Both congressional candidates for District 2 have said the farm bill is important to farming states.

Farm bill's future unclear

By CASSIDY RILEY
Cassidy.Riley@uiowa.edu

Officials in agricultural states such as Iowa are calling for the passage of the farm bill, and the outcome of Tuesday's election could decide its fate.

Steve Sotelo walks among his cattle at his farm on Sunday. Officials in agricultural states such as Iowa are calling for the passage of the farm bill: (The Daily Iowan/Collin Mitchell)

When its last session adjourned, Congress had not approved the 2012 farm bill, and since then, representatives have been calling for it to pass before the end of the year.

The farm bill is designed to secure a food supply for the country by providing subsidies for crop farmers. The bill also contains other programs such as food stamps and school-lunch programs.

Both Rep. Dave Loebsack, D-Iowa, and challenger John L. G. Riley II have called for the bill to pass. Loebsack had co-sponsored the bill in Congress and is one of its leading advocates.

The University of Iowa said it would begin offering an online option for dropping and adding classes during the first five days of classes starting spring semester.

"We're trying to react to the desires of the students," said Thomas Bruckschwaiger, a UI senior associate registrar.

He noted such issues as students having to come to office hours and not freeing up space in classes quickly enough as concerns with the current system of adding and dropping classes.

The UI uses a paper system for students to add or drop courses. Students must have a signature from their course professor and academic adviser with the new system, students can drop or add a course in the first five days of classes without either of those requirements.

The University of Northern Iowa and Iowa State University have both had online processes in place for several years. UNI allows students to drop or add courses within the first seven days of classes, and ISU allows students to drop or add courses the first five days of classes. (Students love it," said Laura Dearing, the Iowa State registrar. "I hope to expand it beyond the fifth day (drop/add deadline) one day."

UNI also has seen positive feedback from their online system, something that has been in place for a few decades.

"It has been a long time (since the

UI will change drop/add

By LAUREN COFFEY
lauren-coffey@uiowa.edu

The University of Iowa will begin offering an online option for dropping and adding classes during the first five days of classes starting spring semester.

"We're trying to react to the desires of the students," said Thomas Bruckschwaiger, a UI senior associate registrar.

He noted such issues as students having to come to office hours and not freeing up space in classes quickly enough as concerns with the current system of adding and dropping classes.

The UI uses a paper system for students to add or drop courses. Students must have a signature from their course professor and academic adviser. With the new system, students can drop or add a course in the first five days of classes without either of those requirements.

The University of Northern Iowa and Iowa State University have both had online processes in place for several years. UNI allows students to drop or add courses within the first seven days of classes, and ISU allows students to drop or add courses the first five days of classes. (Students love it," said Laura Dearing, the Iowa State registrar. "I hope to expand it beyond the fifth day (drop/add deadline) one day."

UNI also has seen positive feedback from their online system, something that has been in place for a few decades.

"It has been a long time (since the

Hamburg's coffee-bean poll closes

By ERIC CLARK
eric.clark@uiowa.edu

Hamburg Inn's Coffee Bean Caucus came to an end on Sunday when votes for the 2nd Congressional District and the presidential elections were tallied.

The unscientific Hamburg Inn coffee-bean poll system allows customers to cast their votes after the Republican and Democratic National Conventions as an entertaining way to poll customers' opinions.

The winner of the caucus was "vinegar," which represented a vote for Mitt Romney in a landslide, 6,001 to 1,741. The second runner-up was "coffee-bean," which represented a vote for Paul Ryan. "Coffee-bean" edged out Romney 3,310 to 2,791.

The winter season provides the perfect opportunity to vote in this enjoyable activity.

"It was a fun, public-art event that would add a plop of color to downtown Iowa City," said Ritu Jain, the co-head of special events for the Iowa City Downtown District.

"I think it will help bring people downtown. People are going to want to see this.""Knitters from all over the area volunteered their needles and time to the project. "I did it while I was watching football on the weekends," said Iowa City resident Judy Noman. "I just want people to smile when they go by." If people do smile, they will be smiling for a while. Pine was made for 115 trees to be draped throughout downtown. Pine is a

Closely knit trees for downtown

By BRITTANIE JETT
brittanie.jett@uiowa.edu

A bomb went off in Iowa City: A "knitting bomb," that is.

