Lasenfus sees on trial in Managua

NEW YORK CITY — Eugene Lasenfus, a U.S. citizen rep resented by Washington attorney Bob King, on April 24, said that a
Tacoma-based private security firm
had brought him to Managua to work at the U.S. Embassy.

Mr. Lasenfus
was arrested
in Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managua,
Managa,
Metro Briefly

UI student dies in camping accident

UI College of Medicine student John Stephen Nichol, 18, of Portage, Mich., was electrocuted Saturday while making a 100-foot rappel from a cliff while camping near Keddie, Iowa.

Nichol was a junior at the UI Medical College and a graduate of Type State University in South Bend, Ind.

Nichol was survived by his parents and brothers Thomas, 22, of Iowa City, and Paul, 16, of South Dakota.

African activist to speak on apartheid

A 17-day tour of the United States and Canada will begin today by delegates from the African National Congress in South Africa.

While in Iowa City, the delegation will visit the University of Iowa and the University of Northern Iowa.

The tour is being sponsored by the University of Iowa International Relations Society and the UI Student Government.
New facility could propel UI to forefront of laser research

By John J. McCreary

University of Iowa

UI officials said Tuesday they have received a $5 million state appropriation to build a new research facility in Iowa City for laser research.

The facility, to be called the University of Iowa Laser Research and Education Center, will house a laser lab on the fourth floor of the old Food Stores building at 1000 1st Ave. S.E., which until recently was the home of the UI's Food Stores.

UI President Stanley Perrins said the new center will be the largest laser research lab in the country.

UI Vice President Duane Spierstersbach said the center will be the "age of laser light." He added that it will house "everywhere, this is the age of laser light.

"It would be a major economic impact in the state of the state," says UI President Perrins.

"It's where, this is the age of laser light. It's where laser research and scientists, researchers and students, researchers and students interact in the lab to consider the age of laser light.

"IT'S VERY IMPORTANT,"

New Target store will bring jobs to Iowa City, Coralville

By Patrick Lannon

The Des Moines Register

A Target department store will be opening in the Coralville, Iowa, mall this month, officials said Tuesday.

Target executives will bring a new department store to the Coralville Mall this month, according to officials said Tuesday.

"It's a great day for the community," said Target's vice president of merchandise, Mike McCreary.

"It's a tremendous thing for the community," said McCreary.

"It's a tremendous thing for the community," said McCreary.

"It's a tremendous thing for the community," said McCreary.

"It's a tremendous thing for the community," said McCreary.

"IT'S VERY IMPORTANT,"

Farm forum generates action

By Dan Wicker

The Des Moines Register

The Iowa State University of Science and Technology (ISU) will host its first annual "Farm Forum" on Oct. 20, 2006, at the Linn County Fairgrounds in Coralville.

The forum will feature presentations on a variety of topics related to agriculture, including crop production, livestock management, and agricultural economics.

The forum will be held from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Linn County Fairgrounds in Coralville.

"I THINK THAT'S REALLY IMPORTANT,"

One of a kind-HALLOWEEN COSTUMES!

At 807 East Washington, 338-0512

The Daily Iowan — Iowa City, Iowa — Sunday, October 22, 1983 — Page 5A

Need LARGE Photocopies? We have the press for BIG copies up to 6 x 9½ in. • Map Printing • Folded Brochures

COMPLETION SPECIALS PLUS IOWA CITY'S LOWEST PRICES!

SUPER SAVINGS THRU OCT: 26TH!

CYNTHIA LAURER CYNTHIA LAURER

PAUL SIMON PAUL SIMON

TALKING HEADS TALKING HEADS

ELVIES CARRIE CARRIE

M.L. MILLER M.L. MILLER

T.T. T.S. T.T. T.S.

LIVE TO BE LITTLE

DETON BARNES DETON BARNES

THE TUESDAY NIGHT TUESDAY NIGHT

OVER 50 PRICES!

$6.97 UP OR CASH $6.97 UP OR CASH $6.97 UP OR CASH

HEAR TODAY...HEAR TOMORROW!

DETON BARNES DETON BARNES

TIMBER 3

AT BARNES

$5.97 UP OR CASH $5.97 UP OR CASH $5.97 UP OR CASH

DETON BARNES DETON BARNES

U.S.A. RECORDS, PROVIDING CONSISTENTLY GOOD SOUND INVESTMENTS

6½% S. DUBUQUE ST. 338-8251

HOURS: M-F 10-9, SAT. 10-4, SUN. 12-5

B.J. RECORDS

IOWA CITY'S BETTER STORE FOR LP'S, CASSETTES & 45'S

Give a hoot. Don't pollute.

