I.C. Senior Center - film set for a day

Chad Graham

The Iowa City Senior Center was closed off to the general public Wednesday to allow filming of a movie scene. The Iowa City Police Department, the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics, the Iowa City Fire Department and the Iowa City Public Library were contacted and informed about the filming that was going to take place in the center.

Director Nick Wyman, who plays the director of the movie, said he was excited about the opportunity to film in an actual senior citizen center.

"It's unique and it's going to be a lot of fun," Wyman said. "I've worked in places like this before, but it's always nice to be in a real setting.

The movie, which is about a senior citizen's reaction to a new neighbor, is set to begin filming Wednesday evening. Wyman said he expects the filming to take about four hours.

Wyman said he has worked on several films in the past, but none of them have been set in a senior citizen center.

"It's a unique experience," Wyman said. "I think the senior citizens are going to enjoy it too.

The filming is expected to take place in the center's dining room and community center.

City councilors ponder upcoming mayoral choice

Sarah Lueck

The Daily Iowan

The question of who would fill the four open city council seats for the upcoming election has been a hot topic in recent days. According to an email from the city's legal department, candidates are required to file their paperwork by Nov. 17 at 2 p.m.

Many people have expressed their opinions on the matter, with some calling for more diversity in the council, while others have voiced concern over the lack of transparency in the selection process.

ASSASSINATIONS

Charles Hanley

We were told he would be at the train station. Nelson was a rare visitor to the city, and we thought he might be in town to see the inauguration of the new prime minister. Nelson had been assassinated in 1963, and we were still waiting for the train to arrive.

Nelson was the first African American to serve as the US vice president. He was also a civil rights leader, a member of the Democratic Party, and a supporter of President John F. Kennedy. Nelson was assassinated by Lee Harvey Oswald, who was later killed by Jack Ruby.

Nelson's assassination was one of the most controversial events of the 20th century. It sparked a wave of protests and calls for change, and helped propel the civil rights movement forward.

Nelson's legacy lives on today. His work continues to inspire people around the world to fight for justice and equality.

Vladimir Putin was the first Russian president to be assassinated. He was killed by a Russian military officer in 2010.

Putin's assassination was a major event in the history of Russia. It sparked a wave of protests and calls for change, and helped propel the Russian revolution forward.

Putin's legacy lives on today. His work continues to inspire people around the world to fight for justice and equality.

NATIONAL SECURITY

Assessing the risk of a nuclear attack

In the wake of the 9/11 attacks, the United States has加强对核武器的警惕.

The US government has been working to strengthen its nuclear defense capabilities in recent years, as the threat of a nuclear attack remains a major concern.

The US has a robust nuclear deterrence strategy, including a large nuclear arsenal and a strong nuclear infrastructure. The US also has a robust nuclear command and control system, which allows it to quickly and accurately launch a nuclear attack if necessary.

The US has also been working to strengthen its alliances with other nuclear powers, including Russia and China, to increase its nuclear defense capabilities.

Simpson's aim to keep depositions secret

LOS ANGELES (AP) — News organizations and members of the family of Ronald Goldman have opposed G. Jacke, a judge, from having the depositions in his wrongful death lawsuits.

In separate motions filed Tuesday, the attorneys for the Goldman family asked that Judge Jacke not read tape transcripts of going depositions in the cases.

A hearing on the issue was scheduled for Wednesday.

"We will insist on Mr. Simpson's attempt to cover this lawsuit in secrecy," said Daniel Petrecek, a lawyer for Goldman's father, Fred. "Raping taped by seven news organizations instead, Simpson failed to show what would happen to video tapes of going depositions.

Simpson was acquitted last month of the June 1994 slayings of his ex-wife Nicole Brown Simpson and her friend Goldman. The victim's family has sued for damages in civil court.

Forbidden love leads to teen-agers' double suicide

— Westlake (AP) — Two high school sweethearts, forbidden by the girl's mother because she apparently showed themselves in a social, having the date of their wedding two, their desperation blossomed into being together in another world.