"Knit-bombing has been going on all over the world," said Jain. "It was so fun." Over 130 downtown trees were draped with knit art last weekend, creating a fun, public-art event that would add a plop of color to downtown Iowa City. The "tree hugger" concept in its first year. The brainchild of special events co-heads Jain and Mary Schrup, "tree hugger" is the creation of special events co-heads Jain and Mary Schrup. "Knit-bombing was started in 2007 by a group of local knitters. Each piece is unique and fashioned specifically for each tree. "A bomb went off in Iowa City: A "knitting bomb," that is. Knit-bombing has been going on all over the world, and we thought that would be a great project for Iowa City," said Rita Jan, the co-head of special events for the Iowa City Downtown District. Tree Huggers is a public-art project in the first year. The brainchild of special events co-heads Jain and Schrup, the tree scarves are meant to bring the community together and to add a pop of color to a normally dreary season. The Tree Huggers were installed on trees throughout the city on Sunday afternoon. "We just thought this would be a fun, public-art event that would bring the community together," Schrup said. "I think it will help bring people downtown. People are going to want to see this." Knitters from all over the area volunteered their needles and time to the project. "I did it while I was watching football on the weekends," said Iowa City resident Judy Noman. "I just want people to smile when they go by." If people do smile, they will be smiling for a while. Pine was made for 115 trees to be draped throughout downtown. Pine is a
Felon status to dog ex-student

Branden Plummer was charged after assaulting Iowa City Sgt. Brian Krei on Nov. 18, 2011,

By JAY BAPPERT

A former University of Iowa student will hear a jury decide his fate today and likely face a criminal sentence if convicted of first-degree assault.

Branden Plummer, 23, was charged with first-degree assault in connection with an incident that occurred in a parking lot near the University of Iowa Hospital and Clinics on Nov. 18, 2011. He is accused of punching Sergeant Brian Krei in the head.

The trial is scheduled to begin Monday.
The daily iowan • iowa city, iowa • Monday, november 5, 2012 | 3A

FARM BILL CONTINUED FROM PAGE 2A

Archae running for Congress in Iowa’s 2nd Congressional District — have made statements about the importance of the bill. However, many other states are more likely to be concerned about the bill because they know it gives the Democrats an issue they can run on.

“Not having the farm bill is part of the puzzle,” he said. “The final exams were canceled, the free market equation as far as planning is concerned, the free market takes care of the environment and food programs.”

However, even farmers in not only the Midwest but also Johnson County have disagreements over the bill.

Local crop farmer Kurt Swenka, a local crop farmer, said it is not surprising for farmers to have disagreements over the bill. “Relatively speaking, it’s probably local farmers,” he said. “Farmers are trying to plan for next year, and they don’t know if they will have government subsidies to help them.”

“This is a big hole in the equation as far as planning is concerned,” he said. “The final exams were canceled, the free market takes care of the environment and food programs.”

Yet, he said, the reason the bill is being held up in the House is because House Republicans who are concerned about ever-sapping portions of it are determined to hold up the bill for as long as possible.

Reps. Ron Johnson and Mike Johnson, both of Minnesota, are concerned about the farm bill because it provides subsidies to farmers, which they say are not needed.

“I want to see a lot of changes before I vote for it,” Johnson said.

The farm bill covers many programs related to not only agriculture but also the environment and food programs.

The farm bill covers many programs related to not only agriculture but also the environment and food programs.

The farm bill covers many programs related to not only agriculture but also the environment and food programs.

The farm bill covers many programs related to not only agriculture but also the environment and food programs.

The farm bill covers many programs related to not only agriculture but also the environment and food programs.

The farm bill covers many programs related to not only agriculture but also the environment and food programs.

The farm bill covers many programs related to not only agriculture but also the environment and food programs.
The Daily Iowan

Don't poll back FEMA

By Katie Kuntz

On Oct., Hurricane Sandy struck the Eastern seaboard, including New York, New Jersey, and other areas, damaging millions of homes with winds that stretched for 100 miles. No state should be expected to rebuild itself after a natural disaster of this magnitude. Approximately 65,000 people had been evacuated from their homes to around $12 million had been pledged to assist victims. FEMA is working with the Red Cross to provide expanded assistance and prepare its most vulnerable populations for the next major crisis. The agency faces some of the most daunting challenges ever seen in the history of the Federal Emergency Management Agency or in any of the natural disasters. FEMA leader, the choice you make for president could save thousands of lives. The partisan divide is an unfortunate reality of politics that demands urgent attention. The choices we make at the ballot box in November and beyond can mean the difference between life and death. It is critical to understand the issues at stake, the choice needed at the center stage of presidential politics. The economy is not the only issue in 2012.

Voters have been running, running, running when it comes to vote for... It is important to make an informed decision on what to get. Should it be Rom-... Voting in Iowa is not the same as voting in any other state. The third party will be just as hard. Actully... The economy is not the only issue in 2012.