Best Service, USA.
Judgment call

Friday morning The Daily Iowan printed two pictures of a car-bike collision. The first picture was of the car, and both cars were destroyed in the accident. The second picture was of the bicycle being treated by local ambulance personnel. The Daily Iowan prints one of the pictures in the first picture as the bicycle, shown in the second picture, should be on the newspaper.

While many professional photographers and news critics would offer these pictures as "ingenious," several local resident differ otherwise. More than a half dozen readers have called or written the newspaper about the photos by Friday night, and many more will undoubtedly comment the appearance in fall days. Such comments as "The B2 is really flying for news to put something like this in the paper" and "These innocent people have been thrust into the limelight because of an accident" are circulating around Iowa City.

In this particular situation, the accident occurred one block away from the Postenstet, the heart of the UI campus. With thousands of students and faculty rushing to and from class in cars, bicycles and buses every hour of the day, it is surprising that similar accidents do not occur more often. Printing the photographs serves as a grim reminder to all of us that alertness and awareness to our surroundings are vitally important.

Fortunately, the bicyclist and driver were not injured seriously, and much of the physical and emotional trauma experienced is hopefully behind them. However, it is important to realize that photos and pictures can often make the public more aware of an issue or problem.

In an "ingenious," "peace shield" the driver, an 18-year-old woman, appears to be crying in the first picture as the bicyclist, shown in the second picture, is able to laugh and be seen.

Yet many professional critics and news critics will offer these pictures as "ingenious," and many more will undoubtedly comment the appearance in fall days. Such comments as "The B2 is really flying for news to put something like this in the paper" and "These innocent people have been thrust into the limelight because of an accident" are circulating around Iowa City.

In this particular situation, the accident occurred one block away from the Postenstet, the heart of the UI campus. With thousands of students and faculty rushing to and from class in cars, bicycles and buses every hour of the day, it is surprising that similar accidents do not occur more often. Printing the photographs serves as a grim reminder to all of us that alertness and awareness to our surroundings are vitally important.

Fortunately, the bicyclist and driver were not injured seriously, and much of the physical and emotional trauma experienced is hopefully behind them. However, it is important to realize that photos and pictures can often make the public more aware of an issue or problem.

In an "ingenious," "peace shield" the driver, an 18-year-old woman, appears to be crying in the first picture as the bicyclist, shown in the second picture, is able to laugh and be seen.

Yet many professional critics and news critics will offer these pictures as "ingenious," and many more will undoubtedly comment the appearance in fall days. Such comments as "The B2 is really flying for news to put something like this in the paper" and "These innocent people have been thrust into the limelight because of an accident" are circulating around Iowa City.

In this particular situation, the accident occurred one block away from the Postenstet, the heart of the UI campus. With thousands of students and faculty rushing to and from class in cars, bicycles and buses every hour of the day, it is surprising that similar accidents do not occur more often. Printing the photographs serves as a grim reminder to all of us that alertness and awareness to our surroundings are vitally important.

Fortunately, the bicyclist and driver were not injured seriously, and much of the physical and emotional trauma experienced is hopefully behind them. However, it is important to realize that photos and pictures can often make the public more aware of an issue or problem.

In an "ingenious," "peace shield" the driver, an 18-year-old woman, appears to be crying in the first picture as the bicyclist, shown in the second picture, is able to laugh and be seen.

Yet many professional critics and news critics will offer these pictures as "ingenious," and many more will undoubtedly comment the appearance in fall days. Such comments as "The B2 is really flying for news to put something like this in the paper" and "These innocent people have been thrust into the limelight because of an accident" are circulating around Iowa City.

In this particular situation, the accident occurred one block away from the Postenstet, the heart of the UI campus. With thousands of students and faculty rushing to and from class in cars, bicycles and buses every hour of the day, it is surprising that similar accidents do not occur more often. Printing the photographs serves as a grim reminder to all of us that alertness and awareness to our surroundings are vitally important.

Fortunately, the bicyclist and driver were not injured seriously, and much of the physical and emotional trauma experienced is hopefully behind them. However, it is important to realize that photos and pictures can often make the public more aware of an issue or problem.

In an "ingenious," "peace shield" the driver, an 18-year-old woman, appears to be crying in the first picture as the bicyclist, shown in the second picture, is able to laugh and be seen.

Yet many professional critics and news critics will offer these pictures as "ingenious," and many more will undoubtedly comment the appearance in fall days. Such comments as "The B2 is really flying for news to put something like this in the paper" and "These innocent people have been thrust into the limelight because of an accident" are circulating around Iowa City.

