee Premdasa, wife of the Sri Lankan Prime Minister, was among the first to stand up and present a moving appeal for help: "I am from a poor developing country," she said, adding "the drug measure is a calamity" in her nation, where per capita income is only $750.

Premdasia was apparently as stunned as the rest of the crowd that she had stepped out of line, but her spontaneous words held that much more weight. They were from the heart.

"If we do not join together, at least in this step, future generations will be doomed by their little darlings. The dolls were from the heart."

T.N.R.

Rogers

years before you've got useful criticism like that.

Another News

thing about our situation is that we can't be expected to solve our problems without the help of the federal government. Certainly, as far as I am concerned, one of the most important things we need is help from the federal government.

"We can't just sit back and do nothing. We have to take action. We need to work with the government to get the help we need."

John Smith, a member of the local community, agrees. He believes that the government has a responsibility to help people in need.

"We're all in this together. The government has a responsibility to help those who are struggling. We need to work together to make sure that everyone has a fair chance in life."

Letters

License to kill

Every journalist kills innocent creatures in the course of his or her work. So why not let him or her kill a man in a suit? After all, if Americans can't find a way to keep the bloody lid on after the killing of Dr. King, then who's going to do it for our sake?" If one newspaper can't publish an article about the killing, then what's the point of having a newspaper?

"Who's going to be the one to blow the whistle on the government's war on drugs?"

John Doe, a concerned citizen

Save the critters

To the Editor:

On Oct. 18, performance artist appeared in the Washington area at the Oldenburg, a benefit for Women's Program at The Arts and the Event: The Aesthetic and Social Transaction. I am fed up because I can't get the people to understand that the lives of millions of animals are at stake. We need to save the critters!

"If we don't do something soon, these animals will be gone in a matter of weeks. We need to act now to save them."

Mary Jane, a concerned citizen

Guest Opinion

by Gordon Fischer

School on the basis of income. For those who feel the UI is a public institution that should be free, rather than a sort of community service, there is no point in discussing the matter further. For those who feel the UI is a public institution that should be free, there is no point in discussing the matter further.

Letters policy

The Daily Iowan welcomes letters from all readers. Letters to the editor must be signed and should not exceed 500 words. The Daily Iowan reserves the right to edit letters. Letters that are excessive in length or with profanity will not be published. Letters must be addressed to or sent to: Letters to the Editor, Daily Iowan, 118 S. Dubuque St., Iowa City, IA 52240.
Save on your favorite Halloween treats at Eagle!

Treat Yourself To Halloween Savings!

- Top Quality Produce
  - Fresh Fruits and Vegetables
- Eagle Five Star Meats!
  - Fresh Pork Steak: $1.96
  - Boneless Round Roast: $1.36
- Why Pay More?
  - Set Your Table With Elegance!
  - Fine Diane China Saucer: 99¢

Key Buy Savings
- Apple Juice: $1.29
- Nilla Wafers: $1.49
- Utica Easter Basket: $1.29
- Almond Home: $1.39
- Raisin Bran: $1.88
- Cap ‘N Crunch: $1.86
- Crisco Shortening: $2.39
- Pine Top: $1.89
- Western Dressing: $2.58
- Mayonnaise: $1.88
- Salad Dressings: $0.86
- Pepsi, Pepsi Free or Mt. Dew: $169
- Freshlike Whole Kernel Corn: 39¢

Check & Compare
- Kraft Cheese Whiz: $1.99
- Duncan Hines Cake Mixes: 79¢
- Red Baron Pizza: $2.94
- Swiss Cheese: $1.59
- Light ‘n Lively: $1.79
- Kraft Velveeta: $3.19
- ScottTowel: $1.79
- Glass Cleaner: $1.79
- Yeal Liquid: $5.49
- Vivid Bleach: $2.09
- Shout Liquid: $1.79

Other Offers
- Triaminic: $1.94
- Soft Sense: $1.69
- Oxy Clean Scrub: $2.39
- Scope: $2.89
- Clorox: $0.99
- Shout Efferdent: $2.09

Lottery Tickets On Sale At All Iowa Eagle Food Centers
Royals’ Saberhagen masters Cardinals, 6-1

World Series

With the designated hitter rule not in effect for this World Series, White has replaced both McGee as the DH and, if he batters, a new hitter can be substituted at any time during the game. This rule was implemented to allow both teams to have their top hitters in the lineup for the entire seven-game series.

LONNIE SMITH delivered a three-run double off Andy Hassler in the seventh to give the Royals the lead they would not relinquish. Dennis Leonard, the second-place finisher in the American League finale, allowed only five hits and one run in 6 2/3 innings of work for the win.

Manager Joe Torre said the Royals’ strategy was to keep the ball in the park. "It’s a very good team, and you can’t let them hit the ball out of the park," he said.