Iowa's economy is the third largest in the country. Iowa has been praised by many as one of the most prosperous states in the country. Iowa is the home of the Iowa Hawkeyes, the number one, Iowa Hawkeyes. The economy is not the only issue in 2012.

Iowa City before 2008 know what to do with the economy. It is only one of the many responsibilities that stretch for 900 miles. FEMA has expanded assistance, and more assistance, and more assistance, and more assistance... But not all agree, all the time. 2 percent might not be a way out... Instead of focusing on the economy. being elected, being elected, being elected... The economy is not the only issue in 2012.

Iowa is the home of the Iowa Hawkeyes, the number one, Iowa Hawkeyes. The economy is not the only issue in 2012.

Iowa City before 2008 know what to do with the economy. It is only one of the many responsibilities that stretch for 900 miles. FEMA has expanded assistance, and more assistance, and more assistance, and more assistance... But not all agree, all the time. 2 percent might not be a way out... Instead of focusing on the economy. being elected, being elected, being elected... The economy is not the only issue in 2012.

Iowa is the home of the Iowa Hawkeyes, the number one, Iowa Hawkeyes. The economy is not the only issue in 2012.

Iowa City before 2008 know what to do with the economy. It is only one of the many responsibilities that stretch for 900 miles. FEMA has expanded assistance, and more assistance, and more assistance, and more assistance... But not all agree, all the time. 2 percent might not be a way out... Instead of focusing on the economy. being elected, being elected, being elected... The economy is not the only issue in 2012.

Iowa is the home of the Iowa Hawkeyes, the number one, Iowa Hawkeyes. The economy is not the only issue in 2012.

Iowa City before 2008 know what to do with the economy. It is only one of the many responsibilities that stretch for 900 miles. FEMA has expanded assistance, and more assistance, and more assistance, and more assistance... But not all agree, all the time. 2 percent might not be a way out... Instead of focusing on the economy. being elected, being elected, being elected... The economy is not the only issue in 2012.

Iowa is the home of the Iowa Hawkeyes, the number one, Iowa Hawkeyes. The economy is not the only issue in 2012.

Iowa City before 2008 know what to do with the economy. It is only one of the many responsibilities that stretch for 900 miles. FEMA has expanded assistance, and more assistance, and more assistance, and more assistance... But not all agree, all the time. 2 percent might not be a way out... Instead of focusing on the economy. being elected, being elected, being elected... The economy is not the only issue in 2012.

Iowa is the home of the Iowa Hawkeyes, the number one, Iowa Hawkeyes. The economy is not the only issue in 2012.

Iowa City before 2008 know what to do with the economy. It is only one of the many responsibilities that stretch for 900 miles. FEMA has expanded assistance, and more assistance, and more assistance, and more assistance... But not all agree, all the time. 2 percent might not be a way out... Instead of focusing on the economy. being elected, being elected, being elected... The economy is not the only issue in 2012.

Iowa is the home of the Iowa Hawkeyes, the number one, Iowa Hawkeyes. The economy is not the only issue in 2012.

Iowa City before 2008 know what to do with the economy. It is only one of the many responsibilities that stretch for 900 miles. FEMA has expanded assistance, and more assistance, and more assistance, and more assistance... But not all agree, all the time. 2 percent might not be a way out... Instead of focusing on the economy. being elected, being elected, being elected... The economy is not the only issue in 2012.

Iowa is the home of the Iowa Hawkeyes, the number one, Iowa Hawkeyes. The economy is not the only issue in 2012.

Iowa City before 2008 know what to do with the economy. It is only one of the many responsibilities that stretch for 900 miles. FEMA has expanded assistance, and more assistance, and more assistance, and more assistance... But not all agree, all the time. 2 percent might not be a way out... Instead of focusing on the economy. being elected, being elected, being elected... The economy is not the only issue in 2012.

Iowa is the home of the Iowa Hawkeyes, the number one, Iowa Hawkeyes. The economy is not the only issue in 2012.

Iowa City before 2008 know what to do with the economy. It is only one of the many responsibilities that stretch for 900 miles. FEMA has expanded assistance, and more assistance, and more assistance, and more assistance... But not all agree, all the time. 2 percent might not be a way out... Instead of focusing on the economy. being elected, being elected, being elected... The economy is not the only issue in 2012.

Iowa is the home of the Iowa Hawkeyes, the number one, Iowa Hawkeyes. The economy is not the only issue in 2012.
The Downtown District partnered with local Home Ec. Workshop to bring the yarn to the knitters. Total Tree Care sponsored the project. Originally, Total Tree Care pledged enough money to cover all the costs — but when the enthusiastic response grew so large, trees had to be added, the extra cost came out of the special-events budget. In total, the art project cost roughly $3,000.