In this particular situation, the accident occurred one block away from the Postenstet, the heart of the UI campus. With thousands of students and faculty rushing to and from class in cars, bicycles and buses every hour of the day, it is surprising that similar accidents do not occur more often. Printing the photographs serves as a grim reminder to all of us that alertness and awareness to our surroundings are vitally important.

Fortunately, the bicyclist and driver were not injured seriously, and much of the physical and emotional trauma experienced is hopefully behind them. However, it is important to realize that photos and pictures can often make the public more aware of an issue or problem.

In an "ingenious," "peace shield" the driver, an 18-year-old woman, appears to be crying in the first picture as the bicyclist, shown in the second picture, is able to laugh and be seen.

Yet many professional critics and news critics will offer these pictures as "ingenious," and many more will undoubtedly comment the appearance in fall days. Such comments as "The B2 is really flying for news to put something like this in the paper" and "These innocent people have been thrust into the limelight because of an accident" are circulating around Iowa City.

In this particular situation, the accident occurred one block away from the Postenstet, the heart of the UI campus. With thousands of students and faculty rushing to and from class in cars, bicycles and buses every hour of the day, it is surprising that similar accidents do not occur more often. Printing the photographs serves as a grim reminder to all of us that alertness and awareness to our surroundings are vitally important.

Fortunately, the bicyclist and driver were not injured seriously, and much of the physical and emotional trauma experienced is hopefully behind them. However, it is important to realize that photos and pictures can often make the public more aware of an issue or problem.

In an "ingenious," "peace shield" the driver, an 18-year-old woman, appears to be crying in the first picture as the bicyclist, shown in the second picture, is able to laugh and be seen.

Yet many professional critics and news critics will offer these pictures as "ingenious," and many more will undoubtedly comment the appearance in fall days. Such comments as "The B2 is really flying for news to put something like this in the paper" and "These innocent people have been thrust into the limelight because of an accident" are circulating around Iowa City.

In this particular situation, the accident occurred one block away from the Postenstet, the heart of the UI campus. With thousands of students and faculty rushing to and from class in cars, bicycles and buses every hour of the day, it is surprising that similar accidents do not occur more often. Printing the photographs serves as a grim reminder to all of us that alertness and awareness to our surroundings are vitally important.

Fortunately, the bicyclist and driver were not injured seriously, and much of the physical and emotional trauma experienced is hopefully behind them. However, it is important to realize that photos and pictures can often make the public more aware of an issue or problem.

In an "ingenious," "peace shield" the driver, an 18-year-old woman, appears to be crying in the first picture as the bicyclist, shown in the second picture, is able to laugh and be seen.

Yet many professional critics and news critics will offer these pictures as "ingenious," and many more will undoubtedly comment the appearance in fall days. Such comments as "The B2 is really flying for news to put something like this in the paper" and "These innocent people have been thrust into the limelight because of an accident" are circulating around Iowa City.

In this particular situation, the accident occurred one block away from the Postenstet, the heart of the UI campus. With thousands of students and faculty rushing to and from class in cars, bicycles and buses every hour of the day, it is surprising that similar accidents do not occur more often. Printing the photographs serves as a grim reminder to all of us that alertness and awareness to our surroundings are vitally important.

Fortunately, the bicyclist and driver were not injured seriously, and much of the physical and emotional trauma experienced is hopefully behind them. However, it is important to realize that photos and pictures can often make the public more aware of an issue or problem.

In an "ingenious," "peace shield" the driver, an 18-year-old woman, appears to be crying in the first picture as the bicyclist, shown in the second picture, is able to laugh and be seen.

Yet many professional critics and news critics will offer these pictures as "ingenious," and many more will undoubtedly comment the appearance in fall days. Such comments as "The B2 is really flying for news to put something like this in the paper" and "These innocent people have been thrust into the limelight because of an accident" are circulating around Iowa City.

In this particular situation, the accident occurred one block away from the Postenstet, the heart of the UI campus. With thousands of students and faculty rushing to and from class in cars, bicycles and buses every hour of the day, it is surprising that similar accidents do not occur more often. Printing the photographs serves as a grim reminder to all of us that alertness and awareness to our surroundings are vitally important.

Fortunately, the bicyclist and driver were not injured seriously, and much of the physical and emotional trauma experienced is hopefully behind them. However, it is important to realize that photos and pictures can often make the public more aware of an issue or problem.

