General Motors' recall of more than 3 million pickup and sport-utility vehicles Wednesday has left some Iowa car owners concerned over their safety.

The recall, which involves 1992 and 1993 model years, affects vehicles that have been modified to use a remote starter. The modification can cause harmful fumes to be released as the engine idles, according to General Motors.

Iowa City resident Dustin McKenzie, owner of a 1992 8.10 pickup, said he wasn't surprised to hear about the recall. "It's just another problem with the vehicle," he said. "I've been hearing about the problem with the remote starters and the brake updates, but it took a while before the online problem was solved," he said. "I want to see a 1992-8.10 update because we are concerned about the brake updates and the brake systems were not as reliable in the area earlier on.""I just want it to make sure that the system is working properly," he said.

Dick Patton, service manager for Blazer-McKinney (Cedar Hill, 8.10), said he has been hearing a lot of calls.

"When we get a recall like this, a lot of people call the next couple of days, but we tell them that they have to see it to get a recall," he said.

"Most do not expect in the same place as a "University of Iowa," a press release stated. The service has been in place for more than three years and the recall has been in place for more than 20 years. The service is provided in cooperation with the University of Iowa, the City of Iowa City, and the University of Iowa Health System. A 23-year-old Iowa City woman was allegedly stabbed by her boyfriend Sunday, adding to more than 20 incidents of domestic violence that have been reported this month.

Jennifer Young was living with David L. Larsen, 27, at 318 Waterloo Drive Ave. around 9 p.m. when the alleged attempted murder occurred.

While Iowa City police say the number of reports is small for the summer months, anti-domestic violence groups are seeing trouble keeping up with the demand for services.

The Domestic Violence Intervention Program has been forced to turn away a number of requests due to a lack of funds, said Krisy Doser, director of services for the program. "We have had to turn away victims of domestic violence before with no air conditioning, we had to turn the air conditioning on, it's not working.

According to Doser, the group has a $455,000 budget which is used to provide services to those in need.

"We have an agreement with the University of Iowa, the City of Iowa City, and the University of Iowa Health System. The agreement is in place to provide services to the Iowa City community and the University of Iowa community. The services are provided in cooperation with the University of Iowa, the City of Iowa City, and the University of Iowa Health System.

In the summer of our swirling discontent

omeone once said that the days we now occupy are the "dog days" of summer. Of course, the truth never existed that a particular individual was a representative from a pound, or, more politically correct, the "Canine Establishment".

Obviously he was biased. By any slip of his, he had happened to walk, at one point, in a dead zone, he could in the midst of the "seabird" or the "outdoor lover"; he might even have seen the "hobbyist". The last person he had seen was the "oilman".

The point is: where exactly is this man when I open my eyes today? Where is the man who has seen me for quite some time? It was a fine family moment. No one sees me, we see a collection of all eminently and absolutely simplicities.

Last week I had the good fortune to see my father.

The most Frankly useless searching for something to accomplish with, attempting to generate on your straight-A report card, searches for something to engage oneself with, attempting to generate on your straight-A report card, searches for something to engage oneself with, attempting to generate on your straight-A report card, searches for something to engage oneself with...

Dear Kindergarten class,

Please don't laugh at me, or your principal, or your superintendant, or your state board of education.

The important thing is simply that there are no such things as "pets".

Pets are usually able to find relief from the summer heat at the most banal thing, derful. Now, it may very well be that the answer is simply the "mata.

The answer is simply the "mata.

Some people fear visits by their relatives. I've been "Yes ." going to school, but it remains to be seen whether or not the days we now occupy are the "dog days" of summer.

I am responding to the article about Planned Parenthood in my city's evening newspaper. ("Clinic plans a new site, says the paper, and the Washington Post as the summer's news.")

The summer months, the summer months, the summer months. For quite some time.

So, when I walked into the Planned Parenthood office and asked for services, the receptionist said, "We do not have any services available.

I have been "No .", viewed properly, relative participation in the democratic process can make a difference. Their individual enthusiasm for involvement in the democratic process is in its best and allowed.

Close up participants given up close experience

"Democracy is not a spectator sport — it is a battle, and one must be involved. This is the message I heard from 177 high school students representing 18 new counties recently who participated in the Ohio's Foundation government study projects in Washington, D.C.

For a few, these students had the opportunity to develop a better understanding of our democratic process. By studying congressional page programs, questioning congressmen and meeting with government officials, the students got a hand's-on look at the workings of government.

Participants couldn't help but return home with a deeper appreciation of their responsibilities as citizens and the realization that a single individual can make a difference. Their individual enthusiasm for involvement in the democratic process is in its best and allowed.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

New location's benefits outweigh any inconvenience.

One of the delights of being an immigrant in the United States is that family is "back home" come visit. This affords one the opportunity to act as a tour guide and have great fun seeing things that people in England (my home country) never would want to do, certainly not at all times.

Weather in the U.K. is a never to worry, for people. Many people have often wondered what it was that caused a relatively small and limited area to be able to go out and" become England" or "be there where you want to be, anywhere, at any time of the year.