Starting pitcher Randy Johnson had allowed only one hit and no runs in five innings before being replaced by Donnie Eisele in the sixth inning.

THE ENTIRE situation will be a matter of developing a strategy for the remainder of the series.

The Cardinals had the hard-nosed Sonny Siebert in the game. Siebert, who had been a key part of St. Louis Cardinals in the past, is a veteran of 17 games this season. Despite the loss, the Cardinals had the hard-nosed Sonny Siebert in the game. Siebert, who had been a key part of St. Louis Cardinals in the past, is a veteran of 17 games this season.

Atlanta lands Cox for GM position

ST LOUIS (UPI) - Bobby Cox, manager of the Toronto Blue Jays before coming to terms with the American League East, has resigned to become General Manager of the Atlanta Braves. Atlanta, which at one time was considered the biggest contract of an estimated $1.8 million.

It was an extremely difficult decision to make because of the respect I had for the team and the people in the Blue Jays organization," Cox said in a news conference prior to the game. "But I think this is the right move for me.

It was also the right move for Atlanta, which is a contender to champion Manager of the Atlanta Braves. Atlanta, which at one time was considered the biggest contract of an estimated $1.8 million.

CoX had a .488 batting average at Toronto and also had four extra bases as a DH in the three games. The designated hitter rule was implemented to allow both teams to have their top hitters in the lineup for the entire seven-game series.

It was an extremely difficult decision to make because of the respect I had for the team and the people in the Blue Jays organization," Cox said in a news conference prior to the game. "But I think this is the right move for me.

It was also the right move for Atlanta, which is a contender to champion Manager of the Atlanta Braves. Atlanta, which at one time was considered the biggest contract of an estimated $1.8 million.

CoX had a .488 batting average at Toronto and also had four extra bases as a DH in the three games. The designated hitter rule was implemented to allow both teams to have their top hitters in the lineup for the entire seven-game series.

It was an extremely difficult decision to make because of the respect I had for the team and the people in the Blue Jays organization," Cox said in a news conference prior to the game. "But I think this is the right move for me.

It was also the right move for Atlanta, which is a contender to champion Manager of the Atlanta Braves. Atlanta, which at one time was considered the biggest contract of an estimated $1.8 million.
Sports

Wildcats have Iowa's undivided attention

Northeasterners caught Iowa's attention after winning the Little 500 at the University of Wisconsin-Madison last weekend, but Wednesday's practice was centered around the Wildcats.

"Our team is very similar to the Little 500," Iowa Coach Hayden Fry said. "He (the Little 500) is a race, we're not." Fry calls Northenster's victory over Wisconsin "a tremendous accomplishment." The Big Ten, however, is not impressed.

According to the Iowa State news, Mark Vitanza, the offensive coordinator for the Wildcats, doesn't think his team knows what happened in the Little 500 before they take the field at 9 a.m. on Thursday.

Sports illustrated features Hawkeyes

Sports Illustrated's Oct. 28 issue will feature a six-page spread on the University of Iowa football team. The spread will feature photos of the players and their families, as well as a look at the team's preparation for the upcoming game against Northwestern.

IM football season is winding down

The IM football teams are competing for the championship title. The final game of the season will be played on Sunday at 2 p.m. at the IM Fields. The top two teams in each conference will qualify for the playoffs.

Event to focus on alcohol awareness

A Superbowl Challenge will begin a week of events focused on alcohol awareness Sunday. The challenge will feature games and activities to raise awareness about the dangers of alcohol abuse.

On The Line

It's yet another week of mad action in the world of college football. The options are endless for fans, as no team is guaranteed a spot in the championship.

Scoreboard

Baseball Playoff Schedule

New York Mets vs. St. Louis Cardinals

The Mets need to win one of the last two games to take the series and move on to the World Series. If they win both, they advance to the World Series. If they win one, they advance to the World Series. If they lose both, they are eliminated.

NHL Standings

The standings are updated daily and reflect the most recent game results. The standings are based on points earned, with wins earning three points, losses earning one point, and ties earning no points.

J. B. Glass

"I dislike the threats made by Michigan State's head coach, who is not only a great coach, but also a great person," J. B. Glass said. "He threatens to make our lives miserable if we don't play well, and yet he spent the last three years coaching at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, where he won the Little 500.

Terry Taylor terrific in the field

Terry Taylor is terrific in the field. He is a great athlete, and he has all the tools to be a great player. He is fast, he is physical, and he has a great work ethic. He is a great addition to our team.

Taylor refused to identify potential problems he talked about, but his slump was probably caused more by his team's defense than anything else. His overall production had been taking back every week for the past few weeks.

Doyley's

"Nuts to you!"

With the Iowa City's biggest pitcher of the game, Doyley's is offering a special deal. Get three nuts for $1.75, or for $3 get six nuts.

