Board hashes out new boundaries

"It seemed to be more balanced and incorporated new ideas that were potentially in balance, as well as keeping existing neighborhoods together." - Pete Wallace, School Board member

Harkin: HUD must change rules on housing

Iowa City Senate School Board members decided last week to move forward with a new policy aimed at changing rules in regard to housing and the homeless. The decision came after several months of discussion and debate among Board members and the community. The new policy is expected to be approved at the Board's next meeting, scheduled for next month.

Franken faces formidable Leach

"I've tried to do my best to be independent and not expect too many new faculty members to step in to stop students from living in Pheasant Woods Mall. I think that's what you can expect as a professor." - Jim Leach, R-Iowa

Iraqi insurgents behead kidnapped South Korean

"We're really interested in a neighborhood school right now," said Tom Collar, a Forest Hill resident. The parents of the children who will be affected by the new boundaries were concerned with keeping their community together.

Small salary raises trouble faculty

"I don't want to talk about living near downtown Kirkwood," said Collar, who added that some of the seniors in his family are already living near the University of Iowa and would prefer to stay in the same neighborhood. The public forum to discuss the proposal will be held in the Sycamore Mall on Thursday, July 20.
BY JESSICA SEVSKA

A fisherman's van was also reported stolen. The fisherman's belongings were returned. A fisherman's van was also reported stolen. The fisherman's belongings were returned.

Newspaper A Daily Iowan, 22, of Iowa City, Iowa, was charged Tuesday with operating while intoxicated and obstructing an officer.

The Daily Iowan
Volume 118
Issue 18

Join us for Dinner on a Festival at Linn Gurney's

Semio-Clearance

Going on Now!

Students of ailing and vermin above are being targeted. Phone, Direct, Kangaroo, Denny's, Edward Jones, Bar & Grill.

Bar & Grill

For tickets call 335-1160 or 1-800-HANCHEER

IOWA SUMMER REP

Unleashed!

A Festival of ComEd by A.R. Gurney

The Dining Room

June 28, 29, 30, 31, July 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, July 17-31

How to reach us:
335-5794

We will also accept cash, personal cards, checks, and certificates.

See staff note above.

HURRY in for best selection*

Best of the Best. Always the Most Fun.
It's important not to feel like an ostrich, Wurzel said. "We have to change this. If we don't, our progress across the board will be stymied," he said. Huntington changed its income eligibility regulations in 1999, excluding an excess of all financial aid to students. The rule changes were intended to help the school meet its goal of serving students more by increasing enrollment, he said. Franker was less confident in the unpredictable nature of today's job market. He said. Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said.

Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said.

Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said. Franker was less confident in the unpredictable nature of today's job market. He said. Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said. Franker was less confident in the unpredictable nature of today's job market. He said. Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said. Franker was less confident in the unpredictable nature of today's job market. He said. Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said. Franker was less confident in the unpredictable nature of today's job market. He said. Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said.

Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said. Franker was less confident in the unpredictable nature of today's job market. He said. Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said.

Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said.

Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said. Franker was less confident in the unpredictable nature of today's job market. He said. Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said.

Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said. Franker was less confident in the unpredictable nature of today's job market. He said. Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said.

Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said. Franker was less confident in the unpredictable nature of today's job market. He said. Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said.

Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said. Franker was less confident in the unpredictable nature of today's job market. He said. Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said. Franker was less confident in the unpredictable nature of today's job market. He said. Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said. Franker was less confident in the unpredictable nature of today's job market. He said. Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said.

Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said. Franker was less confident in the unpredictable nature of today's job market. He said. Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said. Franker was less confident in the unpredictable nature of today's job market. He said. Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said. Franker was less confident in the unpredictable nature of today's job market. He said. Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said.

Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said.

Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said.

Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said. Franker was less confident in the unpredictable nature of today's job market. He said. Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said. Franker was less confident in the unpredictable nature of today's job market. He said. Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said. Franker was less confident in the unpredictable nature of today's job market. He said. Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said.

Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said. Franker was less confident in the unpredictable nature of today's job market. He said. Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said. Franker was less confident in the unpredictable nature of today's job market. He said. Professor David Redlawsk did not have any conflicts to report, Hufstedler said. Weicher said.
Iraq handover may be a fatal mistake

As the June 30 Sovereignty-handover date looms, Iraq Prime Minister Nouri al-Maliki has said that his government is considering imposing martial law. He has made a pitch for international aid, in the form of troops, money, and weapons, to prop up the embattled Iraqi government. Members of the international community, including the United States and Britain, have welcomed the offer. Yet both the Iraqi and U.S. governments must recognize that Iraq is a failed state. We can't afford to re-fight the battle of Iraq, because we can't afford to lose.

No longer can we afford to put the human crisis in Iraq, the true war on terror, on the back burner.

e It is time for the U.S. to re-think its strategy.

We believe that a true serving of the interests of Iraq and its people will mean a fundamental shift in policy. We can't afford to fight this war again.

It is time for the U.S. to re-think its strategy.

We believe that a true serving of the interests of Iraq and its people will mean a fundamental shift in policy. We can't afford to fight this war again.

It is time for the U.S. to re-think its strategy.

We believe that a true serving of the interests of Iraq and its people will mean a fundamental shift in policy. We can't afford to fight this war again.
A local artist, Justine Zimmer, brings a sense of femininity to her metal sculptures. She is known for creating Victorian-era dresses that seem to lighten as air, allowing the viewer to see her unique talent making the solid form delicately surreal.

By ALISSA VAN WINKLE

For years, Justine Zimmer has been a familiar face on the Iowa City scene. She is a metalsmith and sculptor, known for her current series of dresses. Her work, which is reminiscent of the garden of Eden, is inspired by the movement of the actual natural phenomenon. She said she was interested in the tornado, and to see her work, I would have to look at the sky.

"Zimmer is a metal artist who brings femininity to a new level by using this macabre technique and turning it into something soft and feminine," said Melanie Schule, owner of Desert Rose.

Oakcrest to exercise class to physically fit.

Justine Zimmer adjusts one of the two dresses she has on display at Galleries Downtown. The terminal student received her M.F.A. in 1987. Directly after receiving her metalsmith and sculptor degree, she moved to the Pedestrian Mall as part of the Iowa City Public Art Project.

ALISSA VAN WINKLE

After receiving her M.F.A. in metalsmithing and jewelry design from the University of Cincinnati four years ago, she started her own studio. She said she was interested in the movement of the actual natural phenomenon. She said she was interested in the tornado, and to see her work, I would have to look at the sky.

"Zimmer is an artist who brings femininity to a new level by using this macabre technique and turning it into something soft and feminine," said Melanie Schule, owner of Desert Rose.

"I take femininity to a new level by using this macabre technique and turning it into something soft and feminine," said Melanie Schule, owner of Desert Rose.

"Justine Zimmer, owner of Desert Rose, said her work is so refined and thoughtful. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said.

"Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said.

"Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said.

"Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said.

"Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said.

"Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said.

"Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said. "Her work is so sensual and brings a sense of movement to her work," Schule said.
The Daily Break

Rise and shine with

calendar

- The Coloradog by John Carl Fry
  1-800-258-0690
- The Dreamer, by Bernard Berenson
  7 p.m., Bass
- All-White Music Camp Percussion
  One Concert, 9 p.m., Clay Concert Hall

quote of the day

Clinton was a charmer, whereas Bush is just scary.
- Pat Hanks, a Dublin, Ireland, psychotherapist who won a buyout of a Bill Clinton's new book, My Life.