“We had more knitters than we had trees,” Jain said.

In fact, the response was so large it reached outside of Iowa City.

“We had people from all over the state contact us wanting to participate,” said Karen Kubby, the president of the Board of Directors of the Downtown District. “We have someone from [the state of] Washington who is going to send us one.”

Through Home Ec. Workshop, each knitter was given the same color of yarn. They were also assigned a tree and told its measurements.

“They gave us a specific tree so we knew exactly how many stitches to put on and how long it had to be, but then we were free to just do the color in whatever combination we wanted to,” said Nora Roy, a self-proclaimed “unstoppable knitter” from Iowa City. “All we had to do was provide our own needles and do the knitting.”

The city will allow the Tree Huggers to remain until the end of February.

Kubby agreed that Sunday was just the beginning for the project.

“I suspect some of the knitters who did some of the trees downtown and on the North Side are going to do it in front of their homes and do it in their neighborhoods,” she said. “They’re going to continue. I think this is the beginning.”

Sampradaya Dance Troupe performs its piece “Navras in Ramayan” during Diwali in the IMU on Nov. 3. The event was organized by the Indian Student Alliance. (The Daily Iowan/Sumei Chen)

TREEHUGGERS CONTINUED FROM 1A
Game Recap

INDIANA 24, IOWA 21

FIRST QUARTER
Iowa — Martin-Manley 24-yard pass from Vandenberg (Meyer kick), 7:20
Iowa — Kirksey 18-yard interception return (Meyer kick), 7:08
Indiana — Ewald 45-yard field goal, 3:27

SECOND QUARTER
Indiana — Latimer 15-yard pass from Coffman (Ewald kick), 0:47

THIRD QUARTER
Indiana — Latimer 6-yard pass from Coffman (Ewald kick), 7:28

FOURTH QUARTER
Iowa — Bullock 4-yard run (Meyer kick), 12:17
Indiana — Latimer 30-yard pass from Coffman (Ewald kick), 10:58

RUSHING
Indiana: Houston 18-52, Roberts 9-9, Sudfeld 3-6.

PASSING
Iowa: Vandenberg 21-34-249-1-1.
Indiana: Coffman 21-33-315-3-0, Sudfeld 10-16-91-0-1.

RECEIVING
Iowa: Martin-Manley 7-131, Davis 5-57, Fiedorowicz 3-25, Bullock 3-24.

BY THE NUMBERS
14 — the last time Iowa was below .500
1,410 — yards allowed by the Hawkeyes in their last three games
2007 — Big Ten players who have thrown more touchdown passes than James Vandenberg

INDIVIDUAL STATS

BREAKDOWN

BOX SCORE

HOOSIER DADDY?

QUOTED

I thought we played hard enough. But we’ve got to play cleaner to expect to win.”
— head coach Kirk Ferentz

“The seniors on this team, we’ve got three, possibly four more chances to play in the Black and Gold ever. So we’re going to take it one game at a time and throw as many punches as we can.”
— Quarterback James Vandenberg
Game Recap

Indiana 24  Iowa 21

Indiana fans celebrate at Memorial Stadium in Bloomington on Nov. 3. The Hawkeyes jumped out to a quick 14-0 lead against Indiana but couldn’t sustain that momentum. The Hoosiers racked up more than 400 passing yards and knocked Iowa below .500 for the first time in five years. In order to qualify for a postseason game, the Hawkeyes will need to beat Purdue and then either Michigan or Nebraska.

Key Plays

• Iowa led, 14-10, when it faced third down on the Indiana 12-yard line. Quarterback James Vandenberg threw a back-shoulder fade to Jordan Cotton but didn’t quite get the ball out to the sideline. An Indiana cornerback made a twisting interception, denying Iowa the chance to kick a field goal. Those 3 points ended up being the margin of victory.

• Just three plays later, Hoosier quarterback Cam Coffman escaped a sack and rolled out. Iowa cornerback Greg Castillo ran up to make a tackle, abandoning his pass coverage in the process. Coffman flicked the ball over Castillo’s head to an open Kofi Hughes for a 77-yard gain that set up the go-ahead touchdown.

Game Balls

IOWA

LB Christian Kirksey
The junior had an powerful performance for Iowa, making 8 tackles and coming up with two turnovers—an interception return for a touchdown that put Iowa up 14-0, and a fumble recovery in the second half that gave the Hawkeyes life. He has been a true ball-hawk for Iowa’s defense, making several momentum-changing plays this season.

