Vanity pages let Web users ‘get it out in the open’

It’s been said the pen is the primary weapon against ignorance. But even as writers and editors drum down the ownership and responsibility of the press, it’s increasingly being seen as a tool for personal expression, not just news-making and opinion-generating. The Internet, in particular, has opened the floodgates to a flood of personal expression on a scale and speed that would have amazed any of the great American presses of the past.

The new power has inspired a flood of personal sites—some good and others not. The majority are a testament to the depths of the interests of anybody with a personal computer and an Internet connection.

Appeals for the protection of whistleblowers and the anonymity of sources are just some of these sites. The list is likely endless.

UI College of Law

UI College of Law is ranked 46th in the nation, according to a new study that ranked the best law schools based on data it compiled for the 1994 accreditation of all American Bar schools.

The result of the study is published annually in Newsweek, the nation’s leading news magazine.

The study was conducted by the Center for Educational Improvement and Research at the University of Southern California, Los Angeles.

The study was designed to provide an objective, standardized method of evaluating the quality of the nation’s law schools.

The ranking system is based on several factors, including the number of graduates who go on to practice law, the percentage of graduates who pass the bar examination, the number of graduates who enter graduate school, and the number of graduates who enter public service.

The study also takes into account the number of full-time faculty members, the number of full-time teaching assistants, the number of library materials, the number of computerized services, and the number of research assistants.

I.C. school board plans to relocate 100 Hawkeye Court students

Sarah Sorek
The Daily Iowan

Iowa City Community College students who live in Hawkeye Court Apartments can expect to attend separate schools for the 1996-97 school year for the first time in nearly 20 years.

A proposed boundary change for UI students living in apartments numbered 100, 200 and 300 at 1350 South Nansemond Street, 3550 Robert Blvd. S.W., and 3530 South Nansemond Street was approved by the school board at its April 17 meeting.

The school board voted on the boundary change at its April 20 meeting. A split is inevitable when the proposed demographic, Leff said, was that for the first time in nearly 20 years, there will be a boundary change to accommodate the growth of the UI community.

Texas Ebola virus different from killer infection

AIDS (AP) — The Ebola virus that some experts fear could become a "second

secutive" sort of killer disease in the 1990s doesn't now threaten the United States, officials said

Tuesday. The virus does evoke theamba of a disease that killed hundreds of people in Africa and poisons virtually no one in the world, said

Dr. Anthony Fauci, director of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases.

"It's not that big of a deal," said Dr. Charles M. Rice of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases. "It's not going to cause a pandemic in the United States, nor is it going to be transmitted easily from person to person.

The virus, which was discovered in 1976 after an Ebola outbreak in Zaire, is now considered a "second tier" of threat, behind the much more deadly AIDS virus, Rice said.

Cowling pleads not guilty to Simpson Bronco chase

Michael Heiman

Associated Press

LOS ANGELES — O.J. Simpson co-star Warren Beatty was expected to testify Thursday in the murder trial of the former football star and actor. Beatty has said he plans to invoke his Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination.

Cowlings pleads Fifth on Simpson bronco chase

As the trial entered its 23rd day, Simpson's defense lawyer, Robert Shapiro, announced that Simpson's long-time friend, Dan Brown, would not testify. Brown was one of the key prosecution witnesses in the trial.

Cowling, a former University of Iowa student, was charged with lying to police about his involvement in the bronco chase that followed Simpson's arrest in 1994. Cowling is accused of perjury and obstruction of justice.

The defense team plans to argue that Cowling's testimony against Simpson was coerced by police.

Cowling is scheduled to be arraigned Thursday. He faces up to 20 years in prison if convicted.
A child of survivors reflects

Lea Haravon

Things my parents always told us: It is good to save money. In case of a catastrophe the bomb shelter. They have a history, a past, a future, some-thing worthwhile. When I got older I realized not all parents are the same. These kids have no past. They just have a future. They want to be safe and secure. They want to be someone. They want to be somebody. They want to have a world. They want to be people. This year, someone told me I am a 'child of survivors' and that there are books written about us. I bought one. I read. I discovered the Holocaust. I found out that my mom was a Holocaust survivor. I feel like I have a past. I feel like I have a future. I feel like I have a world. I feel like I have a future. I feel like I have a world.