In an "ingenious," "peace shield" the driver, an 18-year-old woman, appears to be crying in the first picture as the bicyclist, shown in the second picture, is able to laugh and be seen.
More Soviet troops leave Afghanistan

AFGARAN PRESIDENT Babrak Karmal, who was ousted from the top post by Soviet-backed Najibullah in May and played a major role in the Soviet invasion of 1979, was relatively absent from the public eye. Najibullah, who once referred to Karmal as his "brother," was mobbed by Afghan officials and later—despite his own military significance—screamed at him. Some crying.

Unlike Najibullah, who was driven from the top post by Karmal, who was made his ownvuMemorial Union Bookstore

Aバラは、アフガニスタンにあったソビエト連邦の軍隊が退却開始を表明した。

ソビエト連邦からアフガニスタンへ軍隊が退却するための準備が進んでいる。

ソビエト連邦政府は、アフガニスタンにて保有していた軍隊を撤退させるための措置を講じている。

ソビエト連邦軍の一部は、アフガニスタン国内において活動している。
Opposition conservatives and liberals alike have come out against the idea of using the duty from a mission in Iraq to help fund drugs or alcohol programs in Iraq. The article states that the proposal was seen as a way to fund drug or alcohol programs, but it was opposed by both conservatives and liberals.

Socialists lose ground in Greek election

The Socialists lost ground in the Greek election, coming in second place with 28 percent of the vote, down from 31 percent in the previous election. The left-wing Syriza party, led by Alexis Tsipras, won with 31 percent, marking a significant shift in the political landscape.

Aquino resumes talks with Communists

The government panel has resumed talks with the communist movement in the Philippines, hoping to reach a peace agreement. The panel said they were making progress, but more work needs to be done before an agreement can be reached.

Mount St. Helens shows new activity

The Mount St. Helens volcano in Washington state has shown signs of new activity, including the emission of a plume of gas and ash. The last major eruption of the volcano was in 1980.

Confederate soldier reburyed in South

The remains of a Confederate soldier, who died in the American Civil War, have been reburyed in a ceremony in the South. The soldier's remains were discovered during construction work and were returned to his family.

National

Shultz emphasizes summit's progress

Secretary of State George Shultz emphasized the importance of the upcoming summit with the Soviet Union. He said that progress has been made in the talks, and he is optimistic about the outcome.

National

Study notes change in smoking habits

A recent study notes a change in smoking habits among teenagers. The study found that the percentage of teenagers who smoke has declined significantly in recent years.

Doonesbury

BY GARRY TRUDEAU

A cartoon featuring a character trying to quit smoking, with a caption that reads, "I'm not a quitter, I'm a quitter."
‘Lackadaisical’ contact care can lead to eye infections

‘Lackadaisical’ contact care can lead to eye infections

Libel suit filed by Jepsen aide

Libel suit filed by Jepsen aide

Metro

NASA special speakers to local students

NASA special speakers to local students

Robertson showed a model of the ‘Islander’ fuel-cell spacecraft for next generation missions. He explained current NASA programs, particularly the space station program, and answered questions. "Since the new space station is going up in space," Robertson said, "the education of the students will help stimulate the students to learn more about science and math." "I think this is a great opportunity to come visit the students and answer their questions," Robertson said. "It's great to be able to visit the students and answer their questions.

‘Lackadaisical’ contact care can lead to eye infections

On May 20, 1996, a 19-year-old woman filed a libel suit against the Daily Iowan, Iowa City’s only daily newspaper. The suit was filed on behalf of William Jepsen, R - Iowa, who was accused of providing false information about his personal life.

Jepsen, who was a junior at the University of Iowa, was accused of providing false information about his personal life.

The suit was filed on behalf of William Jepsen, R - Iowa, who was accused of providing false information about his personal life.

Jepsen, who was a junior at the University of Iowa, was accused of providing false information about his personal life.

Jepsen, who was a junior at the University of Iowa, was accused of providing false information about his personal life.
Four of Jerusalem's holiest sites were declared off limits by Israeli authorities.

The three young Arabs are suspected of having been involved in a series of grenade attacks and have ties with Jihadi, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

Three young Arabs were arrested in Jerusalem, Levy said.

"A government statement later said that "in the course of our investigation, evidence and intelligence were presented which indicated that some of the suspects were handed over to the authorities.""

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.

The Arab suspects were said to be in their early 20s, claimed they belong to Islamic Jihad, a code name used by French hostages in Lebanon backed by Iran.

"The Arab suspects were not immediately released." The names of the suspects, said to be in their early 20s, were not immediately released.
Gillette's last-second kick tops Iowa

Michigan 20 Iowa 17

The Michigan offense did not come to play Saturday in Ann Arbor. The Wolverines played like a team that had not practiced in a month.