public access schedule

- UTV schedule
  6:30 a.m. - Closing the Academic Center
  6:45 a.m. - Transfer Credit Center
  9:00 a.m. - Transfer Credit Center
  10:00 a.m. - Academic Gender
  10:30 a.m. - U.S.-Mexico Border
  11:00 a.m. - U.S.-Mexico Border
  12:00 p.m. - Academic Gender
  1:00 p.m. - U.S.-Mexico Border
  2:00 p.m. - Academic Gender
  3:00 p.m. - U.S.-Mexico Border
  4:00 p.m. - Academic Gender
  5:00 p.m. - U.S.-Mexico Border

horoscopes

Wednesday, June 23, 2004

by Eugene Lott

ARIES (March 21-April 19): There will be a lot on the line at work. Your employees and associates must see you as someone whom anyone can do, but that won't be good enough if you aren't 100 percent on top of your game.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): You may need to make some decisions that have been off your plate for a while. Take a hard look at the new strategies that are available and decide which one is best for you.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21): Personal problems will develop if you haven't been honest about the way you feel. Think about it carefully, because changes you consider truthful may be the best thing to do.

CANCER (June 22-July 22): Even though you don't reload, this is a perfect day to eliminate some of the bad things in your life. New relationships and new roles will be added.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Your friends and family will be the most important to you. Stay in touch with them and you'll be happy.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Someone you care about will have personal issues that will hang over your head. Try to be reasonable, and don't get frustrated.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Something won't measure up today. You may not know exactly what your problems are, but you're doing it. mavery much and don't get frustrated.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): You'll make a conscious effort to get your hands off the ground. Your competitive nature will enable you to surpass what you've already worked for. You're on the right track.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): You really need to take care of your house and make your life a success. Money is not enough for the job you're doing.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): You don't hold back — the world is your oyster, and now you have the tools to make it the center of the universe. Money can be much, deep, bureaucrat, and partnerships developed.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Take a better look at your financial situation, and your plans about the week. The universe is not always on your side, so take a hard look and don't get frustrated.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): If you have a goal to achieve, you can't let someone else get in your way. You can't let it happen.

news you need to know

Friday — (6-week session) Withdrawal of registration for classes
Saturday — (6-week session) Last day to drop classes
Sunday — (6-week session) Withdrawal of registration for classes

don't miss the following

- "Meet Your Meat"
- "How to Buy Oysters"
- "What City's Hit Bands of the '80s Built-In Game System to Boast"
Northern Iowa's Sarah Lasseu pulls down a rebound during the second half of a nine-point victory over Central Illinois-Hy-Vee on Tuesday night at the Midwestern University Community Center.

Graham sets sights on guard position

Graham

Continued from Page 13

Ames — As the Wildcats' season winds down, Northern Iowa is no different. Head coach Seth Reiner said the team is focused on finishing the season strong. He said this season has been a challenge for his team, but they are still looking forward to the upcoming matchup against Ohio University.

Reiner finished as a Hawkeye

BY JON SARGE/staff writer

EAGLE, Colo. — NBA star Kobe Bryant returned to court Thursday for the conclusion of a probation hearing into the sexual history of the woman accusing him of rape. The defense was not in court this morning, but the prosecution was.

History of Bryant's accuser weighed

BY KEVIN KASTENS/staff writer

The Bedford, Texas, native ended his breakout season, averaging 18.5 points per game, with 115 assists. He was named Big 12 Player of the Year and one of the 25 best players in the country, according to the Associated Press.

Alford said Reiner has a chance to be a "very good player" and that the team "that gives him a chance will have what he can do." He said Reiner "has a lot of potential and can be a great player. If he doesn't play to his potential, he can be a great player."
CALL FOR INFORMATION:
(319) 335-5715
www.barkerapartments.com

A Photo is Worth A Thousand Words
SELL YOUR CAR
30 DAYS FOR $40

Call our office to set up a time that is convenient for you to bring your car by to be photographed.
Your ad will run for 30 days - for $40
Deadline: 2 days prior to run date desired
For more information contact:
The Daily Iowan Classified Dept.
319-335-5784 or 335-5785

www.barkerapartments.com
Reiner’s redshirt case denied

BY DOUG FERGUSON

The Associated Press

Iowa recruit Jared Reiner’s appeal for a fifth year of college eligibility was denied by the NCAA on Monday.