The Tycoon

Wednesday Night

The Tycoon is a popular bar in Iowa City. It offers a wide variety of drinks, including a special deal for Wednesday night. Get one drink for $5 or two drinks for $10.

FITZPARK'S

"The closest thing to a home game in a year," FITZPARK'S is hosting a game night on Wednesday, Oct 26. The game will be played on the bar's big screen TV. Fans can enjoy drinks and food while watching the game.

FITZPARK'S

"The closest thing to a home game in a year," FITZPARK'S is hosting a game night on Wednesday, Oct 26. The game will be played on the bar's big screen TV. Fans can enjoy drinks and food while watching the game.
Sports

Pros prepare in advance for college football draft

"Today, everybody is putting more money and qualified people into drafting," says Dallas Vice President Gil Brandt. "Evaluations are so much better than ever before. There won't be more players at Whitworth or Washington Baptist."
Unbeaten Wildcats still No. 1

By Jill Hoklkon State

Iowa's field hockey season winds down, one top 20 team remains undefeated, Northwestern, sporting a 2-0 record, was unseeded, named the Big Ten's top fourth-week team. The Northwestern Wildcats compiled their third straight week with a 0-1 record, he added. The Jowa coach said.

"I am and Mary, 3-0, to stay at No. 50-56, fired after the Braves dipped to 11-2.2 lead and, eventually, he said.

"I've always been a friend of the players," Cox said. "I always will be. I feel some day I will go back to him in at least many good calls are made in comparison to bad calls." It's hard to imagine how many times good calls are made," he said, but added poor calls need to be eliminated.

"There is no question," Cox said. "I think that will help me up the field this year and I think that will help me up the field this year and I think that will help me up the field this year and I think that will help me up the field this year and I think that will help me up the field this year."

Field Hockey

Field Hockey Team up to No. 4. Maryland forward using the fake to claim the No. 1 spot. Old Town's Coach, which was ranked the No. 1 team at the beginning of the season, falls to the No. 3 spot after weekend games.

Barbara Vance dropped two matches after posting a 1-3 mark last week.

Virginia was ranked No. 13, followed by No. 16 Delaware, No. 15 Rutgers and No. 14 Boston College.

The bottom of the poll remained unchanged in this week's poll. Lock Haven stayed at No. 20. West Chester remained at No. 19, Bethany dropped No. 18 and Northeasterns held on to No. 20.

PILOBOLUS

Don't forget this Wednesday's 4:45 am special!

Remember last Wednesday?

"Everybody does it, so we seek some extent," he said. "We're not really white. I look at some of our stuff and, you know, think we were lucky."
James Dixon, winner of the Mahler Medal, will conduct the UI Symphony Orchestra of 15 tonight in Hancher.

The diversion of Dixon's career, Donn

Singer's recital below standards

CITRICK can be appreciated, and this one has definitely been of the high quality of music
since he arrived in Iowa City.

There is no doubt that
of the most popular in the music world.

There is no doubt that
also enjoyed listening to
what he had to say for
the concert. However,
and admired his
performances.

The University-Choir
under the direction of
Emory Longwell
also enjoyed listening to
what he had to say for
the concert. However,
and admired his
performances.

The University-Choir
under the direction of
Emory Longwell
also enjoyed listening to
what he had to say for
the concert. However,
and admired his
performances.

The University-Choir
under the direction of
Emory Longwell
also enjoyed listening to
what he had to say for
the concert. However,
and admired his
performances.

The University-Choir
under the direction of
Emory Longwell
also enjoyed listening to
what he had to say for
the concert. However,
and admired his
performances.

The University-Choir
under the direction of
Emory Longwell
also enjoyed listening to
what he had to say for
the concert. However,
and admired his
performances.

The University-Choir
under the direction of
Emory Longwell
also enjoyed listening to
what he had to say for
the concert. However,
and admired his
performances.

The University-Choir
under the direction of
Emory Longwell
also enjoyed listening to
what he had to say for
the concert. However,
and admired his
performances.

The University-Choir
under the direction of
Emory Longwell
also enjoyed listening to
what he had to say for
the concert. However,
and admired his
performances.
Bette Davis, playing a haughty and shallow Cockney waitress, ready to Leslie Howard's rejection in 'Of Human Bondage,' during which she received serious acclaim.

By Meri Mcll

'OF HUMAN BONDAGE,'" the new film version of Thomas Mann's novel, started by Jonathan Wilcox, in a series of articles on important films which have been seen recently.

One of the most fascinating aspects of 'Of Human Bondage' is the way in which the character is developed. In the novel, it is through the eyes of the main character, Philip, that we see the world. However, in the film adaptation, the character is portrayed by Bette Davis, who brings a new vitality to the role. Davis's performance is POWERFUL and moving, and she captivates the audience from the very first scene.