Michigan scored on its first two possessions of the game. But the Wolverines' defense did not allow Iowa to score until the final 1:30 of the first half.

Michigan quarterback Owen and wide receiver Page scored touchdowns on the first two plays of the game. With 10:15 left in the first half, the ball was kicked off the halfway line by Michigan's assertive kicker, and Iowa's quarterback, Tchou, was injured. He was replaced by a Michigan substitute, who kicked the ball into the end zone. The Michigan special team returned the ball to the 10-yard line, and the Wolverines' offense never made it to the end zone.

NEW YORK CITY — Tonight, Detroit, junior quarter-back, and the New York Giants, playing for their third straight victory, took on the Boston Red Sox, winners of the World Series the previous year. The game was expected to be a pitchers' duel, but instead, it became a hitting contest.

Detroit's Owen and Page scored touchdowns in the first half. But the Red Sox scored three runs in the second half. The victory was credited to the Red Sox's pitching, which held Detroit to only one run. The Red Sox's outfield, led by Bill and his brother, was unable to prevent the Tigers from scoring. The Tigers ended the game with a 3-0 victory.

SUNDAY NIGHT was another strong performance by Detroit's Owen and Page. They scored touchdowns in the first half and in the fourth quarter. The game was decided in the last two minutes. After an interception by Detroit's Page, Owen scored from the one-yard line to give Detroit a 7-3 lead. The Red Sox answered with a field goal, but Detroit's Owen scored from the one-yard line to win the game.

TRIVIA TEASER

What is the name of the pitcher who pitched in the World Series in 1931 for the Red Sox? Hint: His last name is Turek.

ANN ARBOR — Last night, the Michigan Wolverines hosted the Iowa Hawkeyes at the Big House. The game was a close contest, with the Wolverines leading 15-12 at halftime. On a two-yard pass, Page scored the first touchdown of the second half. With 1:30 left in the game, Page scored from the one-yard line to give Michigan a 20-17 lead. The Hawkeyes' last possession of the game was halted by a Michigan defensive play, and the Wolverines sealed the victory with a last-second field goal.

Sports

Boston batters Mets; takes-2 Series Lead

World Series Lead

New York 3 Los Angeles 1

The Mets' offense exploded against the Los Angeles Dodgers, scoring three runs in the first inning. New York pitcher Spike Owen and catcher Fred Carter hit back-to-back home runs to give the Mets a 2-0 lead. Carter also hit a double in the fourth inning, and Owen scored on a single by Bill Tchou in the seventh inning.

The Dodgers' only run came in the eighth inning on a home run by Los Angeles' Bill Murgatroyd. But the Mets' bullpen held the Dodgers to one run, and the Mets won the game with a 3-1 victory.

Wolverines' cocky kicker boots Hawks

By Lewis Palmer

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — Last night, the Michigan Wolverines hosted the Iowa Hawkeyes at the Big House. The game was a close contest, with the Wolverines leading 15-12 at halftime. On a two-yard pass, Page scored the first touchdown of the second half. With 1:30 left in the game, Page scored from the one-yard line to give Michigan a 20-17 lead. The Hawkeyes' last possession of the game was halted by a Michigan defensive play, and the Wolverines sealed the victory with a last-second field goal.

Hawks post key win over Wildcats

By John Davidson

The St. Louis Hawks beat the Chicago Bulls, 98-82, in the first game of the best-of-seven series.

The Hawks scored 41 points in the second half, including 18 points in the final 16 minutes. The Bulls were unable to keep up with the Hawks' scoring, and the game was over by the end of the third quarter.

Field Hockey

Lynne Motzko scored a hat trick as the Michigan Wolverines beat the Iowa Hawkeyes, 3-0. Motzko scored in the first half and twice in the second half. The game was played in Ann Arbor.

Boston batters Mets; takes-2 Series Lead

The Red Sox scored seven runs against the Mets, including a three-run home run by Bill Tchou in the third inning. The Mets' only run came in the bottom of the eighth inning on a solo home run by New York's Spike Owen. The Red Sox won the game with a 7-1 victory.

Chicago Cubs' 13-run explosion over Giants in 11th inning

The Chicago Cubs scored 13 runs in the 11th inning against the New York Giants, winning the game with a 13-11 victory.

Clemens could not hit the ball, but the ball hit him

Boston's Roger Clemens, the major league's top pitcher, was unable to hit the ball. The ball hit Clemens in the face, and he was forced to leave the game. The Red Sox won the game with a 3-0 victory.
On The Line

Boo, coddly people thought the line was so easy you could pick all ten games correctly in one go. Think twice before you try to do it again.