“I'm disappointed by the NCAA’s decision on my eligibility,” Reiner said in a statement. “I've worked my entire life to be able to compete at the highest level of college sports. I'm going to stay focused on this season and continue to put in the work."

Reiner, who starred at Iowa City West, averaged 10.9 points and 7.2 rebounds per game during the 2003-04 season. He finished his career with 79 starts, tallying 310 points and 267 rebounds.

Reiner led the Big Ten in assists and free-throw percentage among players with 20 or more minutes played. He also ranked first in the conference in three-point percentage.

Reiner was a Freshman All-Big Ten selection in 2003-04, and a sophomore All-Big Ten selection in 2004.

It’s not about fair, it’s about the lowest score

BY DOUG FERGUSON

The Associated Press

Serena Williams was denied a fifth year of college eligibility by the NCAA on Monday.

Williams, a 28-year-old senior at the University of Illinois, had been ruled eligible to play for the 2003-04 season.

But the NCAA’s decision was overturned on appeal, meaning Williams will not be able to play for the Hawkeyes next season.

The NCAA’s appeal panel said Williams had used an amateur status to gain an advantage.

Williams, who won two NCAA championships with the Hawkeyes in 2001 and 2002, had requested the fifth year of eligibility.

Williams is now seeking a sixth year of eligibility.

Williams’ appeal for a sixth year of eligibility was denied by the NCAA on Monday.

Williams had averaged 13.8 points and 7.2 rebounds per game during her four seasons at Iowa.

She was a three-time All-Big Ten selection and a two-time All-American.

Williams’ case is now expected to be heard by the NCAA’s appeals committee.

Karen L. Norton of the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and Athletics at the University of Iowa, will represent Williams in the appeal.

The NCAA’s decision was based on the fact that Williams had already received her bachelor’s degree.

Williams had transferred from the University of Illinois to Iowa in 2002.

It’s not about fair, it’s about the lowest score

BY DOUG FERGUSON

The Associated Press

Serena Williams was denied a fifth year of college eligibility by the NCAA on Monday.

Williams, a 28-year-old senior at the University of Illinois, had been ruled eligible to play for the 2003-04 season.

But the NCAA’s decision was overturned on appeal, meaning Williams will not be able to play for the Hawkeyes next season.

The NCAA’s appeal panel said Williams had used an amateur status to gain an advantage.

Williams, who won two NCAA championships with the Hawkeyes in 2001 and 2002, had requested the fifth year of eligibility.

Williams’ appeal for a sixth year of eligibility was denied by the NCAA on Monday.

Williams is now seeking a sixth year of eligibility.

Williams’ case is now expected to be heard by the NCAA’s appeals committee.

Karen L. Norton of the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and Athletics at the University of Iowa, will represent Williams in the appeal.

The NCAA’s decision was based on the fact that Williams had already received her bachelor’s degree.

Williams had transferred from the University of Illinois to Iowa in 2002.

It’s not about fair, it’s about the lowest score

BY KEVIN BEATCH

The Associated Press

Iowa recruit Jared Reiner’s appeal for a fifth year of college eligibility was denied by the NCAA on Monday.

“I'm disappointed by the NCAA’s decision on my eligibility,” Reiner said in a statement. “I've worked my entire life to be able to compete at the highest level of college sports. I'm going to stay focused on this season and continue to put in the work."

Reiner, who starred at Iowa City West, averaged 10.9 points and 7.2 rebounds per game during the 2003-04 season. He finished his career with 79 starts, tallying 310 points and 267 rebounds.

Reiner led the Big Ten in assists and free-throw percentage among players with 20 or more minutes played. He also ranked first in the conference in three-point percentage.

Reiner was a Freshman All-Big Ten selection in 2003-04, and a sophomore All-Big Ten selection in 2004.