Indiana

QB Cam Coffman
A look at the stat sheet says plenty: 315 passing yards, 3 touchdowns, and no interceptions or sacks for Coffman. But it looked even more impressive on the field, as Coffman wriggled out of defensive pressure time and again and found receivers downfield. He became just the latest quarterback to hurt Iowa’s defense.

Thumbs Up

Wide receiver performance. Kevonte Martin-Manley had a huge performance, running crossing routes for 7 catches, 131 yards, and a first-quarter touchdown. Senior Keenan Davis chipped in 5 catches for 57 yards. Hawkeye receivers have been inconsistent this year, but they showed up Nov. 3.

Pass coverage. When Micah Hyde is getting burned deep for a go-ahead touchdown, it isn’t a good day. Greg Castillo blew a coverage, allowing Indiana receiver Kofi Hughes to gain 77 yards. Two Hoosier pass-catchers went for more than 100 yards, and a third had 80. Iowa’s defensive backs couldn’t stay with Indiana’s fleet of receivers.

Thumbs Down

Wide receiver performance. Keonte Martin-Manley had a huge performance, running crossing routes for 7 catches, 131 yards, and a first-quarter touchdown. Senior Keenan Davis chipped in 5 catches for 57 yards. Hawkeye receivers have been inconsistent this year, but they showed up Nov. 3.

Indiana

QB Cam Coffman
at the snap sheet says plenty. 315 passing yards, 3 touchdowns, no interceptions or sacks for Coffman. Had it looked even more impressive on the field, as Coffman wriggled out of defensive pressure time and again and found receivers downfield. He became just the latest quarterback to hurt Iowa’s defense.
pretty obvious the rest of the world thinks we're the Best Thing Ever. That you wish we weren't such an embarrassment to Bowling Green, they're your problem, not mine or the people's, you can't change facts. You can't change how this country was founded. Why else would they all hate us so much? It's because we're such a great country. We've always been that way. We've always been the greatest country in the world. You can't change that. You can't change the fact that this country has been the leader of the free world for over a century. You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of immigrants. You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of opportunity. You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of freedom. You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of progress. You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of ideals.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of greatness.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of heroism.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of sacrifice.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of courage.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of perseverance.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of faith.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of hope.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of love.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of compassion.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of empathy.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of kindness.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of justice.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of integrity.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of hope.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of promise.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of dreams.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of greatness.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of heroism.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of sacrifice.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of courage.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of perseverance.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of faith.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of hope.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of love.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of compassion.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of empathy.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of kindness.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of justice.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of integrity.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of hope.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of promise.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of dreams.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of greatness.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of heroism.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of sacrifice.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of courage.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of perseverance.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of faith.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of hope.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of love.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of compassion.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of empathy.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of kindness.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of justice.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of integrity.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of hope.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of promise.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of dreams.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of greatness.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of heroism.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of sacrifice.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of courage.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of perseverance.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of faith.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of hope.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of love.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of compassion.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of empathy.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of kindness.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of justice.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of integrity.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of hope.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of promise.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of dreams.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of greatness.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of heroism.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of sacrifice.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of courage.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of perseverance.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of faith.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of hope.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of love.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of compassion.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of empathy.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of kindness.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of justice.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of integrity.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of hope.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of promise.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of dreams.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of greatness.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of heroism.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of sacrifice.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of courage.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of perseverance.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of faith.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of hope.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of love.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of compassion.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of empathy.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of kindness.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of justice.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of integrity.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of hope.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of promise.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of dreams.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of greatness.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of heroism.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of sacrifice.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of courage.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of perseverance.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of faith.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of hope.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of love.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of compassion.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of empathy.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of kindness.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of justice.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of integrity.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of hope.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of promise.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of dreams.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of greatness.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of heroism.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of sacrifice.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of courage.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of perseverance.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of faith.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of hope.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of love.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of compassion.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of empathy.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of kindness.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of justice.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of integrity.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of hope.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of promise.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of dreams.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of greatness.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of heroism.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of sacrifice.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of courage.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of perseverance.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of faith.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of hope.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of love.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of compassion.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of empathy.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of kindness.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of justice.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of integrity.

You can't change the fact that we've always been a nation of hope.
The Iowa women’s swimming team fell to No. 12 Minnesota on Nov. 3, 192-103. The Golden Gophers are reigning Big Ten champions, and they remain undefeated with the victory, but all was not negative for the Hawkeyes.

"Even with the loss, we had some outstanding performances tonight," head coach Marc Long said in a release. "We are looking forward to working hard and continuing to prepare for our championship season."

Women’s swimming began with a victory in the 200 medley relay. Maddie Bro, Olivia Kabacinski, and Maggie Hofstadter, along with sophomore Heather Arseth, finished second (1:43.71). Freshman Kacee Kacinski continued her early season success in the 500 freestyle, touching the wall in 5:12.76. Stoughton also registered a NCAA "B" qualifying time of 4:47.77 in the 500 freestyle.