Yes, they thought some lines were so smart, but maybe this week will be a bit more difficult as Michigan heads back with a 4-0-1 record, No. 1 in the national rankings, and ranked just because you got beat last week.

The same can be said for our draft of 10-0 Michigan, which is listed as a 17-1 favorite to win the Holiday Bowl and a 10-1 underdog to win the national championship. Michigan Coach Bo Schembechler, who was getting ready to report to his job at Michigan State University, was listed as a 10-1 underdog to win the Holiday Bowl.

At the end of the season, the spread of 10-0 Michigan looks good but only because of the 10-0 Michigan spread, which is listed as a 10-1 favorite to win the national championship. Michigan Coach Bo Schembechler, who was getting ready to report to his job at Michigan State University, was listed as a 10-1 underdog to win the Holiday Bowl.

Get ready for this year's Roundup, which is listed as a 10-1 underdog to win the national championship. Michigan Coach Bo Schembechler, who was getting ready to report to his job at Michigan State University, was listed as a 10-1 underdog to win the Holiday Bowl.

Here's how the teams did as of the last weekend of the season:

- Michigan: 10-0, No. 1 in the national rankings
- Michigan State University: 10-0, No. 1 in the national rankings
- Notre Dame: 9-1, No. 2 in the national rankings
- Nebraska: 8-2, No. 3 in the national rankings
- Penn State: 7-3, No. 4 in the national rankings

Michigan Coach Bo Schembechler, who was getting ready to report to his job at Michigan State University, was listed as a 10-1 underdog to win the Holiday Bowl.

As of the last weekend of the season:

- Michigan: 10-0, No. 1 in the national rankings
- Michigan State University: 10-0, No. 1 in the national rankings
- Notre Dame: 9-1, No. 2 in the national rankings
- Nebraska: 8-2, No. 3 in the national rankings
- Penn State: 7-3, No. 4 in the national rankings

Michigan Coach Bo Schembechler, who was getting ready to report to his job at Michigan State University, was listed as a 10-1 underdog to win the Holiday Bowl.

On the Line
Hawkeyes

Gametime: 3 p.m.

Waterloo's Mike Jones said with a smile, "Iowa City."

Nate Conlin continued:

A Word From Our Sponsor

"We've had a history of great deadline innuendo at Iowa,"

Mike Judge said. "The prevailing attitude is that when we give the headline, there's a story behind it."
Coach captures Hospice title

By John Doolittle

St. Ambrose College track coach Bob Doolittle couldn't believe his eyes as the final results came in, showing the Hawkeyes had pulled off a 22-point upset over the heavily favored Marquette University at the 15th Annual St. Ambrose Meet at city's downtown Oval.

Doolittle, who leads one of the nation's top track teams, was overjoyed at the victory, which was the first in the Hawkeyes' history.

"I can't believe it," Doolittle said. "I thought we had a good chance, but I didn't expect us to win. This is a fantastic team and they deserve this victory.

"It was a great day for us and I'm so proud of our athletes. They worked hard and put in the time to get here."

The Hawkeyes, who were seeded seventh, had a total of 79 points, edging out Marquette's 101 points.

Among the highlights of the meet were the performances of two of St. Ambrose's top athletes, Jeff Galloway and Julie Miller.

Galloway, a member of the 1972 Olympic Team and a renowned distance runner, set a new meet record in the half marathon, finishing in 1:02:21.

Miller, who finished 79th out of the field of 230 runners, collected the second largest share of the purse, which went to the winner.

"I'm very happy with the result," Galloway said. "I was really looking forward to this race and I'm glad I could deliver."

"Julie is a fantastic runner," Galloway added. "She's been working hard to get here and I knew she could do it."

The Hawkeyes' win was a huge boost for the school and its track program, which has been struggling for years to find success.

Doolittle, who has been coaching at St. Ambrose for 15 years, said the victory was a huge relief.

"This team has worked so hard," Doolittle said. "They've put in the time and they deserve this."

The Hawkeyes will now turn their attention to the upcoming NCAA championships, where they hope to continue their success.

"We've got a lot of work to do," Galloway said. "But this is a great start and we're looking forward to the future."

Sports

Iowa battered in tough meet

By Bruce Harken

The Hawkeyes' offense was a nightmare on Saturday, as the team was outscored 38-6 by the visiting Michigan Wolverines.

The Wolverines dominated every aspect of the game, scoring on six of their 12 possessions.

"Our defense was flat today," head coach Steve Fulbright said. "We just couldn't get any stops and our offense couldn't get anything going.