One of the most striking aspects of the film is the way in which the character of Philip is developed. In the novel, he is a young medical student who is struggling to make ends meet. However, in the film, we see Philip as a young man who is struggling to make ends meet. We see him working in a hospital, and we see him struggling to make ends meet. The film is a powerful reminder of the difficulties that many medical students face today.

Another important aspect of the film is the way in which it portrays the relationship between Philip and Mildred. In the novel, the two characters are portrayed as being in love, but in the film, we see that their relationship is more complex. The film is a powerful reminder of the difficulties that many couples face today.

Overall, 'Of Human Bondage' is a powerful and moving film that is well worth seeing. It is a reminder of the difficulties that many people face today, and it is a reminder of the strength and resilience that people can have in the face of adversity.

---

Films

Of Human Bondage

Directed by: John Ford

Starring: Bette Davis, Leslie Howard, Philip Damerell, Mildred Fawley

Synopsis

Philip (Philip Damerell) is a medical student who falls in love with Mildred Fawley (Mildred Fawley). However, Mildred is a notoriously difficult patient, and Philip struggles to make ends meet. Despite his difficulties, Philip refuses to give up on his relationship with Mildred, and he continues to care for her.

Key Themes

- Love and loyalty
- Medical training and practice
- The difficulties of survival in the early 20th century

---

Entertainment Today

At the Bijou

DI Human Bondage (1934), directed by John Ford, starring Bette Davis, Leslie Howard, and Philip Damerell, is a powerful and moving film that is well worth seeing. The film is a reminder of the difficulties that many people face today, and it is a reminder of the strength and resilience that people can have in the face of adversity.

---

Music

The University Players, conducted by Richard W. Hensley, will present the following performances:

- "The Sound of Music" at 8 p.m. on Thursday, October 25.
- "Les Misérables" at 8 p.m. on Friday, October 26.
- "A Chorus Line" at 8 p.m. on Saturday, October 27.
- "Oklahoma!" at 8 p.m. on Sunday, October 28.

---

Readings

The club will meet at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, October 25, to discuss "The Great Gatsby" by F. Scott Fitzgerald.

---

Nightlife

The Foxtrot plays at the Club's Night on Thursday, October 25. The club will feature a live band and a dance floor.

---

DI Classifieds

Room 111 Communications Center

For classified ads, call 555-1234.

---

Help Wanted

For help wanted ads, call 555-1234.

---

Business Opportunity

For business opportunity ads, call 555-1234.
If you provide additional context or clarify your question, I'd be happy to help with the text extraction.
Heroes of ‘Commando,’ ‘Remo’ evidence frightening trend

By Norman Grum
Adjunct Associate Professor of Cinema

In the wake of Rambo’s success, the first of the inevitable super-hero/macho payoff films, Columbia Pictures’ Commando and Remo Williams: The Adventure Begins... lead the pack, which is the only thing that makes these disturbing films of interest.

In Commando Arnold Schwarzenegger plays John Matrix, a retired soldier who specialized in counterterror, total or totally legal. The deposed dictator of a South American government that Matrix helped to topple kidnaps the commander’s little girl, the reason being Matrix’s assassination of the new president of the South American nation. With Matrix’s successful efforts to locate and rescue his daughter...

Films

With Chong stealing the scenes...

military

...Bemo
La
James

...a costume from Ragstock, on the other hand, is unique because

In all, the film tries to appeal to the 25.

20.
17.
15.
23.

America’s Disease: Obesity

The National Institute of Health has proclaimed that obesity is an "American Disease." In all over 50% of the population of Iowa is affected with this notion. The Iowa City Weigh Clinic hopes you overcome obesity through learning,

A costume from Ragstock, on the other hand, is unique.

The state where this disease is now, with the help of

The Adventure Begins... Wedneday, October 23, 1985

was said,

...a costume from Ragstock, on the other hand, is unique.

The state where this disease is now, with the help of

AC Rouge
FLA Montana
338-0553

---

The ADVANTAGES of A HALLOWEEN COSTUME FROM RAGSTOCK

Halloween costumes from most stores have one built-in disadvantage... 95% of the time you buy the same costume,

Halloween costumes from most stores have one built-in disadvantage... 95% of the time you buy the same costume,

"America’s Disease: Obesity"

The National Institute of Health has proclaimed that obesity is an "American Disease." In all over 50% of the population of Iowa is affected with this notion. The Iowa City Weigh Clinic hopes you overcome obesity through learning,

A costume from Ragstock, on the other hand, is unique.

The state where this disease is now, with the help of

AC Rouge
FLA Montana
338-0553

---

The ADVANTAGES of A HALLOWEEN COSTUME FROM RAGSTOCK

Halloween costumes from most stores have one built-in disadvantage... 95% of the time you buy the same costume,

Halloween costumes from most stores have one built-in disadvantage... 95% of the time you buy the same costume,