Sophomore standout and last year’s Big Ten Freshman of the Year Becky Stoughton won the Hawkeyes’ first event on Nov. 2. While just the second meet of a long season, Stoughton posted a season best time in the 1,000 freestyle, touching the wall at 9:57.58. Stoughton also registered a NCAA "B" qualifying time of 4:47.77 in the 500 freestyle, in which she finished second. She also placed second in the 200 freestyle.

Stoughton also registered a NCAA "B" qualifying time of 4:47.77 in the 500 freestyle, in which she finished second. She also placed second in the 200 freestyle.

Another Hawkeye to have success against the Golden Gophers was junior Karolina Wartalowicz. She posted season-best times in the 100 breast (1:05.03) and the 200 breast (2:20.89).

"Gophers best women swimmers"

MORE ONLINE
Go to dailyiowan.com for coverage of Iowa men’s swimming and volleyball.
Freshman Mike Gesell wasted little time in making his presence known in his debut.

FOOTBALL

Continued from 12A

"The freshmen we have, three of those things," Taylor said and laughed. "I was really happy with the floor, all out there. (Confidence) quota- tion marks. I felt like I'm getting better, and I'm not going to force anything, and I'm not going to force anything. Just going out there." Gesell emphasized saving the floor, including all four of Iowa's freshmen.

Kali Pachal saw the floor for the first time as a Hawk. "As a first-year player, you're very young, especially in college basketball. It was a little more intense at this level. I know I've heard it before, and I'm just trying to learn as much as I can. I'm really trying to take the floor and be ready for a whole season. I'm ready for anything. I'm ready to shoulder the responsibility he gave him." Gesell said part of becoming his offense. He expected to have a bigger role in the shot clock. "I've had a lot of pull-up jumpers in the past," Gesell said, "and I want to play that way, to be efficient, in our full-court press." At the end of the day through the first four games, Gesell said that he was "kind of a scramble- ing game. We didn't have our floor game and that's one of those things. He's not a new kid in college. He has experience." Gesell said he had more experience out of the playbook and was aware of the subdivision of offensive points. For the Hawkeyes, the first time since 2009-10, they have the lead in the first three games of the season, and it's been a long time since college basketball, and it takes a while to understand." Gesell said he was ready to shoulder the responsibility he gave him." Gesell said part of becoming his offense. He expected to have a bigger role in the shot clock. "I've had a lot of pull-up jumpers in the past," Gesell said, "and I want to play that way, to be efficient, in our full-court press." At the end of the day through the first four games, Gesell said that he was "kind of a scramble- ing game. We didn't have our floor game and that's one of those things. He's not a new kid in college. He has experience." Gesell said he had more experience out of the playbook and was aware of the subdivision of offensive points. For the Hawkeyes, the first time since 2009-10, they have the lead in the first three games of the season, and it's been a long time since
Do you know how many song titles have the word “home” in them?

I don’t either, but the topic seems to strike a chord for everyone.

Call me, Terri Larson, when you’re ready to find your next home—the sound of a new key on your key ring will be music to your ears!

Call or e-mail: 319-331-7679
Email: classifieds@uiowa.edu
Lepic-Kreager, Realtors

Classifieds
319-335-5784
319-335-5785

Your ad will run in our newspaper in black and white and in our online edition in full color.

30 days for $50.

The ad will appear in our newspaper and on our website.
Iowa redshirt freshmen Jordan Walsh and Austin Blythe were pitted against bigger, more experienced, and more talented Indiana defensive linemen.

By Molly Irene Olstad

Monday, November 5, 2012

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. — Take two redshirt freshmen defensive linemen, 270 and 275 pounds, and line them up against a 294-pound senior and a 295-pound fifth-year senior.

Iowa’s Jordan Walsh and Austin Blythe were pitted against defensive tackles with three times as much experience as they had on Nov. 3, and the Hawkeye offensive line struggled because of it. Hawkeyes Adam Replogle and Larry Black, Jr. dominated the Iowa offensive line and stopped both the running game and passing game from the beginning.

“Credit goes to [Replogle and Black] — they’re good players, experienced players,” center James Ferentz said. “They affected the game, and they did more than we could have expected from them.”

Replogle and Black have played in every game for Indiana since 2009 and have racked up a combined 289 career tackles. The seniors’ experience makes them the undeniable leaders of the Hoosier defense.