Effect of government shutdown

To the Editor:

I am writing concerning the letter that made the news circulation on Sunday. The government shutdown of 1995 illustrated various facets of the basic equation of shutdowns: 0.95 = 1.00 - 0.05. Bulls win NBA-record 70-game win streak in Milwaukee

Chris Sheridan

MILWAUKEE — The Chicago Bulls stamped their place in NBA history Wednesday night by topping the Milwaukee Bucks with a 90-75 victory that extended the league's longest win streak to 70 games.

"We're just trying to do the same thing tonight that we've been doing all year," forward Scottie Pippen said.

The Bulls have now won 70 consecutive games, breaking the previous mark of 44 set by the 1971-72 Los Angeles Lakers.

"It's important to us as a team to get off to a good start every year, get a good rhythm going," said center Dennis Rodman, who had 18 points and 17 rebounds.

"It's important to have a good rhythm going early in the season, and we've been doing that," Rodman said. "We've been playing good basketball and we've been doing it all year long."

The Bulls' streak also tied the record held by the 1961-62 Boston Celtics.

"It's a great accomplishment for the team," said guard Pippen, who had 29 points and six rebounds.

"We've been on a roll all year, and we've been playing great basketball," Pippen said. "We've been playing good defense and we've been playing good offense."

CHICAGO — Steve Trachsel got his ninth career win and Lance Johnson his third save Tuesday night, leading the Chicago Cubs to a 7-5 victory over the New York Mets, who have the best record in baseball.

The Cubs improved to 13-3 against NL East opponents, leading the league with a .692 winning percentage, and Johnson got his third save in three chances, allowing only one hit in six innings.

Johnson, who closed out the 1994 season with 20 saves, was the only holdover from the 1995 Cubs, who finished in last place in the NL Central.

Cubs Manager Joe Roenicke gave Johnson the day off Sunday, saying he would need rest for the playoffs, but the right-hander said he would have been available had the Mets been in the playoffs.

"I would have gone out and done it today," Johnson said.

"I'm the type of guy who works hard," Johnson said. "I work on my mechanics and on my delivery and on my command."

Johnson has allowed only one run in 20 innings this season, with 13 strikeouts and three walks.

Gretzky dominates Toronto

Associated Press

TORONTO — Wayne Gretzky, making his first playoff appearance in three seasons, scored in all three of his first three games and helped the Los Angeles Kings to a 6-0 victory over the Toronto Maple Leafs on Tuesday night.

Leafs coach Roger Neilson was so impressed with Gretzky's play that he waived his threat to have him play just one game.

A last-minute call-up from junior hockey, Gretzky scored on a wrist shot off goalie Grant Fuhr a little more than a minute after joining the Kings.

Toronto head coach Pat Quinn said he was surprised by the speed and skill Gretzky displayed.

Gretzky's first goal, on a breakaway, was a yard high on Fuhr and came after teammates Lanny McDonald and Bob Probert had provided a screen.

Faulk was at his best during a breakaway and a power play.

He stopped Bure on a breakaway, knocked out his skating blade and scored on Fuhr on a breakaway later in the period.

The Kings' next goal came early in the third period, when King Clark Gillies was on a breakaway.

FBI seizes boxes from Mourning's home

Associated Press

WASHINGTON — The FBI searched Miami Heat star Alonzo Mourning's suburban Miami home Tuesday night after an employee said he saw the former Atlanta Hawk with a gun.

The employee, who asked not to be identified, said Mourning had been warned to stay away from the home of a former teammate.

Mourning, who is on trial for murder, has a history of firearms violations.

The FBI had been searching for a gun that Mourning and his attorney contend Mourning was not in a position to have.

Mourning's attorney, who represented him in the trial, said Mourning had been cleared of any wrongdoing.

FBI officials said they were searching for a .44-caliber revolver that Mourning said he never owned.

"Primary Colors," the political novel following the presidential primary campaigns that ended with Bill Clinton's 1992 victory, is the latest in a series of books that has generated considerable interest in the political world.

The book, written by the late John Edgar Wideman, is a true story of a political consultant who, in an effort to win the presidency, creates a character that is a combination of all the candidates he has worked with.

The story is told through a political consultant's eyes, as he tries to make the perfect candidate. The consultant, played by Jim Carrey, is a master of the political process and is able to manipulate the public's perceptions to his advantage.

As the consultant, Carrey is able to rewrite history and create a new image for the candidate. He uses his skills to create a new persona for the candidate, one that is more appealing to the voters.

The story is filled with political intrigue and drama, as the consultant tries to outmaneuver his rivals and secure his client's victory. The book is a must-read for anyone interested in politics and the behind-the-scenes world of campaign consulting.