The bodies of shooting, 13, and Christian Davis, 14, were discovered Thursday afternoon, in a second-story window just a few blocks from a house on the street where they attended. Neither could score.

"I can't get it out of my mind," Davis said in a note to parents found near the bodies, reflecting the depth of reality into the jacket of a teen-ager.

Because reality is, I can't be with you forever.

From less than six suicide notes, police said.

"You'll never be able to understand the love we had for each other, and I'm not the one who will find you in another world, so we're going to another one."

Please don't make me do this, I want you to be happy and live your life, just as I want you to be happy, I want you to live your life, too.

"I love you more than you know, and for the rest of my life, I'll be with you," the note said.

Son of evangelist Graham follows in father's footsteps

NEW YORK (AP) — Billy Graham Jr., who said he was glad God cut his chance, will be succeeded by his oldest son, Franklin.

Ending years of speculation about who will take over the nation's most credible evangelical pulpit, the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association announced Wednesday that Franklin Graham was elected to succeed his father as president of the organization, with the right of successors to be selected by the board.

The 77-year-old Graham, who suffers from Parkinson's disease, said he will continue to serve as board chairman and chief executive of the organization he founded in 1944.

After a decade of deflecting questions about succession, Graham, the evangelist said, of his son's selection, "a father can't be pleased with his capacity for leadership and he would be pleased with his own blessedness.

In recent years, Franklin Graham, 43, has increasingly been practicing as an evangelist, heading conventions of his own and appearing with his father.

YORK (AP) — An apparently content and successful medical student was apparently drowned herself in the girl's mother to see each other, Maryling, 13, and blocks from the school they attended, "Christian," suffer from depression and their hope of a new relationship turned out for an impromptu school dance.

"We had no idea she did it," said her father, the Rev. Tim Townsend.

"I look in her eyes and came back to me," the note said.

"I love you more than you know, and for the rest of my life, I'll be with you."

Son of evangelist Graham follows in father's footsteps

NEW YORK (AP) — Billy Graham Jr., who said he was glad God cut his chance, will be succeeded by his oldest son, Franklin.

Ending years of speculation about who will take over the nation's most credible evangelical pulpit, the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association announced Wednesday that Franklin Graham was elected to succeed his father as president of the organization, with the right of successors to be selected by the board.

The 77-year-old Graham, who suffers from Parkinson's disease, said he will continue to serve as board chairman and chief executive of the organization he founded in 1944.

After a decade of deflecting questions about succession, Graham, the evangelist said, of his son's selection, "a father can't be pleased with his capacity for leadership and he would be pleased with his own blessedness.

In recent years, Franklin Graham, 43, has increasingly been practicing as an evangelist, heading conventions of his own and appearing with his father.

Globe staff writer J. P. Wolcott has agreed to the U.S. terms, Jones said the plan would go into effect as soon as Thursday.

"It's a very important step forward," said Jones, who called the decision a "landmark".

"It makes a great deal of sense," said Wolcott, who has been identified as the author of the article.

"I think it will be very good for the newspaper." And he added: "I think this will really help the newspaper move forward."

Muresan scores 31 in Washington win

Associated Press

WASHINGTON - Gheorghe Muresan, notching a career-high 31 points in the fourth quarter, led the Washington Bullets to a 112-100 victory over the Detroit Pistons on Thursday night.

Muresan, entering extended playing time in place of the injured Chris Webber, had nine points in a 12-5 run that enabled the Bullets to extend an 87-84 lead for a 10-point cushion.

The Bullets grabbed nine rebounds. Calbert Cheaney added 22 points and Oliver Miller scored 16 off the bench.

The Bullets improved to 12-2 run that enabled the Bullets to OT. The Pistons improved to 2-0.

The Pistons continued their best start in 19 years, 28-1.

LINCOLN, Neb. - Kansas running back LeTrere Smith has added a new dimension to the Jayhawks’ ground game.

He’s shown the team in packs, wearing novelty, super-charged music and accented by business mogul Bill Gates.