"We've got to do some more work in practice and get ready for our next game."

The Hawkeyes, who entered the game with a 3-7 record, were unable to keep up with the high-powered Michigan offense.

"Our defense was flat today," Fulbright said. "We just couldn't get any stops and our offense couldn't get anything going.

"We've got to do some more work in practice and get ready for our next game."

The Hawkeyes will now turn their attention to the upcoming NCAA championships, where they hope to continue their success.

"We've got a lot of work to do," Galloway said. "But this is a great start and we're looking forward to the future."

Sports

Tennis

Bolstered by his win at the U.S. Open, the 29-year-old said.

"It was a great day for us and I'm so proud of our athletes. They worked hard and put in the time to get here."

"I'm very happy with the result," Galloway said. "I was really looking forward to this race and I'm glad I could deliver."

Among the highlights of the meet were the performances of two of St. Ambrose's top athletes, Jeff Galloway and Julie Miller.

Galloway, a member of the 1972 Olympic Team and a renowned distance runner, set a new meet record in the half marathon, finishing in 1:02:21.

Miller, who finished 79th out of the field of 230 runners, collected the second largest share of the purse, which went to the winner.

"I'm very happy with the result," Galloway said. "I was really looking forward to this race and I'm glad I could deliver."

"Julie is a fantastic runner," Galloway added. "She's been working hard to get here and I knew she could do it."

The Hawkeyes' win was a huge boost for the school and its track program, which has been struggling for years to find success.

Doolittle, who has been coaching at St. Ambrose for 15 years, said the victory was a huge relief.

"This team has worked so hard," Doolittle said. "They've put in the time and they deserve this."

The Hawkeyes will now turn their attention to the upcoming NCAA championships, where they hope to continue their success.

"We've got a lot of work to do," Galloway said. "But this is a great start and we're looking forward to the future."

Sports

Iowa battered in tough meet

By Bruce Harken

The Hawkeyes' offense was a nightmare on Saturday, as the team was outscored 38-6 by the visiting Michigan Wolverines.

The Wolverines dominated every aspect of the game, scoring on six of their 12 possessions.

"Our defense was flat today," head coach Steve Fulbright said. "We just couldn't get any stops and our offense couldn't get anything going.

"We've got to do some more work in practice and get ready for our next game."

The Hawkeyes, who entered the game with a 3-7 record, were unable to keep up with the high-powered Michigan offense.

"Our defense was flat today," Fulbright said. "We just couldn't get any stops and our offense couldn't get anything going.

"We've got to do some more work in practice and get ready for our next game."

The Hawkeyes will now turn their attention to the upcoming NCAA championships, where they hope to continue their success.

"We've got a lot of work to do," Galloway said. "But this is a great start and we're looking forward to the future."

Sports

This is the last Montana news that will be published. The last Montana news will be published on Monday, October 10, 1986.
Sports

Iowa Open win near perfect; Haydowkey down Illini, Drake

By Marc состо

Post Reporter

Led by sophomore Bobo Scipio, the Iowa women's cross country team nabbed a sweep in the 10K meter race at the Big Ten championships in Cleveland.

The Hawkeyes finished 1-2-3 in the meet, with Scipio winning the individual title and teammate Emily Veit taking second. Iowa's sweep came on the heels of a second-place finish at the Big Ten championships last year. The Hawkeyes finished fourth in that meet, behind Penn State and Minnesota.

Iowa's dominance on the course was evident from the start. Scipio, a West Des Moines native, broke away from the field early and never looked back, finishing with a time of 30:00. Veit, a sophomore from Evanston, Ill., followed closely in second place, completing the course in 30:10.

The Hawkeyes' third runner, Emily Schneckloth, also had a strong performance, finishing 20th with a time of 31:45. Schneckloth, who won the Big Ten Championship last year, showed her strength again this season, coming in fourth place at the NCAA championships.

Iowa coach Malcom Thomas said the team's performance was a result of hard work and dedication over the course of the season.

"The girls have been working really hard all season," Thomas said. "They've been training all summer and fall, and it's paying off now."

With the sweep, Iowa moves into the NCAA championships as the top seed. The meet will be held on Nov. 17, and the Hawkeyes are looking to win their first national championship.

Volleyball

"We weren't mentally ready coming into the Michigan match," said coach Sandy Stewart. "No one was really prepared for it, and we definitely showed it in our game.

The Hawkeyes had their second straight sweep of the weekend, this time against the Michigan Wolverines. Iowa won 25-9, 25-16, 25-12.

The game was marked by strong play from both teams, but Iowa's defense and offense were too much for Michigan to handle.