“I was running routes, and I was looking back, and of penetration,” wide receiver Kevonte Martin-Manley said. “And our press was giving them turnovers to go along with his offensive clearance. Dixon owns the record for most 3-pointer in Carver-Hawkeye Arena on Sunday night, with 21 of those points coming from beyond the 3-point arc. Dixon scored a team-high 28 points all that missed by her teammates: Printy.

Dixon playing in place of the injured senior and haven’t been in for every snap. Blythe started the opening-tip, causing several miscues from the visiting Hawks’ offense — and eventually leading to 41 points off turnovers.

Iowa throw a devasting full-court press at their Division-II opponents from the opening-tip, creating several miscues from the-upset Hawks’ offense — and ultimately leading to 41 points off turnovers. Gesell made his presence felt in all aspects of the contest, racking up a trio of rebounds and assists as well as a pair of takeaways to go along with his offensive output. He explained the emphasis his squad has put on being aggressive toward the ball and felt his team accomplished that task on display.

“We turned them over and didn’t let them get into rhythm,” Iowa head coach Fran McCaffery said. “We have a lot of them get into rhythm,” Iowa head coach Fran McCaffery said. “We have a lot of them get into rhythm,” Iowa head coach Fran McCaffery said. “We have a lot of them get into rhythm,” Iowa head coach Fran McCaffery said. “We have a lot of them get into rhythm,” Iowa head coach Fran McCaffery said. “We have a lot of them get into rhythm.”

Iowa forced 31 turnovers, and freshman point guard Mike Gesell led all scorers with 18 points in a 100-54 victory over Division-II Quincy (Ill.) on Sunday. The Iowa men’s basketball team looked like a men’s hoops central

The Iowa field hockey team had to watch the Big Ten tournament from the sidelines this weekend. Read about their experiences and see a photo slide show.

By Ben Ross

Even without starting guard and captain Jamie Printy, the Iowa women’s basketball team looked like a complete squad in an exhibition win 86-51 over Division-II Quincy (Ill.).

Even without starting guard and captain Jamie Printy, the Iowa women’s basketball team looked like a complete squad in an exhibition win 86-51 over Division-II Quincy (Ill.).

The senior, as it turns out, wasn’t clearly didn’t play well enough to win. And they did, so they ended up being
Over the last few years, Iowa's universities, farms, manufacturing plants, fairs, and small towns have served as the backdrop for the upcoming election.

By Quentin Misiag

"Iowa's job isn't necessarily to pick the winner but to expose the pretender," University of Iowa Associate Professor of political science Tim Hagle said. "It can be good candidates for their party," he added.

This election year marked a particularly unique caucus outcome, as former Sen. Rick Santorum, R-Pa., won two months alone to support Obama. As of Sunday evening, 44,720 total ballots had been requested in Johnson County, and 40,862 were returned, according to the Auditor’s Office. That’s 40 percent over 2008 as of Oct. 26. According to the Johnson County Auditor’s Office, voters requested 11,793 absentee ballots as of the first week of early voting, up from 7,355 in 2008. According to the Associated Press, absentee ballot requests were up 40 percent over 2008 as of Oct. 26.

Republican state, we might have a hard time justifying our political power and caucuses. People are politically engaged here."

"The campaigns aren't spending time in states they know they will definitely win or could lose, and Iowa is certainly in the thick of that."
Lamberti wants to work with the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs to streamline the Department’s facilities, and work to improve veterans’ health care and benefits. He also supports President Obama’s plan to increase access to health care through expanding health insurance.

ECONOMY

Lamberti wants to support education and to create new jobs and industries to help bring more investment to Iowa. He wants to encourage businesses to relocate to Iowa and to increase the presence of alternative energy. He also supports President Obama’s plan to increase access to health care through expanding health insurance.

EDUCATION

Lamberti supports increasing funding in education and improving schools. He also supports reducing the cost of higher education and increasing access to it. He believes that education is key to economic growth and development.

ENERGY

Lamberti supports increasing funding in education and improving schools. He also supports reducing the cost of higher education and increasing access to it. He believes that education is key to economic growth and development.

HEALTH CARE

Lamberti supports ensuring that all Iowans have access to quality, affordable health care. He believes that the federal government needs to play a stronger role in ensuring that all Americans have access to health care. He also supports reducing the cost of health care and increasing access to it.

WAVENRISR'S ISSUES

Lamberti’s focus is on reducing the burdens on workers and families. He supports expanding access to quality, affordable health care and to affordable housing. He also supports increasing access to education and to affordable housing.

LOCAL AND STATE RACES

DISTRICT 2 CANDIDATES VS

We need to make sure America and the world understands Iowa is not a flower community or state. We have the ability … to feed, fuel, and clothe the world.”

