Clinton orders readiness for nuclear testing

Robert Burns
WASHINGTON — President Clinton ordered the Energy Department Tuesday to prepare for a possible resumption of nuclear testing, setting just hours after China detonated a nuclear-bomb and hoped for a global test moratorium.

Clinton's decision came as the leaders of the countries that have nuclear weapons met in Helsinki, Finland, to discuss the possibility of a global test moratorium. The United States, China, Russia and France have all tested nuclear weapons, and the United States and China have both tested them this year.

In a letter to Energy Secretary Bill Richardson, Clinton said the Energy Department should begin planning for a possible resumption of nuclear testing, and that the department should begin planning for the possibility of a global test moratorium.

To charge or not: what a question

The gold card, better known as the student ID, is accepted around the world known as the student ID.

Medalla Singh, special to The Daily Iowan

Wednesday Warning, a UI junior, has been using the ID for almost two years. November was the month to start using the card. It works as a wallet — maybe not as a wallet, but it’s useful.

But is it wise to charge everything? Students on a tight budget or those who know little about spending must think through the pros and cons of charging goods and services. Many students are divided when it comes to using their student ID.

"I want a way to be able to go out, have a good time and not have to worry about it," said Gena Cooper, a senior. "I love the idea of having a little extra money at the beginning of the month in case something comes up."

"I get through the entire month without having to worry about money at all," said Erin Macdonald, a senior.

So why do students have credit cards?

The negotiations lasted until the deadline due to time constraints, though said rather than animosity between the cable company and the broadcaster.

“The was dumped on us this summer,” Blough said, referring to the implementation of the Cable Act of 1992. “I don’t think the federal government realized how big a task they’ve been trying.

Somalia effort may depend on U.S. troops

IOWA CITY, Iowa - President George Bush may want to think about running for office again in Kuwait.

Bush received two votes Monday in the city's municipal elections, the daily Al-Rai reported Tuesday. The two ballots were canceled, however, and the former president does not appear in official returns for the 10 electoral seats on the Kuwait Municipal Council.

Somalia child with a gun sits on top of a destroyed U.S. armored personnel carrier Monday in Mogadishu. The APC was destroyed by Mohamed Farrah Aidid's missiles on Sunday after a major assault aimed at shattering Aidid's military structure.

It was the death of four Americans, when their military vehicle was hit so early in the campaign, that prompted Clinton to send in the Rangers, along with a handful of Delta Force commandos, to capture Aidid. But the QRF remains under American control, its command, its arsenal of weapons and its military effort.

Two AC-130 gunships, the same kind of planes that were used against Afghanistan's Taliban, are being sent into Somalia.

NAIROBI, Kenya - No president wants to provide the catalyst for America's most costly and unpopular military effort.

About 1,300 other U.S. soldiers, bolstered recently by 400 Styx Rangers, made up the Quick Reaction Force, designed originally to give the United Nations national units that might find themselves in trouble.

U.S. Secretary-General Boutros-Ghali has shrunk from the idea of U.N. pullouts, he said a pullout would mean the abandonment of southern streets, which the United Nations has become increasingly important.

There is little doubt that the United Nations will pull out of Somalia.

The Iowa men's golf team rebounded after a disappointing first tournament to finish in a tie for 16th place at the Illini State Invitational, held Tuesday at the University of Illinois' Alvor Links Golf Course.

The Hawkeyes' score of 852 (+24) was enough to edge Illinois State, which scored 855 (+27) for a share of 16th place.

Rowen shot a one-under-par 71 on Tuesday to lead the Hawkeyes, while sophomore Sean Beam added a 72. Freshman Jordan Farley contributed a 73, and junior David Sharp a 76.

"It was a good day," Farley said. "The course was a little soft, but we really wanted to do well."

For the tournament, Rowen finished in a tie for 41st place with a 75-71-78-71-295 (+15).

"It was a good day," Farley said. "The course was a little soft, but we really wanted to do well."

David Sharp also finished in the top 15, tying for third with teammate Beam with a 295 (+15), while Sharp finished in a tie for 38th place with a 302 (+22).

Despite the solid performance, the Hawkeyes finished in a tie for 16th place with a 306 (+36), four strokes behind the Illini State Invitational's runner-up, the University of Illinois, which scored 302 (+30).

"We played well, but we didn't play our best," Sharp said. "We need to play better tomorrow to have a chance to win."

For the tournament, Sharp finished in a tie for 38th place with a 302 (+36), while Beam finished in a tie for 41st place with a 304 (+38).

"We need to play better tomorrow to have a chance to win," Sharp said. "We need to play better tomorrow to have a chance to win."

So how can Miami be a heavy underdog just because Florida State beat them last year? The answer is: they aren't.

"It's like they're saying we're this 2-0 team, but we're not," said Florida State's Sean Bowden. "We're not even ranked in the Top 25.

"I don't understand it," said Miami's Dennis Erickson. "All I can say is: when you have to do is look at the scores.

"It's just an underdog game," said Miami's Marc Bullock. "We're going to win.

Philadelphia catcher Darren DaultonUST handathe break of Fabies' in the Phillies' matchup with Atlanta tonight.

The Phillies beat the Braves, 10-2, in game four of the NLDS and are now one win away from advancing to the NLCS.

The Phillies have won the first three games of the series, outscoring the Braves 20-6. They are looking to become the first team to sweep a playoff series from the Braves in 24 years.

The Phillies have been led offensively by the bat of Ryan Howard, who has hit .400 with a home run and six RBIs in the series.

The Braves have been依靠 the pitching of Tommy Hanson, who has allowed only four runs in 16 innings over three starts.

The Phillies will send Cliff Lee to the mound for game five, hoping to get the series sweep and advance to the NLCS.

Philadelphia Phillies

Pitcher: Cliff Lee

First baseman: Ryan Howard

Second baseman: Chase Utley

Shortstop: Jimmy Rollins

Center fielder: Shane Victorino

Right fielder: Jay Bruce

Catcher: Carlos Ruiz

Manager: Pete Mackanin

Owner: John Middleton

General Manager: Matt Klentak

The Phillies are looking to make their first appearance in the postseason since 2009, when they lost to the St. Louis Cardinals in the NLCS.

If the Phillies win game five, they will advance to the NLCS against the winner of the other NLDS matchup, between the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Milwaukee Brewers.

The winner of the NLCS will face the winner of the ALCS, which is currently being played between the Houston Astros and the New York Yankees.

The winner of the World Series will be determined by the best of seven series.