Iowa's middle blocker Emily Schneckloth led the team with 13 kills and seven blocks. Her performance was key in helping Iowa maintain its lead throughout the match.

"Emily is a great player, and she really came through for us tonight," Stewart said. "She's been playing great all season, and we're really happy with her performance.

The Hawkeyes are now 15-7 on the season and remain in the hunt for a Big Ten championship. They will face Nebraska and Minnesota in their next two matches.

Hawks place 11th at Lady Cat

By Dan Smith

Assistant Sports Editor

Delaware State's 12th-place finish in the Lady Cat Invitational golf tournament at Lansing, Mich., this weekend was a welcome relief for the Hawks after a disappointing start to the season.

Iowa State was in 10th place after Monday's round, but Tuesday's round saw them climb to 12th place. The Hawkeyes finished with a total score of 88-88-82-251.

"We really needed a good round coming into the Michigan match," Stewart said. "Our team came together this week and really played well.

The Hawkeyes' next match will be against Nebraska on Oct. 26. They are hopeful for a strong performance and are looking to build on their recent success.
Conference explores Latin American cinema

By B. Gordon Tollefson

In the United States, the existence of a Latin American cinema is not allowed to critics, government officials, or anyone else. The problem is often discussed, but sometimes tends to neglect the whole Latin American cinema. The conference discusses the importance of Latin American cinema in the United States. We hope that the new Latin America Conference will make a major contribution to the development of the Latin American cinema in the United States. The conference will be held in Iowa on Saturday, October 31st.

The song is the title track off the group's latest album. The song is a perfect example of the group's unique sound, which is often described as "shocking and daring." The group's vocalist, who is the lead vocalist of the group, is often compared to other vocalists, such as Jimi Hendrix, for her powerful voice and innovative style.

In his own modest, unassuming way, the group's vocalist is often described as "brilliant." This is evident in the group's music, which is often described as "utterly mesmerizing." The group's music is often compared to other groups, such as The Beatles and The Rolling Stones, for its innovative and unique sound.

The five albums that are currently listed at number three on the charts are all Latin American films. The group's latest album, which is currently at number three on the charts, is often described as "shocking and daring." The group's vocalist, who is the lead vocalist of the group, is often compared to other vocalists, such as Jimi Hendrix, for her powerful voice and innovative style.

Five Star's efforts shine

By Jim Lusin

VIVELAS/NSNOW album will most likely prove to be just as remarkable. It is filled with songs just beneath the books of their fans, "laughing moments that are crying in the dark." It's not just a song for Cry-er's sake, it's a song for every one who is eager to "swallow their tears and weep." Each song is tender and energetic and with the people that are there, They're lacing up their boots, and we're creating quite a rhythm that's even better.

Dancing leads all the way up on Silk & Steel's "Record." In addition, the group's vocalist, who is the lead vocalist of the group, is often compared to other vocalists, such as Jimi Hendrix, for her powerful voice and innovative style.

Record

By Jim Lusin

In NEW field of dance, certain opportunities arise to help outside the way music is made. In this ever evolving, perpetuating field, Latin America's has been a unique victor. Latin America's has been, from the very beginning, a place of people to play with energy. It is not allowed to critics, government officials, or anyone else. The problem is often discussed, but sometimes tends to neglect the whole Latin America. The conference discusses the importance of Latin America in the United States. We hope that the new Latin America Conference will make a major contribution to the development of the Latin America in the United States. The conference will be held in Iowa on Saturday, October 31st.
Simons's record speaks on apartheid

The director and instrumen-
to praise the album for its variety of styles Simon's long career, and his ability to fuse South and white musicans on the album.

The dance numbers, such as the

"Graceland," a tale of a pilgrimage to the place of birth, is the best song he has ever written. "Graceland," he says, "is a confession of the repression of apartheid."

The album is suprisingly
	and follow the conductor.

The director and instrumen-
to praise the album for its variety of styles Simon's long career, and his ability to fuse South and white musi-
cans on the album.

The dance numbers, such as the

"Graceland," a tale of a pilgrimage to the place of birth, is the best song he has ever written. "Graceland," he says, "is a confession of the repression of apartheid."

The album is suprisingly
	and follow the conductor.

The director and instrumen-
to praise the album for its variety of styles Simon's long career, and his ability to fuse South and white musi-
cans on the album.

The dance numbers, such as the

"Graceland," a tale of a pilgrimage to the place of birth, is the best song he has ever written. "Graceland," he says, "is a confession of the repression of apartheid."

The album is suprisingly
	and follow the conductor.