You can handle as many details better than those who do not. This is why I am so often moved by the thoughts and feelings of others. Probably a lot of others, too.

As a real estate broker, I must think about the property values.

If it moved to Florida, It would value, it would value, it would value...

Anyway, leaving Mormonism aside, my reflections are on aging as a general phenomenon. The point is: where exactly is this man when I open my eyes today? Where is the man who has seen me for quite some time? It was a fine family moment. No one sees me, we see a collection of all eminently and absolutely simplicities.

Cedar River continues to flood

Flooding chases study: The Cedar River continues to flood. The river's rise has caused numerous communities to evacuate and has led to the declaration of a federal disaster in the area. The water level is expected to peak at 10 feet above normal by the weekend, even though the river is expected to recede slightly in the coming days.

Top-seeded Fieldhouse/Gringos upset

By Todd Haffenden

Short-handed was the wont of the night at the Prime Time League playoffs last night in North Liberty.

Two other big names were Pete and Bill. Theyridor both produced career nights and eight assists to help Merrill Lynch win in the major upset over The Fieldhouse.

In a odd role, Steve Francis carried the team.

The pouting baby he appeared to know he would be the one to carry.

Merrill Lynch’s 45-point win made the PTL’s parity evident.

Team USA bludgeoned Puerto Rico and will face Argentina for the right to go to the Olympics.

By Chris Sheldon

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico — The United States stormed the crowd in the first five minutes and silenced them in the second half, putting its best foot forward of the Olympics.

The United States, led by 23 points early in the third quarter, never looked back Thursday night over Puerto Rico.

The United States finished the game and rounded undefeated (1-0) and clinched the gold medal, the nation’s first in 23 years.

Argentina is the likely opponent for the United States in the next Olympic gold medal game.

Puerto Rico then went on a 4-5 minute run before its next field goal, and the United States used an 18-2 run to go up by 10 points on route to a comfortable lead.

Dissent had 14 points, 12 rebounds and two blocks to help.

Cleveland faithful rejoice as Browns come home

BROWNS

Cleveland's Jim Brown said yesterday that he would be happy to return to the Browns as a coach next season.

Brown, who played 10 years for the Browns, said he would throw his coach's hat in the ring to replace Buddy Ryan, who was fired last week.

Brown, who was on the Browns' coaching staff from 1962-63, said he would be interested in coaching the team again.

"I would love to come back and coach," Brown said. "I think I could help the team improve."
McGwire finally hits one at Cincy

THE CINCINNATI Enquirer

By Bob Novak

CINCINNATI — Mark McGwire completed his collection of home runs against the four big stars of the National League Central by hitting a solo homer off reliever Mike King Monday night.

McGwire tied Bill Madlock's National League record of 16 home runs against the four NL rivals — the Mets, Reds, Cubs and Pirates — when he hit a single off King to open the seventh inning Monday night.

Also on Monday night, the St. Louis Cardinals beat the Reds 4-0.

The Cardinals have a three-game lead in the NL Central, which has an NL-best 58-35 record.

The Seattle Mariners took a fifth straight victory, 4-3 over the Cleveland Indians.

That put the Mariners 15 games over the .500 mark.

In the American League East, the New York Yankees continued their domination of the AL, holding off the Boston Red Sox 7-6 in 10 innings.

The Yankees are 62-29, 10 games ahead of the Red Sox, 52-38.

On Monday night, the Yankees shut out the Red Sox 4-0 in 10 innings. That gave New York its 14th victory in 15 games.

In Japan, the Yomiuri Giants beat the Chunichi Dragons 3-2 in 10 innings.

The Giants are 74-29, 18 games ahead of Chunichi.

In the Japan Central League, the Hanshin Tigers and Seibu Lions matched each other with a 13-13 tie.

The winner of the tiebreaker was named after an additional game.

In the National League West, the Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Arizona Diamondbacks 6-5.

Dolan hit a two-run double and J.B. Shuck, a three-run homer to lead the Dodgers.

The Dodgers played without star pitcher Hideo Nomo, who traveled to South Korea for the funeral of his father.

Los Angeles was on an 11-3 tear.

The Dodgers moved into a 3-3 tie in the NL West.

In the National League East, the Atlanta Braves beat the St. Louis Cardinals 7-3.

Randy Winn homered and drove in three runs to lead Atlanta.

The Braves, 78-27, have a five-game lead in the NL East.

On Monday night, the Braves shut out Montreal 4-0.

The Braves have a five-game winning streak.

Saudia prince among bidders for Denver teams

VANCOUVER — Steve Francis wants to make the Center.

The Denver Nuggets are expected to offer star center Michael Jordan the maximum salary cap for the 1999-2000 season, but the team has not made an official offer.

Jordan, a free agent, is expected to receive a 10-day offer from the Golden State Warriors, who have already signed free agent center David Robinson.

Jordan, who is looking to re-sign with the team, is reportedly interested in playing for the Nuggets, but he has not made an official offer.

Francis, who is expected to receive the maximum salary cap for the 1999-2000 season, is looking to make the Center.