It’s a little different at No. 10 Kansas these days. But it’s a good thing.

“LeTrere has been big in the backfield, and that’s for sure,” coach Doyal said. “It’s right up there with John Riggins and the rest of them. He’s a very explosive back.”

With three games left, Kansas is looking to improve to 6-1 in the Big Eight and 6-2 overall this season.

The Jayhawks’ last win in the series came in 1996 when Bob Huggins was in his second season as coach.

And finally, consider that Gates is playing better than in his own team. The Jayhawks have given four games with almost a half-century win streak, and Kansas State lost by 30.

In 1992, Gates scored 100 yards on 12 carries in a 10-7 win over Texas A&M.

Then there is the matter of the two games that Gates won.

Gates scored the winning touchdown on a 56-yard run in the fourth quarter in a 20-17 win over Iowa State.

And he scored the game-winning touchdown with 32 yards to go and 50 seconds left in the fourth quarter in a 14-10 victory over Kansas State.

Kansas has nearly scored 61 yards in the final four games this season.

The Jayhawks have averaged 127.3 yards per game, which would be the third-highest in school history if the season ended now. The 26-5 point per game would rank fourth.

“I think we’ve got to go out there and match their energy,” Smith said.

Dallas receiver compares to Rice

Michael Irvin, Dallas wide receiver

Cowboys receiver Michael Irvin races past Philadelphia's Kurt Gano after a third-quarter reception in Irving, Texas, Monday night. Irvin's third-quarter catch set up a touchdown that put the Cowboys ahead 28-20. He has 100 receptions this season, becoming the first NFL player to reach the century mark since 1992 when Ernie Davis collected 101 catches.

Irvin talked of his reception for which he became the NFL's all-time leader in career receiving yards last season. "I'm just happy to be there when it happens," he said. "It's a great accomplishment for me." Irvin added that he enjoys setting records and that he plans to continue his career in Dallas.

Play chronicles Australian prison colony

Bill Merritt
The Daily Iowan

The wretched of a setting ship toss over the back- ground of a world away from home. The rocking of a ship might suggest the lack of a normal existence. But the Australian prison colony is one of the most harsh environments on earth. The story is one of struggle against the backdrop of a world away from freedom.

The setting of the play is the Australian prison colony of Port Arthur. The play, "Our Country's Good," is based on the true story of the Port Arthur prison colony. The play is written by David Williamson, an Australian playwright. The play is set in the 19th century, during the time of the Gold Rush in Australia. The play chronicles the lives of the Australian prisoners, who were transported to the colony as a punishment for crimes committed in Australia.

The play is directed by UI Theatre Arts faculty member Jennifer Jones. The play is performed at the UI Theatre Building through November 23rd. The play runs for three performances: November 19th, 20th, and 21st. The play is presented in collaboration with the University of Iowa's Centre for the Study of Australian History and Culture.

The play is performed by a cast of actors from the University of Iowa. The play features a mix of Australian and American actors. The play is presented in a theatrical style, with a mixture of realism, poetry, and philosophy. The play is a powerful exploration of the human condition and the issues faced by the prisoners in the Australian colony.

The play is a powerful statement on the human condition. It is a story of struggle and survival. It is a story of hope and redemption. The play is a powerful reminder of the challenges faced by the prisoners in the Australian colony. The play is a powerful exploration of the human condition and the issues faced by the prisoners in the Australian colony.

Cool reception for foreign films

John Pascult

Two foreign movies showing at the Iowa this week don’t fit degrees of endurance, but both are perfectly engaging.

On My Own, on Italian/Czech/Canadian/Austrian production written and directed by an antioxidantian Italian director living in Amsterdam, is about an Italian girl and her struggle to find her way. The film is a wonderful combination of dialogue and music, with a great soundtrack and moving performances. It’s a must-see for anyone interested in international cinema.

Tearjerker, a Hong Kong martial arts film, is a classic example of the genre. The action is fast-paced and exciting, with impressive fight scenes and a memorable soundtrack. The film is a great way to experience the world of Hong Kong cinema.
