City to host Russians in democracy demo

Three Russian officials will visit Iowa City to learn more about the U.S.

By James Tedder
The Daily Iowan

Iowa City will host three Russian officials, beginning Thursday through June 23, as part of a program to demonstrate democracy at work.

The program is organized by the Council for International Visitors at the Iowa City Center for Russian, East European, and Eurasian Studies, under the auspices of the Library of Congress Nano Leadership Program.

The program is designed to be a "window," said Todd Robinson, the executive director of the international student organization.

The three visitors are Semyon Vladimirovich Lubkin, 31, the chief of the center's office in Moscow; Irina Abov, 34, the press officer for the Property Department of the Ministry of Education and Science of Russia, and Vasilyevich Labintsev, 38, the chief for the Museum and Library in the Murmansk region.

Oh say can you see ... the rockets' red gl-errors?

It's time to acknowledge that our nation's system of government is in disrepair. The recent events involving high-level officials raising large amounts of private money for political campaigns are just some of the many examples of the breakdown of our system. It's time for a comprehensive reform of our political system to restore trust and accountability.

Money for nothing & hits for free

Over the past two months, the music industry has become a series of pointed fingers and rhetorical attacks. The internal frictions of the record labels seem to have been brought to the surface by the backlash against the MP3 file-sharing services.

Pennies for Nickels

Pennies for Nickels, a band that is starting to make a name for itself in the local music scene, is a perfect example of the current state of the music industry. With their innovative blend of folk and rock, they have gained a loyal following of fans who are willing to pay for their music.

On the SPOT

Is it fair to download MP3s instead of paying musicians for their songs on CD?

I don't think it is fair to download MP3s instead of paying musicians for their songs on CD. Paying for music is a way to support the artists who create the music we enjoy. Downloading MP3s without paying the artists is essentially stealing from them.

Tower Place snags businesses

The combination retail space/parking ramp is currently under construction in January 2002.

By Sky Eken

A parking ramp currently under construction at Tower Place may be the future home of a new business after the Iowa City City Council approved an agreement on Wednesday.

The council approved a purchase of land on Market and Iowa Ave. from the Iowa City Main Street Business Manager Steve Alkire.

The council also called a hearing in order to discuss the sale of property to the Iowa City Board of Education.

"We're pretty amaz ing the property isn't even open yet, and we've had a lot of off ers," said Mayor Rick Beerheide.

All offers have been full-price offers, he added.

The purchase agreement made with Beerheide and Alkire is the first allowable offer to comply with a process agreed to relate to the park ing ramp on Market Ave. -- a new designation for businesses.

Beerheide informed the mayor that the downtown council business manager has not been contacted.

The council affirmed a motion on July 1 from 9:00 p.m. in closed chambers.

The meeting will address how much the city has spent on the project, he said. An agenda has been set to raise the minimum entrance fee for the property.

Korean summit opens amiably

The leaders of the two Koreas pledge to hold open discussions to settle their differences.

By Christopher Troxler

SEOUL, South Korea — On the first day of a summit meant to permanently resolve the long-running dispute over their shared peninsula, North Korea’s leader Kim Jong-un and South Korea’s new president Moon Jae-in said Thursday they would begin a process to settle their differences.

Meeting for the first time, the two leaders exchanged handshakes near an observation post on the demilitarized zone (DMZ), which has divided the two Koreas since the Korean War ended in 1953. Kim and Moon had met in 2007 when Kim, then vice president, was in South Korea to watch the World Cup.

“I am very glad to be meeting President Moon today,” Kim said.

The two leaders agreed to hold a meeting in the truce village of Panmunjom, on the DMZ, and to meet again in South Korea in late May.

“Let us not forget the sacrifice and suffering of the 1.2 million civilians who perished during the Korean War, and the 2.5 million South Koreans who still live in the demilitarized zone,” Moon said.

The two leaders also agreed to hold regular meetings at the summit level, and to form a joint committee to work on improving relations.

“Let us move forward from the day of Panmunjom to a new era of reunification,” Moon said.

Boston bullpen shut down Yankees

NEW YORK — Jason Verrill bounced into the upper deck of the New York Yankees dugout after giving the Red Sox their first shutout victory over the Yankees in the AL East. A 7-0 victory Tuesday night in front of two out of the six thousand when Hernan Simporto hit a solo shot was the final score, and after taking a 3-2 lead in the fifth inning, the Yankees didn't get into the upper left corner.

BRICK RANGERS

Jason Verrill, who was hitting just .121 with a split time of 2.9, was shut down by the Yankees Tuesday night. The Yankees' two-out rally in the sixth inning ended against the left-handed pitcher with three consecutive singles, giving the Rangers a first-inning 4-3 win over the Yankees.

Cubs 4, Mets 3

CHICAGO — Ryan Sandberg converted an inning rally to the third of the season with a ninth-inning walk, giving the Chicago Cubs a 4-3 win over the New York Mets Tuesday night.

Butch Carter of the out-court cutters cost him his job as Toronto’s head man.

TOBYGO (AP) – Praise for Toronto Raptors coach Butch Carter was a rarity in recent months. The general manager Glen Grunwald cited Carter for his work in turning around the team. But the ultimate was probably the pride the franchise can feel for the team’s first round win in the NBA’s march to the semi-finals.

"We have a great team, we have some great guys in our locker room, and our guys have been very patient and very tolerant of each other’s mistakes," Grunwald said.

Carter is a survivor and has been through the tough times with the club. But he has also enjoyed the ups and downs of the sport.

The game was not an easy one for Carter, but it was a momentous win for the Raptors.