— GOP Challenger John Archer

Everybody is talking about uncertainty. Companies want certainty. People who have invested in Iowa are getting nervous. We need certainty.

— Democratic State Senator, Joni Ernst

The controversial proposal for a new Johnson County Justice Center paves the way for $400 million in federal funding. County supervisors are funding $1.3 million, but the other $400 million would come from a bond referendum. The state justices of the peace on the bond panel thought the project was a priority.

Vote ‘Yes’/Vote ‘No’

Opponents of the bond cite the high cost of the proposal when argue for the option to regulate in order to keep the project. Some opponents argue that the project is too expensive and will not generate enough revenue to pay off the bonds.

— IObevec, Johnson County Justice Center
Ronald V. Dole (Ron) is a Republican Party politician, former U.S. Senator from Kentucky, and a candidate for President of the United States in 2012. He is known for his optimistic and positive approach to public service.

Dole is a strong supporter of the United States military, and he has been a vocal advocate for increased defense spending. He believes that our country must remain strong and that it is important to maintain our military strength.

Dole is also a strong advocate for economic growth and job creation. He believes that we need to create a pro-business environment that will attract private investment and stimulate economic growth.

Dole has been a strong supporter of education and has worked to improve the quality of education in America. He has called for increased funding for schools and has supported initiatives to improve teacher pay and working conditions.

Dole is also a strong advocate for social issues. He believes that it is important to protect the rights of all Americans, and he has been a vocal advocate for the rights of women, gay and lesbian Americans, and people with disabilities.

Dole is a dedicated public servant who has worked hard to make America a better place. He has a proven record of accomplishments and is a strong candidate for the presidency.
Representatives Race

Visit Lenning is running unopposed for House District 54. Depending on the precinct, Iowa City voters may see Dave Jacobs, running for District 74, or Mary Mascher, running for District 84, in this spot.

Judicial Retention

Voters can choose YES to keep judges in office, or NO to not retain. This year, some have campaigned against Justice David Wiggins, who was part of the controversial 2009 decision to impound a portion of the Des Moines River. Two years ago a similar campaign succeeded in not retaining three other justices.

Justice Center

Vote whether to adopt a measure that would put $46.8 million towards a proposed justice center. Proponents say it would improve space, security, and efficiency. Opponents argue it is not the most cost-effective solution.

Do You Know Where to Vote?

There are 24 Iowa City precincts, each with a specific voting location. The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. statewide. If you are in line when the polls close, you will be able to vote. Most Iowa voters do not need to show ID when voting. Exceptions include if you are registering to vote or changing your address on Election Day. More information: www.jcauditor.com

Iowa City Precinct Locations

1 Helen Lumm School, 3010 E. Washington St.
2 Ernest Hem School, 600 Ayer Ave.
3 Quappapoge Residence Hall, University of Iowa
4 Lincoln School, 300 Teeters Court
5 University of Iowa Main Library, 125 W. Washington St.
6 Menlo Park Recreation Center, 2701 Bristol Drive
7 West High School, 2451 Mellow Ave.
8 Irving Water School, 3680 Pendarvis Road Southwest
9 University of Iowa Athletic Hall of Fame, 2425 Prairie Meadow Drive
10 Grandwood School, 1930 Lakeside Drive
11 Senior Citizens Center, 28 S. Linn St.
12 Grand Wood School, 1930 Lakeside Drive
13 City Transit Building, 1200 S. Riverside Drive
14 Mark Twain School, 600 Ayer Ave.
15 Tins High School, 1528 Mall Drive
16 Robert Lucas School, 830 Southlawn Drive
17 City High School, 1528 Mall Drive
18 Longfellow School, 1130 Seymour Ave.
19 Recreation Center, 220 S. Gilbert St.
20 Senior Center, 28 S. Lyon St.
21 Horace Mann School, 521 N. Dodge St.
22 St. Patrick’s Church, 4330 St. Patrick Drive
23 Regina High School, 2150 Rochester Ave.
24 City Hall, 120 W. Washington St.
25 Iowa City Parks and Forestry, 2275 S. Gilbert St.
26 West High School, 2451 Mellow Ave.
27 University of Iowa Main Library, 125 W. Washington St.
28 Senior Citizens Center, 28 S. Linn St.
29 Sunset Drive, 1200 S. Riverside Drive
30 Regina High School, 2150 Rochester Ave.
31 City Transit Building, 1200 S. Riverside Drive
32 City Hall, 120 W. Washington St.
33 Iowa City Parks and Forestry, 2275 S. Gilbert St.
34 Sunset Drive, 1200 S. Riverside Drive
35 Regina High School, 2150 Rochester Ave.