It’s not about fair, it’s about the lowest score

BY DOUG FERGUSON

The Associated Press

Serena Williams was denied a fifth year of college eligibility by the NCAA on Monday.

Williams, a 28-year-old senior at the University of Illinois, had been ruled eligible to play for the 2003-04 season.

But the NCAA’s decision was overturned on appeal, meaning Williams will not be able to play for the Hawkeyes next season.

The NCAA’s appeal panel said Williams had used an amateur status to gain an advantage.

Williams, who won two NCAA championships with the Hawkeyes in 2001 and 2002, had requested the fifth year of eligibility.

Williams’ appeal for a sixth year of eligibility was denied by the NCAA on Monday.

Williams is now seeking a sixth year of eligibility.

Williams’ case is now expected to be heard by the NCAA’s appeals committee.

Karen L. Norton of the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and Athletics at the University of Iowa, will represent Williams in the appeal.

The NCAA’s decision was based on the fact that Williams had already received her bachelor’s degree.

Williams had transferred from the University of Illinois to Iowa in 2002.

It’s not about fair, it’s about the lowest score

BY KEVIN BEATCH

The Associated Press

Iowa recruit Jared Reiner’s appeal for a fifth year of college eligibility was denied by the NCAA on Monday.

“I'm disappointed by the NCAA’s decision on my eligibility,” Reiner said in a statement. “I've worked my entire life to be able to compete at the highest level of college sports. I'm going to stay focused on this season and continue to put in the work."

Reiner, who starred at Iowa City West, averaged 10.9 points and 7.2 rebounds per game during the 2003-04 season. He finished his career with 79 starts, tallying 310 points and 267 rebounds.

Reiner led the Big Ten in assists and free-throw percentage among players with 20 or more minutes played. He also ranked first in the conference in three-point percentage.

Reiner was a Freshman All-Big Ten selection in 2003-04, and a sophomore All-Big Ten selection in 2004.

It’s not about fair, it’s about the lowest score

BY DOUG FERGUSON

The Associated Press

Serena Williams was denied a fifth year of college eligibility by the NCAA on Monday.

Williams, a 28-year-old senior at the University of Illinois, had been ruled eligible to play for the 2003-04 season.

But the NCAA’s decision was overturned on appeal, meaning Williams will not be able to play for the Hawkeyes next season.

The NCAA’s appeal panel said Williams had used an amateur status to gain an advantage.

Williams, who won two NCAA championships with the Hawkeyes in 2001 and 2002, had requested the fifth year of eligibility.

Williams’ appeal for a sixth year of eligibility was denied by the NCAA on Monday.

Williams is now seeking a sixth year of eligibility.

Williams’ case is now expected to be heard by the NCAA’s appeals committee.

Karen L. Norton of the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and Athletics at the University of Iowa, will represent Williams in the appeal.

The NCAA’s decision was based on the fact that Williams had already received her bachelor’s degree.

Williams had transferred from the University of Illinois to Iowa in 2002.

It’s not about fair, it’s about the lowest score

BY DOUG FERGUSON

The Associated Press

Serena Williams was denied a fifth year of college eligibility by the NCAA on Monday.

Williams, a 28-year-old senior at the University of Illinois, had been ruled eligible to play for the 2003-04 season.

But the NCAA’s decision was overturned on appeal, meaning Williams will not be able to play for the Hawkeyes next season.

The NCAA’s appeal panel said Williams had used an amateur status to gain an advantage.

Williams, who won two NCAA championships with the Hawkeyes in 2001 and 2002, had requested the fifth year of eligibility.

Williams’ appeal for a sixth year of eligibility was denied by the NCAA on Monday.

Williams is now seeking a sixth year of eligibility.

Williams’ case is now expected to be heard by the NCAA’s appeals committee.

Karen L. Norton of the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and Athletics at the University of Iowa, will represent Williams in the appeal.

The NCAA’s decision was based on the fact that Williams had already received her bachelor’s degree.

Williams had transferred from the University of Illinois to Iowa in 2002.